PLEASANT GREEN CHURCH
Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Pastor
Mrs. Lottie Keys, Reporter

Morning services at 9 a. m. Devotions led by Deacons. Sunday school was held for adults, and had very good attendance. The guest speaker for the morning was Rev. Charles P. Harris of Ruthford, N. J., subject, "Walk with God." Solo by Miss Allen of Baltimore, Md.

Evening service was in charge of Rev. P. M. Beverly of Newark, N. J., subject "Paul and Silas in Prison." There was one addition to the church for baptism.

Rev. J. H. Reynolds, our pastor, will be away for ten days, where he will run a series of meetings at St. Paul, Minn. for Rev. Bosphie. We all wish him success in his meeting.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor

Sunday school opened at the usual hour. Subject was, "Choices and their consequences in a Nation's Life." The main thought in the lesson was the blessings of obedience and the curse of disobedience. At 11 o'clock, Rev. Howard Stanton, of Washington, D. C., who is now pastor of Ebenezer Baptist church of Alexandria, Va., preached a beautiful sermon. Subject, "Misdirected Powers." Rev. Stanton also sang very touching gospel songs. At 6:30 the B. Y. P. U. was opened with the vice president, Howard Swain, presiding. Subject of the lesson, "Teaching of Jesus for Today's World." Troup No. 3 rendered the program. At 8:00 Rev. W. Allen of Baltimore, Md., preached a very inspiring sermon, from Psalms 27:4. His sermon made everyone happy as it was so full of the spirit. His daughter sang a gospel song. By request, Rev. Stanton, sang again for the evening services.

The following visitors worshipped with us: Rev. and Mrs. Allen and daughter from Baltimore, Md.; Rev. Stanton of Va.; Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Pope, Jersey City, N. J.; Mrs. Lucille Florence, Kansas City; Mrs. Myrtle Beasley, Kansas City.

Our pastor gave us some very interesting remarks concerning the National Convention.

CLAIR CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH
Rev. Conwell, Pastor

The church held its second quarterly conference with Rev. H. W. James, district superintendent, present. He preached two wonderful sermons, both morning and evening. At 3 o'clock, Rev. Phillips of Bethel AME church, preached the communion sermon. A goodly number communed.

We wish to correct an error that was made in this column last week, which reported that Mrs. Ethel Kertly reported $5.10 in the rally. It was $15.10. We are very happy to make this correction.

Visitors are always welcome to Clair Chapel.

CHURCH OF GOD
Elder S. Spaght, Pastor
Katie Johnson, Reporter

Sunday school opened at the usual hour, conducted by Supt. Joe Eddens. The lesson, "Choice and their consequences in a Nation's Life." Let us make God's word our choice by obeying it just like the Bible reads, that we might have eternal life.

At 11:15, the pastor brought forth the message, subject, "The Great Need of Christian Workers." Evening worship, the services were good. The pastor brought the message from the 3rd chapter of Revelations and 12th verse. Subject, "Be an Overcomer in Christ." Preaching every Wednesday and Sunday night. Everyone is welcome.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. A. Phillips, Pastor

Last Sunday was women's day. At 11 a. m., the Rev. Mrs. Dickson delivered a very interesting message. At 3 o'clock and 8 o'clock p. m., a program was sponsored. Those appearing were: Mrs. Pullum, Mrs. Rhone, Mrs. Wiggins, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. Reggins, Mrs. Young, Miss Todd. Mrs. Jessie Turner was mistress of ceremonies.

The A. C. E. League met at the usual hour. The lesson was briefly discussed. The topic for Sunday, Sept. 26th, "Following the Practice of Jesus."

Come and visit with us.

MORNING STAR CHURCH
Rev. Wm. Pruitt, Pastor

Sunday school opened at the usual hour, with a nice attendance of adults present. The general subject of the lesson was, "Choices and their consequences in a Nation's Life." Mrs. Anna Hayes was a visitor in the Sunday school at 11:30 a. m. the message was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Pruitt. Text words, Matt. 21:28—Context Mark 13:34; preface John 9:4, of which was very inspiring and by expression of those present. BYPU was attended by quite a few adults and visitors. Lesson subject was, "Teaching of Jesus for Today's World." At 8 p. m. the pastor again brought to us a burning message from Joshua 24:15. Subject, "A Wise Choice for Spiritual Food." Come to Morning Star. You are always welcome.

MT. NEBO CHURCH
Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor
Helen Bradshaw, Reporter

The Mt. Nebo Adult Sunday school is progressing rapidly despite the absence of the young people. Rev. Gates took charge Sunday morning selecting his scripture from the chapter of 2nd Kings. Text, "There cried a certain woman." Subj. "God will hear your cries." Rev. Renfro took charge Sunday night. Text subject "You Need That."

The funeral services of Mr. Luther Nicholas, who passed, September 10th, were held at Mt. Zion Baptist church, Monday, Sept. 20th with Rev. M. K. Curry officiating with the Mason Lodge in charge of the service. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nicholas, a stepdaughter, one brother and one sister.

