C. T.—This boy that I am in love with asked me to marry him and I want to know if he will make me a good husband?

Ans: He would if you married him but he surely doesn't realize that you are just a few years out of the "cradle"..... you ought to wait a few more years before getting married for you really don't love this party.

V. L. H.—Will I ever find the kind of husband I desire to marry and be happy?

Ans: Yes.....if you continue to associate with only the best class of boys. You should try to make more friends among the girls for the more friends you have.....the more new friends you are going to meet and hold.

P. W.—Is it a wise idea for me to purchase the house that I am living in for I like it a lot?

Ans: Not at the price you would have to pay. Wait a couple of months for it seems to me the party who owns this place will come down a bit on the house and they too, realize the first figure was a bit high.

N. E. E.—Please tell me if I will ever see my daddy again. I would like to get a new Astrology Reading on you if I may?

Ans: Sure you will see your daddy again.....but not this year. Conditions are not such that he can arrange to visit home right now. You may secure one of my Astrology Readings by sending a quarter with your full name, birthdate, correct address and also enclose three of the most pressing questions on your mind and I will be glad to give you free opinions on them.

D. L. P.—Please tell me if the young man I am going with cares anything for me does he love the girl I saw him with recently?

Ans: Child.....he doesn't love either one of you. At this tender age he isn't going to declare his love for anyone and he is acting very sensible by not doing so.

M. A. B.—What do you think would be the best thing for my husband to do about work now?

Ans: When he is physically able.....he should return to the same position that he has been on before his illness. He should also try to find something better to do but until he does by all means hold on to the job he has.

L. G. J.—This man that visits me claims to be in love with me and I would like to know if there is anything to him?

Ans: He does love you but I don't think you will ever think enough of him to want to marry. Next spring will bring a new romance in your life that will mean more to you and you will forget you have ever known this particular party.

Marie Downing BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION The Lorieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godefroy Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

PRIZES FOR BEAUTY HINTS All beautiful women, and all women who aspire to be beautiful, have their own ideas concerning the best methods of improving their appearance. All of us should share our knowledge of beauty improvement with our friends, and for that reason I'm again announcing this week the second annual contest for the most original letters on ways in which women can increase their loveliness.

The contest will be even more worthwhile this year than the one held last year, which was won, you may recall, by Mamie Lue Pitts of Cleveland, Ohio. Prizes totaling $100 will be given; with the first prize $50, second $30, third $15, and fourth $5. Doubtless you use some trick to enhance your attractiveness, some hint that would be of benefit to others. Perhaps it is a method of applying cleansing cream to the skin, perhaps a way to bring out the full natural sheen of the hair, perhaps an exercise to improve the figure. Maybe it's a combination of many things. Tell me about it in a letter not longer than 500 words. Address it to Marie Downing, Lorieuse Beauty Foundation, 511 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.

If you win a prize, in addition to the money you will receive, you will have the fun of seeing your letter printed in this column. Send in your letter with a copy of this column or a coupon clipped from this newspaper. Letters will not be considered unless you follow these instructions. They must be mailed before midnight, November 30, 1937.

This Week in Thought and Religion By Robert L. Mooney

Armistice and War November 11th is nationally celebrated as Armistice, i. e., the day in 1918 when the treaty of peace became effective in the "War to end war." Nineteen years later the world is tense with excitement because of the expectation of war. All of this proves that the mere ingenuity of man cannot bring peace. Every true American loves his country and believes in self protection, but this doesn't eclipse the view of the uselessness of war. The inevitability, i. e., unavoidability of war does not depend upon a need of it; but because of the refusal to obey God's word, wars come in fulfillment of the scriptures as found in Matt. 24:6, also the entire chapter. We are admonished "If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land; but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." Isa. 1:18-20.

War destroys human lives, crucifies civilization, works havoc with the ideals and morals of nations. War is everything horrible and destructive. The war that I, myself and every true Christian believes in is the struggle of the spirit against the flesh. If men did not allow the flesh with its lusts overcome them individually nationally and internationally, we would not have war. The Master Teacher is also the "Prince of Peace." To accept Him as "Dictator" in our affairs would bring us the reign of peace. Since it is obvious that everyone especially a majority will not receive them "see that ye be not troubled." On this Armistice Day let everyone that wants peace, let his treaty of peace with God be signed in Jesus' blood "for He is our peace." His will bequeathed to us is "peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth..... these things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." Jno. 14:27; 16:33.

Two Harlemites Are Certified As Watchmakers

New York, Oct. 28 (By A. E. White for ANP)—The two proudest men in Harlem are Peter Huffstead and James Buchanan. They are justified in being proud. By qualifying as certified Watchmakers, through a rigid examination conducted by the Horological Institute of America, they have achieved the watchmaker's highest rating.

In the science and art of watchmaking, this rating is equivalent to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the field of education. And similarly, this certificate is obtained only by the most assiduous application to the finer side and technique of watchmaking.

Inspired with an ambition to become the best watchmakers in the city, these two workmen filed to take the examination; one because of an inordinate pride in his work, the other on a sheer bet that he could pass the tests. Meeting every preliminary requirement of the institute, which in itself is a rigid test, these two Harlemites determined to do their best in acquiring the rights to the certificate. The work experience necessary before the candidate can qualify; the business ethics demanded; the professional attitude called for; the shop, the tools, all are investigated thoroughly before permission to take the test is given.

These tests include written and manual work of a nature sorely trying to an experienced man, embracing as they do the most difficult and scientific phases of watchmaking. And they are conducted under the supervision of a monitor appointed by the institute from their Washington headquarters in the United States Bureau of Standards.

Records of the Horological institute show that their only about 20 certified watchmakers in the state of New York, compared with the thousands of watchmakers doing business here. The records show that there are only about 900 certified watchmakers in the entire country—with the largest number being found in the Middle West where compulsory laws demand this rating before a man can hang out his shingle.

Peter Huffstead is in business for himself; James Buchanan is a valued employee of the Longines Wittnauer company, one of the world's greatest houses.
