

National Figures of Theatrical and Sports World

IVY ANDERSON, sensational swing vocalist with the Duke Ellington Aggregation.

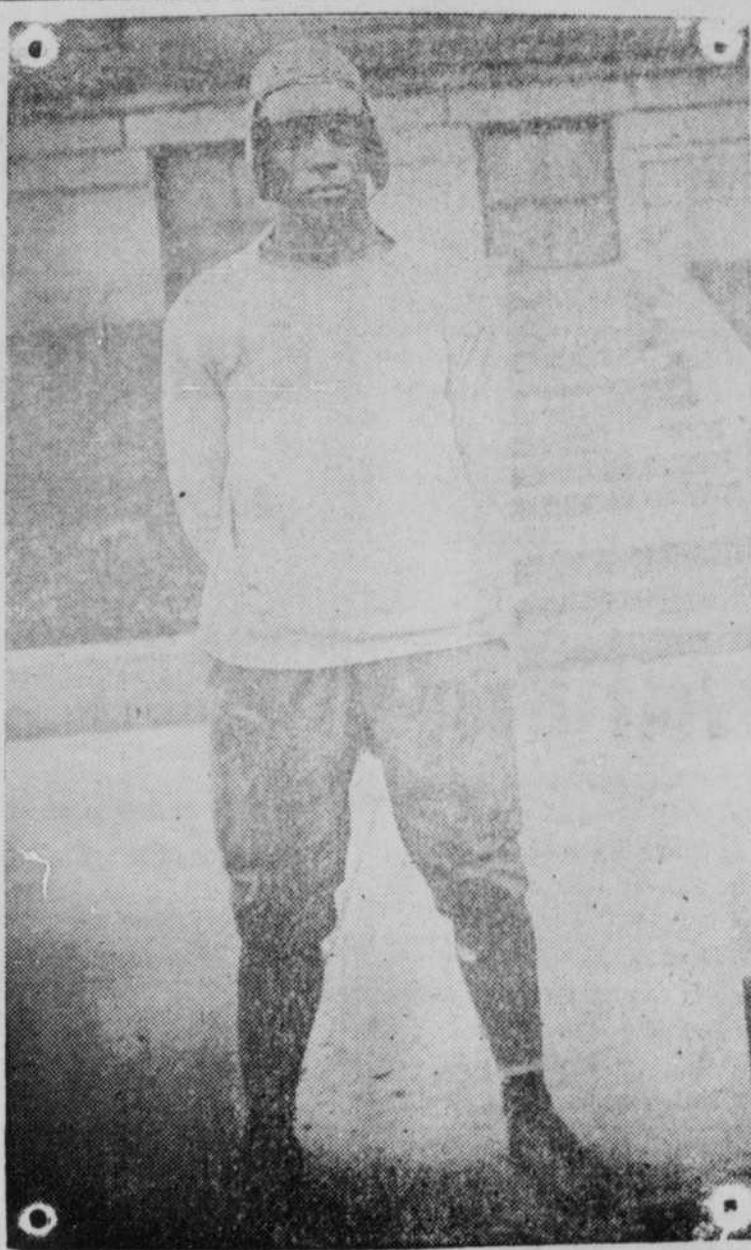

JOE LOUIS, world's heavy-weight champion of the squared circle. Has made a fortune in three years.

ETHEL WATERS, Popular Star of Radio, Stage

LLOYD HUNTER
Lloyd Hunter and his Ultra Modern Swingsters will swing out as they open at the Music Box, October 1st.

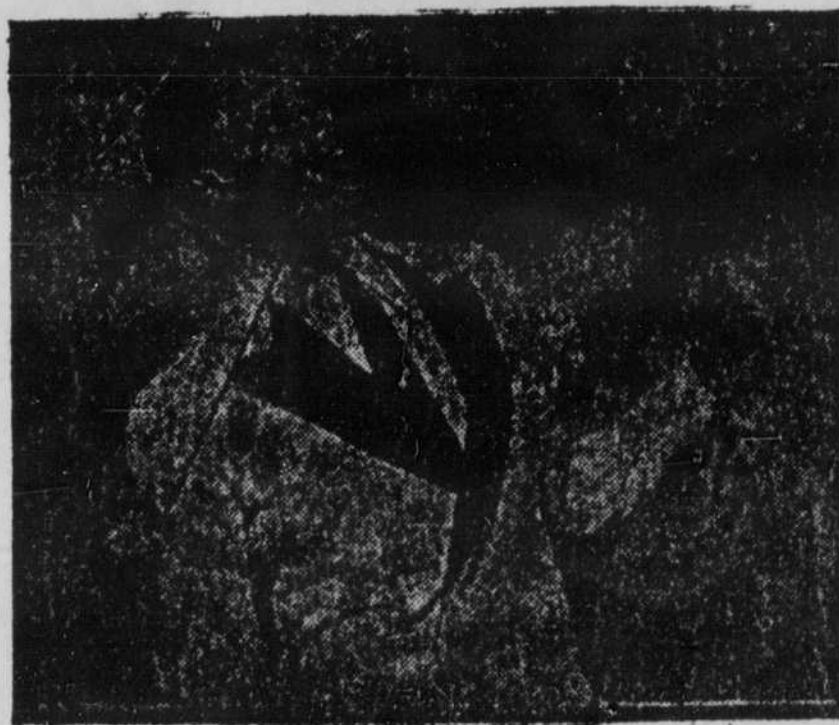

LEDRUE GALLOWAY
LeDRUE GALLOWAY, one of the great football players produced by Nebraska, a star for two years at Iowa university before his untimely death in 1926. LeDrue was the son of Mr. C. C. Galloway and the present Mrs. Flurna Cooper of Monrovia, Calif.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG, world's greatest Cornetists—heads an all colored Radio Broadcast over a National hookup.

STEPIN FETCHIT, world's famed colored screen comedian—gets $750.00 per week for acting dumb.

CAB CALLOWAY, orchestra leader of hi-de-ho fame and Cotton Club favorite.

BILL "Bojangles" ROBINSON World's greatest tap dancer, a star of the screen, radio and stage.