HILLSIDE PRESBYTERIAN
Rev. J. S. Williams, Pastor

To Have Visitors Day

Hillside Presbyterian church will have what is known as "Visitors Day" on Sunday, September 26th at 11 o'clock a. m. Every reader of this announcement is a visitor. The choir will furnish special music. Beginning October 3rd, there will be a weekly Sunday Evening Hour. A weekly musical worship service. The choir will sing palestrinian music used chiefly by the M. Christian Chorals. Music by contemporary writers will be sung from time to time. In connection with these revolution ary programs which will meet the demand of the public's musical taste, Mrs. Alice Wilson who has had a year of post graduate work in the Music Conservatory at Fisk university, will be heard on the organ by early comers, in a series of organ meditations. Rev. John S. Williams, pastor of Hillside church will teach and direct the music of these programs.

This Week in Thought and Religion

By Robert L. Moody

The Day of Atonment

Last week our Jewish neighbors celebrated what is to them the greatest day in the year—Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonment. The thought or meaning of this celebration inspires us—Christians—to understanding of sin and the supreme sacrifice which was made for all, both Jews and Gentiles.

Personally, I think it quite thrilling to be reminded how the High Priest offered the sin offering for himself and the people. Imagine seeing him sprinkle the blood from the sin offering upon the "scape goat" and this goat is led away laden with the sins of the people. Once again the people are freed from their sins and the High Priest may offer burnt offering up to God, sweet with the fragrance of burning incense i. e., a sacrifice to God with a sweet smelling savour.

As our neighbors celebrate these ancient ceremonies in the typical meaning of those of us who have accepted Christ, rejoice because he is our passover and he is our High Priest. We who were afar off are made nigh by his blood. We enjoy the "atonement" made possible by Christ for through Adam all had lost the image or likeness of God but through Christ all were made alive. To understand this Jewish holiday, may we suggest that you read: Leviticus 16:29-35; 26 to 32 and Christ as the fulfillment of these in the 8th, 9th, and 10th chapters of Hebrews.

"But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come by a greater and more perfect tabernacle... neither he entered in once into the Holy Place, having obtained Eternal Redemption for us." Heb. 9:11, 12. Speaking of the will of God and our atonement, the word reads: "By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ Once For All. Heb. 10:10.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
F. Burroughs, Reporter

Morning services were as usual with Rev. W. M. Goldsmith taking charge. His sermon subject "Prayer" was very interesting and provided many good thoughts to carry home to one's self. Too much cannot be said about prayer, for it is the only method by which man can contact God. What has become of the old time prayers that really changed things.

Among the many visitors present were Rev. J. W. Webster of Arkansas.

Rev. Gates, pastor of Mt. Nebo Baptist church, preached during evening worship. Latest reports were that Rev. Jones was on his way home.

Friday night the Nebraska club is serving of the church everyone is invited. The sick of the church are Mrs. McCraty, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Beck.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH
Rev. Johnson, Pastor

Services were well attended at the Metropolitan church last Sunday. The 8 o'clock services were also well attended, the pastor spoke briefly from Job 38:4, using for a subject, "Where Were You." There were five additions to the church. The Metropolitan Congress is held at the mother church in Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday night of this week was Omaha night. Visitors are always welcome to the Metropolitan church. Come and receive a blessing.

Will Celebrate With Musical—Communion

October 3rd will mark 100 years of missionary work done by the Presbyterian church U. S. A. Presbyterians all over the world will join in the celebration of this event. The centennial begins with a world wide communion service to be held on the morning of Sunday, October 3rd, at 11 o'clock presenting a choir of 18 voices with Mrs. Delores Blackwell as soprano soloist, singing canticles of the 16th century; Handel's beautiful choral, "Hear Us, Oh Father," "God of Our Life," by Barnby, and "Come Ye Blessed of My Fathers," by John Pringle Scott. Communion will be administered to all Christians who desire to partake of it. The evening service will be a "Candlelight Musicale" which is expected to be one of the most beautiful services ever held at Hillside. Mrs. Irene Morton, Mr. H. L. Preston, augmenting the choir; will sing "Chants of the 16th Century."

Music lovers and church goers alike will find these services very helpful. Mrs. Alice Wilson, former supervisor of music in one of our own race schools, will be organist. Everyone welcome to Hillside.

She has used Telephone Service More than 50 Years

Mrs. Mary Murray, one of our customers, recalls more than half a century of telephone service:

"Without a telephone I'd feel cut off from the world," she told us. "Now that I'm 80 years old, I find it very difficult to get out and I receive the most pleasure from talking with my friends over the telephone.

"I've used the service for more than 50 years. There's a difference between telephones now and even a few years ago. There has been a great improvement in the service."

Telephone service is constantly increasing in value. Year after year, this Company, aided by other parts of the Bell System in research, planning, engineering and manufacturing, is able to connect you with more persons and to provide you with faster, more accurate and more dependable service at charges which give you more and more for your money.
