Colored Dancers In
"Big Apple" Contest

Omahans will have their first opportunity to see the new dance craze "The Big Apple" in full swing, at a collegiate mid-night jamboree at the Orpheum theatre Saturday night at 11:45, when the pick of the city's colored hoopers compete for cash prizes on the stage.

This frenzied, half hysterical dance craze, combining "Swingin'", "Truckin'" and the Charleston, in one delicious gyrations, originated in the Deep South and has been sweeping the East by storm.

It will be demonstrated on the stage at the Mid-night show Saturday to the tune of Greg Williams' all colored "Big Apple" dance orchestra.

As their screen attraction the Orpheum theatre as arranged for an advance showing of Warner's new musical "Variety Show" starring Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, Dick Powell, Ted Healy, Walter Catlett, Priscilla Lane and Buck and Bubbles.

Tickets went on sale Wednesday at the Orpheum theatre box office.

Dancers who wish to enter "The Big Apple" contest are urged to get in touch with Manager Bill Miskell, of the Orpheum theatre. First rehearsal will be held at the Orpheum theatre Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Legality of Lobbying

The First amendment guarantees the right of people to petition the government. When lobbying is simply the attempt to induce legislation by petition, or by a statement of one's side of a case, it is entirely legitimate. When it stoops to intimidation or bribery it ceases to be legal.

Mount Rainier Park

Of all the attractions of the Pacific Northwest, none is more inspiring than Mount Rainier park in Washington. There are 420 square miles of mountain wonderland, 28 glaciers, spectacular waterfalls, a riot of wild flowers and one of the highest mountains in the world.

Do Not Live on Air

It was a belief among the old naturalists that chameleons existed on air. This is not true. The fact that these creatures are able to go without food for long periods is due to their enormous capacity for fat.

Oldest Railroad Station

Mount Clare in Baltimore is the oldest railroad station not only in the United States but in the world. It was built in 1828. It is now used as a freight station.

Swords From Heaven

It is believed that ancient traditions of certain fine swords being sent from heaven can be explained by the fact that they were made from meteoric iron.

The Port of Pompeii

Excavations have brought to light what was once the port of Pompeii. In a tavern were found the skeletons of three men trapped while drinking wine.

Seven Wonders of the World

The generally accepted list of the seven wonders of the world is as follows: the Pyramids of Egypt, the Hanging Gardens of Semiramis at Babylon, the Temple of Diana at Ephesus, the Statue of Zeus by Phidias, the tomb of Mausolus, the Pharos (lighthouse) of Alexandria and the Colossus of Rhodes.—Path-Finder Magazine.

Diet of Navajo Indians

The orthodox Navajo will not eat fish, eggs or milk. Some of the Southern tribes who have been to school of late these prohibitions, but the old men keep them strictly. Traders occasionally sell tinned salmon to the Indians, but the purchaser invariably explains that, to his stomach, the sardines are medicine, not food.

Mediterranean Region's Climate

The climate of the Mediterranean region is warm, almost tropical. The mean temperature for the year is 57.5 degrees F. The winters are mild, but the summers are hot and almost rainless. The heat of the summer, however, is tempered in many localities by the sea breezes.

The English Setter

The generally accepted belief is that the English setter is the result of a cross between spaniels and the old Spanish pointers. English setters in America, while the offspring of a parent stock that had its origin in European countries, are the evolution of American sportsmen.

The Hemicycle

The word hemicycle means half circle. It is a curved or approximately semi-circular structure, as that of some arenas of an orchestra or part of a room; hence, a wall built in that form or a painting on such a wall, as the hemicycle of the Ecole des Beaux Arts.

Green Water Snakes

Green water snakes appear in South Carolina, despite scientific books which set their range through Florida and Louisiana and up the Mississippi river to Illinois.

Veterans of Thinning Ranks
Who Fought In the Civil War
Honored at Celebration

Three of Omaha's 14 aged civil war veterans passed in review before a crowd of 400 of their beneficiaries at the Omaha Guide's Emancipation celebration held at the Elks' hall Monday night.

