MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor
Dolly Dixon, Reporter

The Sunday school opened with a large attendance, and four new members. We will have our Children's Day program next Sunday morning.

Morning service was enjoyed by all, as it was testifying day. All souls were filled.

The evening service was an inspiring one with a wonderful message being delivered, after the Lord's Supper was served.

We invite all to come and take part with us next Sunday at 3 o'clock in our baptizing service at Mt. Moriah church.

FIRST SPIRITUAL TEMPLE NO. 6

24th and Elondo Streets
Daughter M. Quinn, Leader

Sunday night will be a great time in Zion for First Spiritual. A great baptizing and spiritual veiling of the saints. Come out and see the works of the Holy Spirit, through our honorable Mother Bishop Sutton.

First Spiritual Temple is rejoicing over the many blessings and miracles wrought by the Holy Spirit through our honorable Mother Bishop Sutton. Who is one among the greatest prophetesses in the world, and sent from God. Many have been wonderfully blessed in this city through divine workings—An evangelist after God's own heart—Come out and hear this spiritual wonder, at 1722 No. 26th street. Services every night at 8 o'clock.

2 o'clock prayer services—every afternoon. Come let's revive our souls with prayer and songs.

A rare treat for the music lovers—Daughter Etta Johnson, a musical wizard at the piano—also Molliverma Smith of Leavenworth, Kas.—a spiritual songbird.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

28th and Decatur Streets
Rev. M. B. Bilbrew, Pastor
Minnie Bryant, Reporter

Services were good at Salem Sunday and well attended. The Birthday Dinner party sponsored by the Sunday school was a grand success. It came as a surprise to our superintendent, Mr. John Rosenbaugh as it was given in honor of his Birthday.

The tables were beautifully decorated. Yellow, blue, red, orange gold and white marked the color theme. Over two hundred people were present.

Our pastor is back in the city. Sunday morning he brought to us a helpful message. His subject was "Diligence."

The BYPU is sponsoring a buffet luncheon on Sunday, June 13th at the home of Mrs. Bertha Smith.

Our pastor brought to us a soul stirring message at 8 p. m. His text was found in the 3rd chapter of Revelation and the 20th verse. Two were baptized Sunday night. Visitors are always welcome at Salem.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
Forysteen Burroughs, Reporter

The order of services are as follows; Sunday school 9 a. m.; Morning worship, 11 a. m.; BYPU, 6 p. m.; Evening worship, 8 p. m.

Services were well attended both morning and evening.

There will be a tea given at the home of Mrs. Selma Clark, 2807 Burdette street on Sunday afternoon. The Airplanes are moving. Come out and watch their progress. The Blue Jays are now in the lead. The following sick persons are in the hospital, Mrs. C. Woods, Mrs. Davidson and Mr. J. Johnson.

CLAIR CHAPEL M. E.

Services were well attended throughout the day. The pastor preached a lovely sermon from 103 Psalm, 17th chapter. His subject was "The Mercy of the Lord is from Everlasting to Everlasting." He outlined some helpful thoughts on the richness of God's mercy. At the evening services his thoughts were centered on "Obtaining From the Appearance of Evil." Next Sunday is Children's Day and the Sunday school is preparing a nice program to be presented at the evening services.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor

Sunday school opened with a large number present. Many helpful thoughts were gleaned from the lesson. At 11 a. m., Rev. E. Arlington Wilson, of Dallas, Tex., brought us a grand message which was enjoyed by all who were present. His subject was "The Presence of the Lord." At 3 p. m., another great sermon was preached by Rev. Wilson. His subject was "The White Plumed Captain." At 8 o'clock, Rev. Wilson preached another inspiring sermon. His subject was "The Prince of Peace." Those who missed the three sermons delivered by Rev. Wilson, missed a grand treat. Rev. M. K. Curry, jr., the son of our pastor, is here visiting for a few days. Miss Theresa Curry, the daughter of our pastor, who has been attending school is also here in the city. Mrs. S. A. Botts, the wife of the late Rev. W. F. Botts, is in the city she worshipped with us the past two Sundays. We are always glad to have her in our midst.

FREESTONE BAPTIST CHURCH

26th and Hamilton Streets
Rev. Thomas, Pastor

Sunday school opened as usual with a very good attendance. In the rally sponsored by the Sunday school, Avaline Grice was awarded first prize for bringing the largest amount of money. Corline Thomas won second prize and Annaetha Robinson won third prize.

