B. E. F.—Please answer in the column whether or not I should continue with my husband or not? He stays out nights and doesn't attempt to support his family.

Ans: It's high time you were getting alarmed about the way he is acting. Give him a good old-fashioned lecture and let him know that enough of anything is plenty and it is up to him to do better. If you put it to him in a sensible manner he will change his ways.

B. L. H.—Will I be successful with the plans that I have at this time?

Ans: Think the idea over a little more carefully before you make this change. In fact it seems to me that the fall of the year would be an ideal time for you to get started. Things will look dull for a few months but will brighten up later.

Z. C. R.—Will the one I am thinking about return to me and does he really care?

Ans: He has forgotten the many promises he made to you. Get him off your mind for if he were really in love with you, he certainly would write occasionally and let you know his whereabouts. There is a fellow right in your city who is terribly interested in knowing you better. Give him a break.

H. M.—My wife and me have had trouble for a year. She listens to her friends instead of me and I don't approve of her friends. They

Hotel Chef Makes Plenty of Cash

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 12 (By Sanders Mason for ANP)—Leroy Buggs, a big but crestfallen dark gentleman, sat in the county jail last week puzzling over the perplexities of big business. By night Buggs was a chef at the swank downtown Tampa Terrace hotel, cooking those $1.25 teabone steaks to a sizzling perfection. By day, he operated his own restaurant, the K. of P. cafe, sizzling those same luscious steaks but selling them at two-bits a teabone to colored customers. To be brief about it, Buggs had worked up a pretty good business until a squadron of city detectives swooped down on him late Saturday night and snatched a garbage can.

In that garbage can, the detectives found five dressed fat hens, several large juicy hams, lobsters, steaks, fish liver, butter, lard, eggs and a variety of canned goods, all definitely belonging to the Tampa Terrace hotel, but being transferred to the Bugg's K. of P. cafe.

Acting on complaint of the hotel management, Sergeant Morris and Detectives Keene and Hamilton stationed themselves at the hotel's service entrance. Shortly before midnight, the garbage truck backed up to the door and started loading. The detectives noticed nothing unusual until the last garbage can was loaded. It was carefully placed to one side of the truck. Officers trailed the truck from the hotel to Bugg's establishment. There it stopped and Lewis Thomas, the garbage man hoisted that "last" can on his shoulder and took it into the cafe.

It was then that the detectives stepped in and snatched he can. The found the food carefully packed but covered with over-ripe tomatoes and broken eggs to give the appearance of garbage.

The detective's also arrested Thomas and Bugg's wife, Mrs. Juanita Buggs, who was at the cafe and all three have been transferred to the county jail. They said the theft of groceries from the hotel had been going for several months, Mrs. Buggs was out on bail Monday night.

AFTER ME MY DEAR

Ms. D. always grabs the Omaha Guide as soon as it arrives, and starts reading the front page. One evening when Mrs. D. asked for the back page, he replied: "Just a minute honey, I'll be thought with the front page and you can have it. I don't want to wait till you're thought with the back page."

Wealthy Contractor Buried in Alabama

Birmingham, Aug. 12 (ANP)—Funeral services were held Monday at 16th Street Baptist church for Thomas Cornelius Windham, reputedly the wealthiest Negro building contractor in the nation, who passed away Friday in his home after a lingering illness of three years.

His health broke because he taxed his strength trying to fill large building contracts in various parts of the country, contrary to advice of his physicians. He died one day before he would have celebrated his 66th birthday.

For the past 40 years Mr. Windham had been known as the leading Negro building contractor in the country. He built the beautiful National Baptist Publishing house in Nashville which cost $650,000. His firm built the magnificent Masonic Temple here at a cost of $800,000, and he also superintended the construction and completion of a $1,000,000 building at Mulga, Ala. Mr. Windham also built the $36,000 home of Dr. R. R. Moton, ex-president of Tuskegee, at Caphosic, Va.

Other edifices erected by Mr. Windham, who began building and contracting in Monroe, La., his birthplace, at the age of 17, were 16th Street Baptist church, $150,000; Alabama Penny Savings bank, $150,000; Birmingham apartment houses, $300,000; Gaudalup college, Seguin, Tex., $250,000; Bath houses, Hot Springs, Tex., $50,000; Supreme Temple, Knights of Pythias, Chicago, $350,000; and Masonic home, Rock Island, Ill., $140,000.

