ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH
"The Friendly Church"
Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

Last Sunday was a banner day. The attendance at Sunday school was very good. At the morning service, the Elks held their Memorial Service as the beginning of their Midwestern Convention. Dr. Adams spoke from Exodus 12:36, subject, "What Mean You By This Service?" From this subject he preached a fine sermon in that there were many good thoughts for the Elks assembled as well as others of the congregation. He brought out that the purpose of the service and the works of the Elks was to give opportunity for the living and to give testimony of appreciation for the living as well as the dead, bringing out that one of their most important works, if not most important, was their educational program for young people and that the order was based upon the teaching of the Bible and the love for one another.

In the afternoon, Rev. Adams went to Council Bluffs to preach for Rev. Slater and his congregation, but the choir was not able to go as was expected. The evening service was short and some of the congregation went to Zion to hear the oratorical contest given by the Elks.

There were many out-of-town visitors, far too many to mention, but St. John is always glad to welcome its visitors. You will perhaps see that the Omaha Guide, your own local paper, has on a subscription campaign. Why not take it and keep well informed on all your church social and fraternal news.

BETHEL AME CHURCH
Rev. A. Philips, Pastor

The Holy Spirit ran high all day at Bethel Sunday, July 4th. Sunday school met at the usual hour. Morning services were held at 11 a. m. This being the first Sunday in the month, we had our regular class and communion services. Five were added to the church. At 3 o'clock, the Senior Stewardesses services were successful. The ACE league met at the usual hour. At 7:30, regular preaching services began. Rev. A. Philips preached. We were glad to have so many visitors present, also the many out-of-town visitors. Visitors are always welcome to attend the services at Bethel church.

At 6:30, BYPU opened and the lesson was taught by Rev. W. M. Hall. At 8 p. m., the Elks held their scholarship contest in the auditorium of the church. This was enjoyed by a large audience.
