Union Refuses to Support Jim Crow Rule

CIO Body Moves From Hall With Jim Crow Rule

Milwaukee, Sept. 22 (CNA)-Meetings of the Milwaukee County Industrial Union Courc'l, con trol CIO body, were last week mov. ed from Pythian Castle Hall because of discrimination against Negro delegates.

The council voted unanimously to abandon the hall, after a Negro delegate was charged 50 cents for a glass of beer at the bar in the hall. Gunnar Mikelson, Wisconsin CIO director, stated that white delegtes were charged only five cents for beer and that a committee invstigating the incident found the hall had a fixed rule against Negroes drinking at the bar.

When the manager refused to rescind the ruling, the delegates vot. by the Urban League of New ed to change their meeting place.

W. J. Barber Says Lower Rates Increase Use of Gas Heating

New, lower gas rates are responsible for a rapidly increa ing use of automatic gas eating in Omaha, according to W. J. Barber, assistant to the general manager, Metropolitan Utilities District.

A large percentage of the new tomes now under construction and those completed this fall will have the advantages of completely automatic gas heating.

Besides the lower gas rates, which went-into effect in January of this year, new gas heating equip ment is so highly efficient in opera tion that operating costs have been progressively reduced. These reasons, plus the advantages of care free operation, greater cleanliness and more uniform comfort, is win ligion of Howard University. ning the approval of builders, and as those who have decided to convert existing equipment to gas.

Such air has an irritative effect upon the delicate membranes of the throat, lungs and nasal passages, which prepares them for the attack of the as yet undiscovered germ causing common cold.

Adequate artificial humidity in home heating, such as that found in modern gas heating equipment, will eliminate in homes, at least, the principal cause of winter ills.

In order to acquaint Omaha reidents with the actual cost of automatic gas heat, applied different homes, the Metropolitan Utilities District is offering a free gas heating service. RECEIVES APPOINTMENT Georgia To Shoot Chain Gang Fugitives In Spite of Laws

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 22 (CNA)-Georgia chain gang wardens reinstated "shoot to kill" orders for fugitives this week and asked restoration of the whipping post for prisoners who attempt to escape.

Votes were taken at a meeting called by Governor E. D. Rivers to check escapes which he said had reached 'scandalous proportions" -100 in August.

Whether whipping could be restored legally was a question. It was abolished in the administration of Thomas W. Hardwick, as governor in 1923. Hardwick pointed out then that it violated the Georgia Constitution's Bill of Rights which Rev. Wm. E. Carrington of provides 'neither banishment beyond the limits of the State nor

Rights of Maids

New York, Sept. 18-According to A. Phillip Randolph, inter national president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, a fight will be made, by the union in behalf of the colored maids retaining their employment rights in Pullman and railroad service out of Los Angeles and other districts. The removal of the colored maids from Los Angeles was ordered by the railroad company so white graduate stewardess nurses could beplaced in their stead, says Mr. Randolph.

If the railroad policy of removing Negro and Chinese maids can not be changed, a vigorous fight will be made to get some graduate Negro stewardess nurses on the Pullman and railroad trains, concluded Randolph, the porters' leader.

Into Bankruptcy

New York, Sept. 23 (C)-Rex Ingram, "De Lawd" of the film version of "The Green Pastures," filed a voluntary plea in bankruptcy in U. S. District Court Thursday, listing his assets as $20 worth of clothes on his person, and liahilities of $9,511. Ingram, who is 40, lives at 319 West 116th St. in Harlem. Mr. Ingram said he was unable to get theatre parts of sufficient dignity to continue his career as an actor. He had been offered plenty of roles, he said, but they portrayed the Negro as a comic, and he said he would rather quit the stage than take any of
