P. M. R.—I am planning on a trip this next summer and want to know if I should go?

Ans: Carryout these plans but don't spend every cent that you have saved up having a good time. Be just as economical as you can for your mortgage will be due very soon and if you try you can meet this obligation successfully.

E. M. W.—I am sick and have been for a long time. Tell me if I will get to feeling better?

Ans: Without a doubt... provided you consult with a doctor and leave off the thousand of remedies that you have been trying over a period of several years. Any person your age shouldn't think of allowing themselves to remain sick year in and year out when it is so simple to get medical treatment.

M. M.—Please tell me if I will be successful in getting my divorce.

Ans: Yes... provided you pay for it yourself. Your ex-mate isn't thinking of handing it to you gratis and if you want to keep down trouble buy it yourself.

M. L. J.—How can I have more success in marriage and make my husband believe that I am not guilty of neighborhood gossip?

Ans: Stay at home and carry out his wishes just as accurately as you can. This is one thing that you must prove before he believes it and there isn't any better time to get started than the present. Don't associate with the people who talk... choose your friends among your husband's associates.

E. L. M.—I would like to know if I should expect my boy friend to return?

Ans: The young man is going to return... but not to make yet his bride. Forget that you two ever made plans of his kind and begin going out with the other desirable young fellows in your city.

R. B. J.—Why is it when my husband and I argue he wants to pack up and leave and then he never does it?

Ans: He might fool you some time and carry out his threats. It doesn't do either of you one bit of good to fuss and argue and it only breaks down love and respect you hold for one another. Don't fuss with him... let him get on the war path just as often as he likes but hold your temper. You would be lost without him.

W. L. W.—I make it my business to read your column. Tell me if it is impossible for me to win the girl that I love?

Ans: Not impossible... but it will take a lot of coaxing and you must play the part of a "dashing Romeo" to make her head turn. Take her out to the nicest places in town for dinner and entertainments and it is up to you to do the rest.

M. F. R.—Should I leave my home or remain here? My home isn't happy and my husband and I don't agree?

Ans: There is one thing that practically every wife must learn: to make her husband feel a bit superior... make him also believe that you look up to him and respect everything he says. If you try to appear better than he is then you will lose your husband. Stay where you are for another few months. Things will change.

Clinton Rosemond, the colored feature player in the Warner Bros. film, "They Won't Forget," a treatise on lynching, is the cinema find of the season and 's exciting thrills goers with his excellent performance. Place this picture on your "must see list". The four Scottsboro boys were the feature attraction at the Apollo theatre last week. A fairly large crowd greeted their initial vaudeville appearance though there are many that feel they are capitalizing on their misfortune.

Buck and Bubbles, the famed comedy dance team, are featured in "Varsity Show," a new film, which stars Dick Powell and Fred Waring. Paul Robeson, the great singer and actor, will be seen shortly in "King Solomon's Mines," a British Gaumont production. Eddie Green, the radio comedian, who has been heard with Rudy Vallee several times and more recently was featured with Louis Armstrong for the Fleischman Yeast, will make a series of guest appearances with the Maxwell House Showboat.

A new show to hit the air featuring colored talent comes over WHN in New York, and stars the Bronze Harmonizers. A mixed octette, they specialize in spirituals and swing singing. They may be heard at 6:30. Harlem's famed king of the drums, Chick Webb, and his orchestra, with swing singer Ella Fitzgerald doing the vocalizing, played to stading room at Loew's State theatre in New York last week. The show also featured Chuck and Chuckles, Bardu Ali and Charles Linton.

For lovers of hot recordings may Tatum, the blind pianist, and his rendition of "I Would Do Most Anything for You" and "Liza." Fats Waller can also be heard singing and playing "Basin Street Blues" and "I Ain't Got Nobody." Bob Howard, whose style is similar to Waller's has made a recording of "I'll Take the Key and Lock You Up" plus "Penny Wise and Pound Foolish." For those who love the torrid trumpeting of Louis Armstrong, we have "Yours and Mine" and "Sun Showers." Another recording by Louis that is worth your time is "Public Melody Number One" and "Red Cap." Fats Waller makes the piano talk in his recording of "Tea for Two" and "Keeping Out of Mischief Now."