It was during the regime of President Moton that Mr. Windham built the beautiful new $2,000,000 group buildings that now adorn the site of the great Alabama industrial school. It was also Dr. Moton who discovered the sterling business qualities of the Windham mind and selected him to carry out the building plan which enables Tuskegee to claim possession of one of the most elaborate and beautiful school quadrangles in the entire country.

Bradstreet and Dunn gave Mr. Windham an A-1 rating. He had large real estate holdings in Birmingham, Nashville, Chicago, and at several other places in Alabama and Tennessee.

He leaves a widow, Edmonia Bramlette Windham, a son, Lewis S. Windham, his partner, Mrs. T. Corinne Abernathy of Birmingham, Mrs. Geneva McKissack of Nashville, daughters; Mrs. W. B. Johnson, a sister, of Monroe, La.; and B. L. Windham, a brother, of Birmingham.

Interment was at Grace Hill Cemetery in the family lot by the side of his daughter, Mrs. Rose Windham Merrill.

Union Delegate Sits In Council In Texas

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 12 (By John H. Thompson for ANP)—History was made here in Texas recently when for the first time a colored union labor delegate met with white delegates of the International Theatre and Stage Employees Union of Texas.

The only colored delegate among nearly a hundred whites, Lee A. Lewis, business agent for Loc. 279, a colored union of Houston, affiliated with the A. F. of L., was accepted freely and openly at this state convention.

Scheduled to be held at a local white hotel, the coming of Lewis caused the hotel management to denur at his presence. White delegates told the management that if Lewis could not enter the premises then they would take their meeting somewhere else. Lewis was admitted to the hotel convention room and was later seated at the banquet table with the whites.

Lewis is a member of the executive committee of the Houston local, composed of whites mostly. He is the man directly responsible for the strong fight put up by colored people of Houston to force employment of colored motion picture operators in exclusive Negro houses. Through his efforts twelve men are regularly employed at union rates.

Magazine Features Negro Musician

London, Aug. 12 (INP)—Teddy Hill, now furnishing the music for the Cotton Club show at the Palladium theatre in London, was featured with a full page write-up in the last edition of Melody Maker, the English musicians' trade magazine.

The author of this article, Leonard Feather, commented principally on the saxophone section of Hill's orchestra.

Experience for Our Learning

"For whatsoever things were written a foretime, were written for our learning." Rom. 15:4. Since July, we have been studying "God in the Making of a Nation," in our International Sunday school course. Many eternal truths have been learned and are being learned now. At present, I wish to refer to the subject for August 18th—"God Feeds A People." Ancient Israel was very much like people today; human nature seems to act the same in all generations. People murmured against God and his leaders then, and now. God hears their murmurings and yet bears with them.

In a natural sense, God is feeding His people bountifully as ever, but our poverty is caused by poor "distribution." There is little or nothing so wrong with the "production." Men will not harken to leadership today, no more than when Israel refused to hear Moses.

The consequence then was that the manna spoiled. So today, as we fail our labor spoils or foils its purpose, "hoarding" manna and hoarding gold or natural resources have the same principal and results spiritually.

The manna symbolizes "Christ" who is the bread of life, because like it, He satisfies—He is bread of life from heaven; a daily portion of his grace must be obtained.

What God did for Israel, He will do for any and every nation that obeys Him.

He supplied our propitiation for eternal salvation and he will supply our every need in temporal life according to his riches in glory. Let us remember that—

"Back of the loaf is the snowy flour,
And back of the flour is the mill
And back of the mill is the wheat and the shower,
And the Sun, and the Father's will."

Ethiopia Is Open Only To The Rich

Rome, Aug. 12 (ANP)—Despite claims of Mussolini that Ethiopia was needed to take care of Italy's surplus Population, it was revealed last week by newspapers here that those areas of Abyssinia under Fascist control will be the happy hunting-ground only of Italian financiers.

Extracts from the report of an agricultural mission sent to Ethiopia in February show that only areas in the country suitable for farming are already fairly densely populated by natives. Areas where the population is thin are unsuitable for agriculture, and hope is already abandoned of any big mineral finds.

The report also emphasized that title to this land by the present occupants is not established by law and therefore is opportunity for men with heavy financial backing to exploit them. Since Ethiopian labor can be obtained cheaply, there is no opportunity for the exportation of Italian workers, the report adds.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

FEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. How so. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."
