Los Cantores chorus will be presented in a fall concert at Zion Baptist church, Sunday afternoon, November 7th at 3:30 p. m. becoming one of the most outstanding musical groups in the city, will include in their program, trios, quartettes, solos, young men's chorus, young women's chorus and mixed chorus numbers.

The concert is under the direction of Miss Ethel Jones and will be sponsored by the Zion Improvement club with Mrs. Bell Taylor as chairman.

The Pastor's Wives Council met again Wednesday, October 20th after having three months vacation. This council is composed of the active pastor's wives of the city of Omaha.

After having had such a wonderful vacation, autumn finds us ready and eager to assume our respective duties both to our individual churches and to our council. After a short devotion, the regular business was brought to the attention of the council by our president, Mrs. J. S. Williams. Election of officers being the main issue. The following officers were elected for the year: president, Mrs. J. S. Williams, reelected; vice president, Mrs. W. S. Metcalfe, recording secretary, Mrs. G. E. Stevenson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. W. Bass; treasurer, Mrs. W. C. Conwell; reporter, Mrs. M. K. Curry; chairman of program committee, Mrs. F. P. Jones, with Mrs. Bass and Mrs. Stevenson assistants; chairman social committee, Mrs. M. K. Curry, with Mrs. O. L. Mosley and Mrs. Ed Johnson, assistants. We are sorry to lose Mrs. Phillips of Bethel AME and Mrs. Boodle of Seventh Day Adventist, whose husbands were called to other fields of labor. After discussing plans for the ensuing year. We were served a lovely repast by the hostess, Mrs. J. S. Williams. We are planning great things for the new year.

The Omaha City BYPU will hold its regular 5th Sunday's meeting with the Salem Baptist church, 28th and Decatur streets, Sunday October 31st at 5:30. The public is urged to attend as a very elaborate program has been planned with a special address by Dr. M. K. Curry and with Dr. G. E. Stevenson serving as master of ceremonies. It promises to be a very pleasant afternoon as all leading ministers are participating. With the city health ban lifted, President Cooper expects a capacity crowd. Special military drill by each union.

"The Heart of Spain," a motion picture accompanying the Spain bound ambulance from Hollywood will be shown Saturday evening, October 30th, at the Central club, 2027 Dodge street.

The ambulance, which stops at all large cities in its tour across the country is one of the two sponsored by the Motion Picture Artist Committee working in conjunction with the Medical Bureau to Aid Spanish Democracy.

Martin North, Hollywood writer will be main speaker for the evening. A member of the local Medical Bureau will also speak.

Members of the Motion Picture Artists Committee include such stars as Franchot Tone, Lionel Stander, Paul Muni, Sylvia Sydney, Luise Rainer and Frederic March.

The film is a sound picture taken on the Spanish battlefields. Two short features with Nancy Carroll and Irving Pichel will also be shown.

The ambulance will be on display in front of the Central club and will tour the downtown sections of Omaha on Saturday.

The purpose of the ambulance tour is to raise funds for medical aid to Loyalist Spain. Admission to the evening program is twenty five cents.

The Friendly 16 Bridge club was entertained by Mr. Hilton, 2331 Miami street. After a brief business meeting the club decided to give a Big Combination Bridge tournament at Dreamland Hall.

Clarinda, Ia. News

Second Baptist church school met at its usual hour with Miss Rachel Cason, superintendent, presiding. There was a splendid spirit in the school.

Church morning service was in high spirit. The pastor brought a stirring message. Subject "Offences must need be."

Evening service, the pastor brought another stirring message with a nice audience. Subject "Heaven and the Way to get There." Come to Clarinda if you want to enjoy Christian service. Visitors are all ways welcome.

Mrs. Georgia Walker is visiting her daughter in Lincoln, Nebr. We miss her very much in service.

The Mission Circle will have a mission program Sunday evening. Rev. Raymond Cooper of Omaha, Nebr. will bring the message.

Miss Louise Nash was out of town Sunday.

Mrs. Merrill Griggs and family were in service Sunday at Shenandoah, Ia.

Sunday will be a high day in Clarinda. Come one and all and enjoy the day.

The Junior Matron of St. John AME church wishes to thank everyone who participates in the style show given at the Urban League and we especially thank Mr. John Smith who had charge, also Mrs. Delores Blackwell and Mrs. Irene Morton for the beautiful solo numbers. Miss Edrose Willis who had charge of the music.
