W. R. S.—Tell me if I will get to take the trip this summer that was promised me last year?

Ans: You will make the trip to ST. LOUIS in July and visit with your brother and his wife. They are planning many surprises for you and your trip will be the most pleasant month of your life. There will be no end to your pleasures.

M. A. M.—I am in love with a boy and he goes with another girl and myself. Tell me which of the two will he choose?

Ans: Neither of you. He isn't looking for a wife or even a regular girl friend. He is interested in getting into some kind of business before he takes any girl seriously. Forget marriage until you are through school.

M. W.—Did someone put something on my mother to cause this condition of her knees?

Ans: No one has tried to hurt your mother in any way. The condition is of natural causes but if she were taken to a good doctor she would soon be able to be up and about. See that she gets immediate medical care.

M. B.—I want to know if I will have a boy friend that I can call my very own?

Ans: Yes, but it will never be the young man that you are going with at the present time. You are wasting your time when you go with him. It will be at least two years before you do meet your future husband.

R. C.—Should I consider going to summer school this year? Could I get a private answer also?

Ans: If you feel that you are strong enough then the summer school will not hurt you. A few months vacation does a lot to help youngsters your age and you really aren't very much behind in school. If you desire an Astrology Reading send a quarter and I will be glad to give you free my personal opinion on three questions.

G. G.—I enjoy reading your column each week. Tell whether or not I should take the trip I have in mind?

Ans: Don't take it if you must go alone for I don't think that you will find it as enjoyable as you think. Have a member of your family accompany you on this trip.

L. P. S.—My daughter is begging me to allow her to take up a business course and not return to college. I am so worried about the matter and would like to have your opinion?

Ans: There is very little that you could do but allow her to take up the course. She is disgusted with the course she is now taking and isn't interested enough to pass. A business career would be just the thing for her.

R. T.—Should I make the change of location that I am now thinking about and when is the best season to make this change?

Ans: Right now. The location would be very desirable for your barbershop and you will be able to get a new trade as well as keep the old customers that you have. Your present place is out of the way and inconvenient to reach.

L. C.—Will the man that I am thinking about ever return to this city and if so how soon?

Ans: He will return.....but he won't come back to be near you. Business will bring him back within the next eighteen months. Try to forget about this party.

Everybody in town is going. Where? To the big carnival dance at the Dreamland Hall on June 28th, given by the Bacchanite Club, featuring Anna Mae Winburn and her Cotton Club Boys.

Pork Steak With Spicy Sauce

- 1 thick slice of pork steak
4 tomatoes, medium sized
4 potatoes
1 T. vinegar
1/2 cup finely chopped onions
1 t. prepared mustard
2 T. butter
2 T. flour
1/2 t. sugar
3/4 cup hot water
Salt and pepper

Salt and pepper pork steak. Brown lightly on both sides in a hot frying pan. Cover, reduce the heat, and simmer slowly for 30 minutes or until tender. Place the meat on fire proof platter, and arrange around it tomatoes cut in halves with the cut surface dipped in flour and browned in the ham fat. Place rosettes of mashed potatoes between the tomato halves. Place platter in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) until potatoes are browned, flour, blend in butter making a brown sauce. Add the chopped onion heated in vinegar to the mixture and cook for 10 minutes. Remove from stove and add mustard, sugar and salt. Pour sauce over pork steak. Place rings of green pepper around tomato halves and garnish with parsley or celery hearts.

Macaroni Salad

- 2 cups of cooked macaroni
1 cup chopped celery
1 green pepper, chopped
2 pimentos
6 sweet pickles, chopped
1/2 c. grated American cheese
Mayonnaise and lettuce
Fold in mayonnaise the above mixture and put on lettuce and serve.

Custard and Cake Dessert

- 1 pt. milk (scant)
2 egg yolks
2 T. Knox Gelatine
1 pt. whipping cream
Small can of pineapple
Maraschino Cherries
1 cup sugar
1 t. vanilla
1/2 cup milk
2 egg whites
Stale cake crumbs

Boil together until slightly thickened, pint of milk, sugar and yolks. Dissolve gelatine in 1/2 cup of milk and add to custard, also add vanilla. Cook until it begins to set. Add cream which has been whipped and egg whites beaten stiff. Put layer of custard in mold and place cherries at intervals pushing them through the custard so they will be on top when unmolded, then a layer of cake crumbs and pineapple then custard. Chill and unmold. Serve with whipped cream.

On the Air and In It

Chicago, June 13—A typical week on NBC Shows that spots for sepias on that network have about reached maturity. Maturity, that is, that comes when one is old enough to vote, for they have already passed twenty-one.

NBC program planners are to be commended in their astuteness. Statistics prove that the Negro population is only fractionally less than ten per cent of the total population of the country. In large northern cities this proportion is increased. Looking at it from any angle, the favor of a constituency that large is not to be ignored. Since radio in the United States is mainly commercial, the purchasing power of millions of Negroes mounts amazing figures. When one considers, also, that the vast majority of us live so close to the margins of our incomes that we must, will, and do spend—the importance of making a special appeal to us becomes more significant.

NBC has taken the lead. To To NBC, our thanks and the Walter Winchell orchid. To NBC also, a suggestion:

That the time given to sepias spots so often conflicts with popular and well established programs often on their own network—that one is at a loss to know how to listen to both. Specifically: Cleo Brown appears on a split Red network, and must rival Little Orphan Annie for listeners.

Midge Williams splits the Red again, with House Jamison, commentator, Nat Brusloff's orchestra, and guests on the other part of the network:

The Vagabonds may be heard in the locality of Chicago only by tuning to small stations, encountering faulty reception. Moreover, the other part of the network carries the dramatic sketch, the O'Neills.

Good Time Society and Fibber McGee and Molly leave Negro audiences in a quandary as to which to hear:

Cabin in the Cotton, featuring the Southernaires, and Barry Woods songs are aired simultaneously; and

Harlem Revue and Abe Lyman must content themselves with divided audiences for the same reason.

A pleasant feature of NBC is the number of popular programs on which Negroes appear frequently as guest artists and subjects of comment—Walter Winchell, Jimmy Fidler, Rudy Vallee, and Ben Bernie, to mention but a few. For years we have known that our achievements, our adventures, were good 'copy.' That so large an enterprise as NBC and its artists have also found it out is indeed gratifying.

Boston Singers In Second Opera Concert

Boston, June 10 (ANP)—A large responsive audience of music lovers in Brown hall, New England Conservatory of Music Building, last Thursday applauded the efforts of the Colored Opera Society who presented their second annual opera concert.

Composer William A. Rhodes was the conductor. One of the featured artists was Mme. Pattie Yates in the role of Aida. Among the other singers taking part in the concert were William Richardson, Eugene Greene, Virginia Strother, Lillian Strother, Lillian Harrison, Sarah McKenzie, Ann Walker, Ida Wren, Matilda Birch, Harvey Higgins, Fred Riggs, John Powell, Irving Ridley, Emanuel Mansfield and Helena Mayle. Ethel Dunn was the accompanist.

Jets First Negro Juror in 50 Years

Jacksonville, Fla., June 11 (By Richardson for ANP)—Marking the first time that a Negro has sat on a jury in that section in a half-century, William Clark was a member of the grand jury in Brunswick, Ga., a few miles from here, when it returned a protest against the proposed federal anti-lynching bill.

Details of the reason for Clark's vote with the rest of the opposition to the measure are not known. The jury is said to have urged Georgia politicians to vote against the measure when given an opportunity.

Brunswick is a section that has had lynchings of its own during the past few years.