PLAN FIGHT FOR EQUAL TEACHERS' PAY IN ALA. Mobile, Ala., Aug. 26 (By E. M. Goode for ANP)—Transcending interest all other work to be undertaken by the Regional Conference of Southern Branches of the NAACP, is the proposed fight to equalize teachers' salaries in the deep South, the first of such cases being planned for Mobile County, Ala., where colored teachers are poorly underpaid, and with many receiving less than fifty per cent of the minimum pay for white teachers. A recent investigation conducted by the Mobile Branch of the NAACP revealed that several high school and elementary teachers who are college graduates receive as low as $28 per month salary.

Both Thurgood Marshall, of New York, assistant special counsel, and the Mobile Branch announces that the NAACP will be ready to go to court as soon as a teacher can be found to bring the test case, the organization has completed its plans and outlined the procedure to be followed. The matter now rests entirely with the teachers themselves. The Association continues to work untiringly to find a teacher willing to file a petition for a writ of mandamus to require the county board of education to equalize the salaries of colored teachers.

STARDOM AFTER 17 YEARS

CLINTON ROSEMOND

A veteran actor whose performance in the sensational new deep south an Elysching film. "They Won't Forget" produced by Warner Bros. has skyrocketed him to stardom. He has appeared on the stage and in films for 17 years. Director Mervyn LeRoy said after this picture was finished that he had never seen "a greater Negro actor."

GOV'T IN CAMPAIGN TO WIPE OUT TERRORISTS

Monrovia, Liberia, Aug. 26 (AP)—Arresting the members of the dreaded society of Leopard Men, mystery armed organization of the wild Cape Mount section of northern Liberia, government forces fired the opening canons in a skirmish to wipe out the society, it was revealed last week.

For months, reluctant to enter the section where the society members dressed in leopard skins, have killed scores of natives, has been evidence on the part of government authorities. Great fear of the strange individuals was prevalent among the natives of Liberia, who believed them supernatural beings.

Among those apprehended was George Caine, civilized American-Liberian whose blood is a mixture of that of Negroes of native jungle tribes and of the American Negroes who helped colonize Liberia in the early 1800's. Caine is charged by the Government with going to the Cape Mount district to operate coffee farms, and finding no labor available there, organizing the Leopard Men with the purpose of terrorizing the section to get free labor. Official action was precipitated when two witnesses who had seen the Leopard Men died mysterious deaths.

Colonel T. E. Davis, intrepid Liberian soldier, was given orders to stamp out the Leopard Men. Advancing to the Cape Mount section, he accumulated the evidence which resulted in the arrest of Caine and his men.

To Reduce Maternal Mortality

St. Louis, Aug. 26 (ANP)—Adequate parental care is the best solution to race's problem of maternal mortality, a commission on obstetrics reported last week at the annual meeting of the National Medical Association.

Contact was established by the commission with the American Committee on Maternal Welfare to make a study in various hospitals, and 20 local committees were organized throughout the nation to make these studies. It was found the Negro mortality rate was much higher in proportion than that in the white group.

Serving on the commission, appointed last year in Philadelphia by Dr. Roscoe G. Giles, national president, were Dr. T. Sewell, Philadelphia; Dr. P. M. Santos, Chicago; Dr. G. Iorman Adamson, Nashville; Dr. S. S. Campbell, Jacksonville; Dr. John R. Finley, New York; Dr. P. S. Moten, Birmingham; Dr. LeCount, Cook, Washington; and Dr. C. Leon Wilson, Chicago, chairman.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

Few husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. Be wise. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age." Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."
