AMY JOHNSON WILL QUIT FLYING GAME

No More Airways to Conquer, Declares Aviatrix.

London, England.—Amy Johnson, heroine of the first solo flight by a woman from England to Australia, has decided to give up flying.

Knowing that Empire air liners and the royal air force are better able to make record dashes to South Africa and Australia, and seeing the Russians flying over the pole, she believes there is nowhere in the world to fly to and set up new records except with the backing of government finances.

"Fly?" she said. "It is the last thing I would dream of doing now. If I saw any prospects of doing anything by flying again I would go ahead. No, I am just going around now wondering what on earth I am to do with life.

"But I am not going to fly, I don't know what I'm going to do. In the old days it was my business to be photographed and interviewed with Jim, my husband. For me all that terrific publicity is now ended."

Has Earned Thousands.

Miss Johnson has been a good business woman. In ten years of spectacular flying, with half a dozen great flights to her credit, she has made many thousands of dollars. She has lived in fashionable hotels and saved enough to buy a fine house in London and expensive cars.

Ever since that memorable day in 1926 when Amy Johnson first took her young sister, Mollie, for a circus flight over Hull, England, she knew she wanted to fly. Five years later, twenty-seven years old and a stenographer in Fleet street, she made a 9,900-mile hop from Croydon airport to Port Darwin, Australia. No one dared hope that this inexperienced aviatrix, with not more than 90 hours in the air to her credit, could perform such a feat. A newspaper scoffed when Amy offered to write a story of her trip (if she completed it). Later that same newspaper had to pay Amy, always the business woman, $50,000 to go on a flying tour for it.

The next year—July, 1931—Amy set off for a London-to-Tokyo flight with her tutor, C. S. Humphreys. They made this run in the record time of 10 1/2 days.

Broke Three Records.

In 1936 Miss Johnson succeeded in smashing three records—from England to Cape Town, Cape Town to England and for the round trip. On May 7, 1936, she landed in Cape Town, Africa, from England in 3 days 6 hours and 29 minutes, shattering the record set by Tommy Rose by 11 hours 9 minutes. She completed the homeward journey in 4 days 16 hours and 16 minutes. Rose took 6 days 6 hours and 57 minutes to make this trip. Her round-trip flight took her 7 days 22 hours and 42 minutes, as against Rose's 10 days 34 minutes.

Four years ago Amy Johnson and her husband, Capt. James A. Molison, made a transatlantic hop from Wales to America. Their plane, Seafarer, was wrecked when they tried to land at Bridgeport, Conn., for fuel. They were within 60 miles of their goal—Floyd Bennett airport, when they ran out of gasoline.

RAMBLING AROUND

Peace is the reward of right thinking.

Experience is a dear teacher—too dear.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor

Sunday school opened at 9:30. The lesson was discussed by the combined groups and was very impressive. At 11 o'clock the pastor preached a wonderful sermon, from Isaiah 1:1. Services were very inspirational, since we are in the midst of a great soul-saving revival. We have a great gospel singer in the person of Miss Salter, of Dallas, Texas. If you wish to be revived, come and hear this wonderful singer. She is the daughter of Rev. Salter, one of our leading Baptist ministers of Texas.

At 8 p. m. The pastor preached, taking his text from Jer. 20:9. Subject, "The Disturbed Prophet Becomes a Disturber." Many helpful points were brought out in this sermon. Miss Salter sang an inspirational number which was enjoyed by all. The following visitors worshipped with us: Mr. G. H. Rountree, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Hamler, New York; Mr. Sam Smith, Omaha; Mrs. Javita James, Kansas City; Mrs. Ernest Hinchey, Marshall, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Homes, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. James Douglas, Arkon, Ohio; and Miss Salter, Dallas, Texas. Don't forget to come to the big revival, which will last throughout the 10th of October. Everyone is welcome.
