North branch YWCA held its annual open house on Sunday, October 3rd at 4:30 p. m. It was indeed a cooperative affair with Girl Reserves, Entre Nous, Quacks, Board of Management, Trojans and the membership as well as YWCA friends taking a very active part.

The City Service orchestra opened its meeting with a selection followed by an opening meditation by Mrs. Herbert Wiggins. The Echoes from Okoboji and Camp Brewster were given in the form of a "Man on the Street" program with Mrs. Thelma Hancock as NSB (North side Branch) announcer...

The City Service orchestra rendered another beautiful number following the Echoes from Camp...

At the close of program, Mr. Susie Yancy, assisted by Mrs. McVay, Mrs. W. B. Bryant, Mrs. Zella Broadus, Mrs. Florence Branch, Committee of management and club presidents served tea.

All members and friends are always welcomed to share in the fellowship of this Association at all times.

Trojan Club News

The Trojan club was opened with a short prayer uttered by Miss Helena Thomas, worship chairman. After the business was transacted the main event of the evening was a talk on Personal Relations, given by Miss Goldie Carter, Personal Counselor of the YWCA.

We welcome one new member to our group, in the person of Miss Connie Simril and an older member, Mrs. Louise Crumbly. Interest groups will begin next Tuesday with the Music Hour by Miss Ethel Jones.

A Statement Regarding Sen. Black by Dr. J. B. Lennox

The girl came to my office asking me about my opinion about Senator Black. At that time I was exceedingly busy and I did not express myself, and stated to her I did not feel free to do so then...

Now concerning Senator Black: I would first want to know as to why he first joined the KKK, then he eventually had a reason; then later he changed his mind. Sincerely it was a means to accomplish the position he was seeking.