Morning services were given over to our testimonial service.

We were delighted to have. Sis. Ellen Dacus with us. She has been ill for several months. Evening services were carried on as usual.

The pastor, Rev. Don Thomas, delivered a very inspiring sermon, which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. C. Underwood is still on the sick list.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

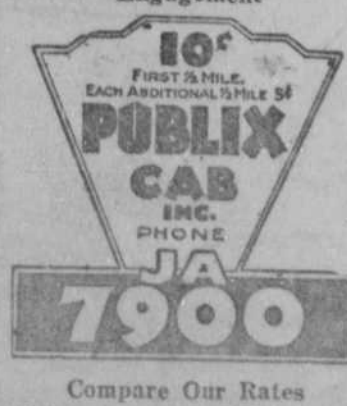

2608 Franklin Street

Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. with the Supt. Mrs. Williams, presiding. At 11:30 a. m. Testimonial services began. At 3 p. m. the pastor and choir went to the St. Luke Baptist church, 29th and Burdette streets. At 6 p. m. the BYPU opened with thirty-five present. The lesson was beautifully taught by Rev. S. S. Whitelaw. At 8 p. m. the sermon was delivered by the pastor, after which communion was taken. One was added to the church. Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ross of Coffeyville, Kas., and others of the city. When going visiting, make Morning Star your visiting place. Visitors are always welcome.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Sunday will be Children's day. At the 11 o'clock services, all children are asked to remain. At night, the Sunday school will have a Children's Day program. Last Sunday, the pastor preached both morning and evening services. His sermons were very uplifting. One united with the church. The A. C. E. met at the usual hour. The lesson was briefly discussed and a great number of young people took an active part in the lesson. A short program was rendered. Mrs. J. D. Lewis, made a wonderful talk on "Youth." Clara Anderson rendered a vocal solo. A paper was read by Priscilla Todd, instrumental solo by Lillian Anderson and a vocal solo by Johnnie Lee Anderson. On Wednesday night June 16th the Junior Stewardess Board is sponsoring a Country Grocery Store at the church. Anyone holding a ticket will get an article. Miss McBride, the granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. Phillips, is going on a vacation. She will leave Friday night enroute to Kansas City and Fort Smith, Ark., where she will visit with her two older brothers, and Springfield, Mo., where she will visit with her mother.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST

27th and Franklin Streets
Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Pastor
Lottie Keys, Reporter

Pleasant Green Baptist church gave a week of service honoring Rev. E. E. Wilhite, who served as assistant pastor under Rev. P. J. Price.

Rev. Wilhite was very enthusiastic and helpful in sponsoring programs and financial drives for the church. Five churches took part in these services. On Saturday night at the Masonic hall a banquet was given by the Baptist Ministers Alliance of which he was instructor.

Rev. E. E. Wilhite left for Los Angeles, Calif., Thursday, June 3rd, where he will join his wife. We wish for him success.

CLEAVES' TEMPLE C. M. E.

Rev. D. W. Bass, Pastor
Mrs. Henryetta Makins, Reporter

After a careful study on the "Life of Joseph," Mr. B. E. Squires spoke to the young people on the "Responsibility of Youth." The pastor preached at the 11 o'clock service on "Great Things Have Been Done." The men of Cleaves Temple wish to thank the public for so generous a collection at their 3 o'clock service. Epworth League was very inspiring. After general class at the 8 o'clock service, communion was given.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ross and Mrs. Rosetta Toliver, Miss Ruth Nolan, of Coffeyville, Kas., were visitors Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ross and the parents of Bernice Ross, Barbara Jean Grimmet and Lillian Allen are ill. Both are junior choir members. Mrs. Bessie Davis is not doing so well at this writing.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD C. W. F. F.

2319 North 25th Street
Elder E. J. Clark, Pastor
Mrs. C. A. Brayboy, Reporter

Sunday school opened at the usual hour. At 11:30 a. m., the pastor preached a wonderful sermon. At 2 p. m. we had baptizing ceremonies. At 3:30 p. m. the Missionary Board had a rally which was a success. We had two visiting churches with us in Sunday, the Church of God, 34th and Bedford, and St. Mark Baptist church, 27th and Lake street. At 8:30 p. m. Elder C. A. Brayboy preached a powerful sermon. We are always glad to have our friends to be with us. Don't forget the convention to be held from July 15th to 18th.
