

Golfers to Shoot for $500 At Cleveland Open

By Ken Jessamy

By Ken Jessamy

From all indications Joe Louis should have triumphed over Tommy Farr of England, by the time you are reading this column. The necessity of making dead lines prevents me from bringing you a full account of the battle, as I shall see it, but next week I should have a few of the highlights of the encounter for you to read.

Louis should have an easy time with the English contender. In training Farr has looked very little better than a second rate ham, but I can never forget that Schemling also looked bad in training but managed to lick the present heavy weight champion very handily.

Farr should lose to Louis because first, Joe is by far the better boxer. Second, Farr can hit hard if his record means anything. Third, Anyone Joe can hit he can knock out. Fourth, Farr telegraphs his punches. Fifth, Bob Olin dumped Farr four times in their bout in England and Olin is not regarded as a hard hitter in these parts and is a light heavyweight to boot.

Louis seems to be in fine peak as the fight draws closer. He is as unworried about the outcome of the fight as a baby. On the other hand, Farr seems a bit bothered. He has been squawking at reporters, declaring that they are doing their best to make him look bad and the constant tiffs he has been having with his manager couldn't be doing him much good.

The Louis camp refuses to say in how many rounds Joe will dispose of his opponent. They explain that they expect a good and tough fight and that they will do their best to give the fans a run for their money. In the Farr camp the talk is the same. The Englishman swears that he will fight as long as he is physically able and that Louis may whip him but he will never be out gamed. All in all, the fight looks up as a pretty interesting affair. Both men are young and should be in the peak of condition. By this time next week you will know what kind of a picker I am for my selection is that Joe will kayo Farr in four rounds.

Around the Circuit.....A touch of irony may be found in the fact that after his fight with Hank Hankinson last week in Los Angeles, the boxing commission barred George Godfrey from fighting anyone stating that he "had no ability." Only last year, one of the European boxing commissions listed Godfrey as the "world's heavyweight champion"..... Mel Walker is breaking all sorts of world's records for the high jump. If he continues the way he is going they are going to tack instruments on him and have him register at Douglas County, Nebraska, on the 11th day of August, 1937, and in pursuance of a decree of said court in an action in partition therein pending, dated August 10, 1937, wherein Halley M. Bliznak is Plaintiff and Riley McClung and John T. McClung are Defendants, and in compliance with the command of said decree of said Court and order of sale I will on the 16th day of September 1937 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at east front door of the Douglas County Court House in Omaha, Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, Lot Six (6) in Wohler's Place, an Addition in Douglas County, Nebraska, as surveyed, platted and recorded. Said action is an action partition. The Court has found that said property cannot be equitably partitioned, and has ordered a sale thereof by the Referee and the distribution of the proceeds of the sale thereof.

Notice of Referee's Sale

By virtue of an order of sale issued out of the District Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, on the 11th day of August, 1937, and in pursuance of a decree of said court in an action in partition therein pending, dated August 10, 1937, wherein Halley M. Bliznak is Plaintiff and Riley McClung and John T. McClung are Defendants, and in compliance with the command of said decree of said Court and order of sale I will on the 16th day of September 1937 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at east front door of the Douglas County Court House in Omaha, Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, Lot Six (6) in Wohler's Place, an Addition in Douglas County, Nebraska, as surveyed, platted and recorded. Said action is an action partition. The Court has found that said property cannot be equitably partitioned, and has ordered a sale thereof by the Referee and the distribution of the proceeds of the sale thereof.

GOOD PRIZES FOR NATIONAL TOURNEY

Cleveland, O., Aug. 26 (By Clarence L. Simmons for ANP)—A record breaking purse of $500 has been provided for the professionals with $200 on the air for the winner of the Open and the possession of the Open cup for one year in the most ambitious golf programs ever attempted by the United Golf Association.

Robert H. Hawkins of Arlington Heights, Mass., chairman of the tournament committee, announces that four golf championships will be contested for at the Highland golf course here, August 31st to September 3rd, with some added events new to the "Nationals" on the program.

