Urban League Notes

For the first time in the history of Omaha, many of the underprivileged Negro boys of our community will have a chance to go to camp. Through the efforts of Mr. B. E. Squires, executive secretary of the Omaha Urban League, the facilities at Camp Sheldon, on of the finest camps in the state will be made available for the week of August 15th.

The Urban League feels that one of the most valuable assets in the program of developing "men of tomorrow" is to give camping experience to "boys of today."

Many of the boys know nothing other than the city streets as a place of recreation and fun. This week in the woods close to nature with swimming, boating, fishing, hiking, tennis, baseball, badminton, volley ball, handicraft and nature study all in a day's program will do much to give these youngsters a different view of life.

The will be under the care and guidance of worthy, professional and Christian leaders. The group of 25 or 30 boys will leave the Community Center building on Sunday, August 15th at 12 o'clock.

The camp fee for many of the boys have been made possible by the contributions of many interested people in the community, to whom the Urban League wishes to express its appreciation.

It is the desire of the Urban League to use this camping program as a foundation to build a permanent camping program for the worthy and underprivileged boys of our group.

Icy Coolness in white jewelry is the newest theme for early fall. The jewelry is especially cool looking because it is of clear white glass.

The necklace at the upper left is called the "cracked ice" necklace, and has the feeling of coolness both in afternoon and evening wear.

The "bell" necklace in the lower left corner is of white wooden bells and beads, and it carries out the trend toward jewelry that dangles.

The clip is of small white beads, with clusters of white glass leaves, while the necklace, upper right, is of white beads with glass petals.
