

New Apartments Will Open Soon

FRIEDLANDER SAYS— Spend it where—with—and for the comfort of the people you get it from.

We think that's good logic. The following is the announcement our reporter brought in announcing the opening of fifty-four newly decorated modern apartments with tennis courts adjoining.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To my friends and the Public: I am taking this means of announcing that I have acquired the Oxford addition adjoining the La-Casa Hotel. In all, there are eight houses now being remodeled into up-to-date apartments, furnished and some unfurnished. We will also have several five and two room houses for rent, also several tennis courts.

I am desirous of making this enterprise prove to be an additional medium of service in and to the community. It is my sincere hope that as time passes, this institution will grow and prosper, and in so doing offer a better and broader service to the entire community. Looking forward to having you visit and inspect the apartments when they are completed, I am,

Sincerely
Herman Friedlander

In the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of Newton N. Rone, deceased.

To: Riley McClung and John T. McClung and to their spouses, heirs at law, creditors and all other persons interested in said estate:

You are hereby notified that on the 18th day of June, 1937, Halley M. Bliznak filed her petition in the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, alleging that Newton N. Rone died prior to January 7, 1929, and that on said date a decree was entered in the Probate Court of Cook County, Illinois which decreed that the said Riley McClung and John T. McClung, among others were heirs of the said Newton N. Rone, and that the said Newton N. Rone at the time of his death was seized and possessed of real estate in Douglas County, Nebraska, described as Lot Six (6) in Wolhers, Place an Addition in Douglas County, Nebraska, as surveyed, platted and recorded; and that the petitioner is interested in said real property in that she holds a deed from all of the heirs of said Newton N. Rone, except the said Riley McClung and John T. McClung. The petitioner prays that this Court forthwith fix a time and place for hearing of said petition; and for giving notice thereof to said heirs and all other persons interested as required by law, and that the Court enter a decree that more than two years have elapsed since the death of said Newton N. Rone, that he died intestate seized of said lot, and no application has been made in the State of Nebraska for an appointment of an administrator of his estate, and that the heirs of the deceased, their degree of kinship and their right of descent in said real property be entered according to law, and that further administration of said estate be dispensed with.

You are therefore notified that a hearing upon said petition will be had in the County Court Room in the Douglas County Court House in Omaha, Nebraska on the 30th day of July, 1937 at 9 o'clock, A. M., and that if you fail to appear at said time and place to contest said petition, the Court may grant the same and enter its decree of heirship thereon, and dispense with further administration of said estate.

Appointed

Mr. Bostic, Harlem journalist, was recently appointed junior clerk in the Department of Internal Revenue, First District of New York. Bostic lives at 636 Putnam avenue, Brooklyn, and comes, politically, from the 17th Assembly District of his borough. The young man is a native of Mt. Holly, N. J., received his elementary training in his home town, high school training in Atlantic City and Philadelphia, and took the A. B. from Morgan college in '29. His newspaper work is confined to radio comment; and he is announcer for baseball games at Dyckman oval, Manhattan, each Sunday. Bostic created a sensation recently when he formally protested to the New York State Boxing Commission that he had been gyped when he paid $16.50 for a ticket to see Joe Louis and Bob Pastor fight, charging he saw a foot race. Several sports writers in the daily press supported Bostic's contention. (C)

Mr. Redmond, from Jackson, Miss., is a Harvard man. (C)

Negro Nurse Honored For Work In Spain

New York, June 26 (CNA)—Salaria Kee, first Negro nurse to go to Spain, was praised in an interview released by the Spanish Government information bureau in Valencia. Miss Kee, an Ohio girl trained in Harlem hospital, New York, left with a unit of the Medical Bureau to Aid Spanish Democracy in March, and has been with one of the bureau's base hospitals near Albacete.

"Miss Kee is a lovely girl," said the interview. "As the first nurse of her race here, she does credit to the Negro people. Her work in the hospital where every nurse and doctor has to do the work of several others has proven her real merit."

The Medical Bureau, 381 Fourth avenue, New York City, has sent 85 nurses and doctors to Spain for the three base hospitals and one mobile hospital set up there, which keeps in equipment and supplies by contributions from anti-fascists and friends of Democracy in this country.

Organize New Orleans Board of Trade

New Orleans, La., June 24 (ANP)—Closing one of the most significant and interesting three-day business institutes ever conducted in this section of the country, local Negro business men and women have organized a Board of Trade, to be affiliated with the National Negro Business League, and immediate steps are being taken to "further the commercial, economic, social and civic interests of participating members," as stated in the purpose of the organization.

The three-day institute, sponsored by the YMCA School of Commerce on the campus of Dillard university, brought to New Orleans some of the nation's best known business leaders.

Included among those who were active participants on the program were C. C. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life insurance company and president of the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank of Durham, N. C.; J. B. Blayton, C. P. A., professor of the Citizens Trust Company of Atlanta; Asa Spaulding, actuary for the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, Durham N. C.; James A. Jackson, Special Representative, Standard Oil Company of New Jersey; Albon L. Holsey, Field Officer, United States Department of Agriculture, and executive secretary of the National Negro Business League and Arnett Lindsay, formerly of the Peoples Finance Cor., St. Louis, Mo., who is promotion secretary of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. Other business leaders were present from Georgia and Florida.

The program, which comprised all day meetings on Friday and Saturday, and a public meeting on Sunday, consisted of seminars for grocers, garage ad service station men, undertakers, insurance men and two general sessions. Hundreds attended.

The organization of the board of Trade took place at the conclusion of the institute, with W. H. Mitchell, jr., executive secretary of the YMCA School of Commerce, elected president. Mr. George McDemmond, secretary of the hospitalization plan at Flint-Goodridge hospital, was named executive secretary.

The local group has already formed a committee on cooperative buying, and is proceeding with a comprehensive program.

"Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give thee rest." How conveniently this saying can be applied now, but did Christ merit physical labor brought on by these hot sultry days or spiritual labor brought on by exertion in trying to help men and women see the light. Are you going on in spite of the weather? Sunday school was well attended. The lesson was very interestingly brought out. "Kindness," Christ said, "Love ye one another," meaning, "Be ye kind to one another" for I John 4-20, says, "If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar." We can only love by being kind.

Rev. Hayes of Zion Baptist church spoke to the junior church. Due to the absence of the pastor, Rev. P. M. Harris preached both morning and evening sermons. Rev. D. M. Bass is in Little