One hundred dollars goes to the second best professional and there will be eight additional cash prizes. Amateurs who compete in the Open and finish within the first ten will be given a plate.

As usual, the big event will be which this will be the twelfth playing. Starting with 18 holes August 31st, 18 holes will be played the following day, with a 36 windup on September 2, making a total of 72 holes of medal play.

Just as important to the amateurs as the Open is the scheduled 10th Annual Amateur Championship for men. This event will start on the 31st with an 18 hole qualifying round, then 18 hole matches the amateur crown in a 36 hole until two finalist fight it out for final match on the fourth day.

There will be the Eighth Women's championship, and for the first time, this event will be decided by match play. Like the men, the ladies will start with an 18 hole qualifying round with the two finalists fighting it out on the fourth day of individual matches.

John Henry Wins Another

Pittsburgh, Aug. 26 (ANP)—John Henry Lewis, king pin of the light heavies, defeated Itale Colomello, of Italy, in twelve rounds last Thursday night, at Forbes Field before a crowd of 7,000.

The contest was an over weight bout, Louis weighed 181½ pounds and Colomello 200. The Italian was applauded for his gameness, but could not get away from the hard slashing rights that John Henry landed at will.

the European boxing commissions listed Godfrey as the "world's heavyweight champion"..... Mel Walker is breaking all sorts of world's records for the high jump. If he continues the way he is going they are going to tack instruments on him and have him register at Douglas County, Nebraska, on the 11th day of August, 1937, and in pursuance of a decree of said court in an action in partition therein pending, dated August 10, 1937, wherein Halley M. 27 FOR KID CHOCOLATE

New York, Aug. 26 (INP)—Kid Chocolate, who in his prime drew $1,000,000 gates, returned to the place of his former victories, Madison Square Garden last Thursday night and defeated Johnny De Foe in a fast ten rounder.

The first four rounds were fairly even, with De Foe getting in some hard rights and lefts to the "Kid's" body. But after the fifth round it was Chocolate all the way.

In his comeback attempt, Chocolate has lost one fight in 27 starts, which isn't a bad record for a fighter that they said was all whished up. Johnny De Foe is remembered for the two tough fights he gave Henry Armstrong, the California Buzz Saw, and whom they now refer to as the "Black Terry McGovern," one of the ring's all time greats.

COMPANION EXTRAORDINARY

(By William Henry Huff for ANP)

My good companion is to be a person who will gladly dwell in cabin, mansion or in hut Or any other place with me, One who will know all will be well And will not fall into the rut Of nagging all the sweet from life In other words, she'll be a wife.

FEAR FATHER DIVINE MAY DO A HOUDINI

New York, Aug. 26 (ANP)—An attorney's fear that Father that Father Major J. Divine, Harlem's ace cultist, may make good on a reported threat to "evaporate for a thousand years or so," because of dissension among his "angels," last week prompted William W. Lesselbaum to file in SS Supreme Court an application for the appointment of a receiver for all of Divine's various "heavens."

Lesselbaum is counsel for Mrs. Verinda Brown, onetime "angel" who changed her mind and decided she wants returned the $4,000 she claims she gave Divine. The application for a receivership is also deemed advisable by the lawyer because of the reported dissension among the "angels" because of the legal difficulties in which Divine has found himself in recent months.

Attorney Lesselbaum declared: "In view of what has taken place within the last ten days it seems probably that there will be a general run for cover and that many 'angels' named defendants in this action may attempt to take whatever property stands in their names although properties were purchased with the funds of the mission."

ELLINGTON SLATED FOR BRITISH PICTURE

New York, Aug. 26 (INP)—Duke Ellington and his famous orchestra may go to England to make a motion picture, if negotiations now being conducted by his personal representative, Irving Mills, with a British group headed by Alexandra Korda, the director, are brought to a satisfactory conclusion.

The picture, which will have an all colored cast, has been written with a score by Ellington himself, and talent for the cast is being contacted by Mills reduction probably would be started in the studio abroad in November.