Mr. Paul Holliday, Rev. D. Nicholson and Mr. George Watson donated their cars and delivered the veterans to the hall.

The commemoration program was presided over by Atty. Charles F. Davis with Senator John Adams being the principal speaker.

In his address Senator Adams gave a general outline of the American Negro's progress since Emancipation, stating that though constitutionally free, the Negro had failed to gain political, economical and political freedom. As a means for acquiring race pride and strengthening the morale of the younger generation, Senator Adams urged parents to take a keener interest in the studying of the Negro's historical background that they might learn of the really great accomplishment of the darker race and pass the information on to their children.

Others on the speaking program were: Rev. D. Nicholson of Carinda, Ia.; invocation, Omaha Civic orchestra, Mrs. Ethel Torres, Los Cantores chorus, Prof. Josiah Waddles, Miss Lola Holiday and Albert Baker, Deputy Chief of State Veterans of Foreign Wars from the state of Washington.

Plentiful repasts, consisting of varied sandwiches salads and coffee were served by Mr. C. C. Galloway, sponsor, Ethel Terrell and Ola Mae Williams, Ester Horton, Mrs. C. E. Reynolds and Mrs. Florence Terrell.

Rev. Jessie Richard Young, former assistant pastor and leader for two years of Zion Baptist church, passed away Sunday morning. Rev. Young came here under Dr. W. F. Botts where he was called from Bethel Baptist church and made assistant pastor under Rev. Botts where he served for more than two years. Dr. Botts left Zion owing to ill health. Rev. Young held the church together until Rev. Harper was called as pastor. Rev. Young served for six years. Then his health began to fail. He entered the hospital during the fall of 1935 twice. In June 1936 he went to Hot Springs, Ark., where he took baths and hoped to regain his health. Following that he went to work for a time. A few weeks ago he became ill and suddenly made a turn for the worse. The end came early Sunday morning at the residence of his brother, Mr. Sheppard Young.

He was a native of Louisiana and had also been employed by the Union Outfitting Co. for more than 15 years.

The funeral services were held Wednesday from Zion Baptist church at 2 p. m.

The Dude Ranches

No two dude ranches are exactly alike. Some are founded on the basis of still active ranches which are conducted as business enterprises in which the raising of livestock and grain crops is the primary business and that of the entertainment of visitors a secondary one. Some are partly one and partly the other; others have been developed from the beginning as guest ranches. Some are in the mountain areas, some on the plains, and others in deserts of the Southwest.

How Constipation Causes Gas, Nerve Pressure
When you are constipated two things happen. FIRST: Waste swells up the bowels and presses on nerves in the digestive tract. This nerve pressure causes headaches, a dull, lousy feeling, bilious spells, loss of appetite and dizziness. SECOND: Partly digested food starts to decay forming GAS, bringing on sour stomach (acid indigestion), and heartburn, bloating you up until you sometimes gasp for breath.
Then you spend many miserable days. You can't eat. You can't sleep. Your stomach is sour. You feel tired out, grouchy and miserable.
To get the complete relief you seek you must do TWO things. 1. You must relieve the GAS. 2. You must clear the bowels and GET THAT PLEASURE OFF THE NERVES. As soon as offending wastes are washed out you feel marvelously refreshed, blues vanish, the world looks bright again.
There is only one product on the market that gives you the DOUBLE ACTION you need. It is ADLERIKA. This efficient cathartic relieves that awful GAS as cause. It often removes bowel congestion in half an hour. No waiting for overnight relief. Adlerika acts on the stomach and both bowels. Ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowel only.
Adlerika has been recommended by many doctors and druggists for 35 years. No griping, no after effects. Just QUICK results. Try Adlerika today. You'll say you have never used such an efficient intestinal cleanser.
WARNING! ALL REPUTABLE DRUGGISTS know that Adlerika has no substitute. Always DEMAND the genuine.
