

THE GUIDITE CLUB

Uncle Gil Asks Cooperation Of All Youth Leaders

Now that the long awaited Guidite party is only a few days away and Uncle Gil is desirous that all of Omaha's young may have the opportunity to participate, he is sending out a clarion call that all Sunday school and youth activity directors in the various churches throughout the city assist him in making this a truly cultural event by urging all who have a talent of any kind to participate in the program and display which precedes the party at which all will be served.

Every boy and girl who is a member of the Guidite club is urged to call at the office of the Omaha Guide, 2418 Grant street and get a membership card which will entitle you to be served on November 13th, at the Guidite party to be held in the auditorium of the Guide.

GAMES

Peanut Pantry

The peanuts have been hidden in various parts of the room before the boys or girls arrive, preferably by a chosen committee of the youth themselves. The boys and girls are allowed a certain time to hunt, when time is up, each comes and counts his peanuts out on the table and leaves them there. The one having found the most in the allotted time is declared the winner.

Mind Reading

This game may be played by any number of persons. Have a slip of paper passed to each person, requesting each to write the name of any city, person or country, or any sentence he desired upon the slip. The slips are then folded and collected and the one who acts as medium takes one slip of paper at a time, holds it to his forehead, and after a moments though calls out the name that is supposed to be written on the paper. The trick is to have an accomplice, who, instead of folding his paper like the rest, will fold it in a different The medium and this person have agreed upon what word or sentence shall be written. The medium when reading his first paper will call off what was written by his confederate and asks "who wrote this?" The confederate will immediately say "I did." He opens the paper and this gives him his cue for the next word or sentence.

Reception

Each player is given a card or slip prepared with the following questions, or the list may be dictated at the time.

What famous person historical do these objects suggest?

1. West Point? (Benjamin Davis, jr.)
2. Pullman Cars (A. Phillip Randolph)
3. Blues? (William C. Handy)
4. Clock (Benjamin Banneker)
5. Church? (Richard Allen)

The Guidite World of Music

By Miss Ethel Jones

Works of Henry W. Longfellow Among the poets whose lines are most often used for musical setting, Longfellow ranks with Goethe, Heine and Tennyson.

As a child, music had always had an active part in the atmosphere of Longfellow's home life. As a youth and as a mature man, he frequently attended concerts and was many times moved to tears at these performances. He liked the music of the past better than that of the future. Extracts from his journals and letters quote him as saying, "Music is the universal language of mankind" and another time "Music is the prophets art." "Among the gifts that God has sent." "One of the most magnificent." He was particularly fond of Beethoven's music. Among his many musical friends were Ole Bull, the noted Norwegian violinist and composer. Some of Longfellow's best known works which have been used for musical settings in songs, operas, cantatas, etc. are his "Stars of the Summer Night," "Good Night, Good Night Beloved," "A Psalm of Life," "The Song of Hiawatha" and other Hiawatha works. "The Wreck of the Hesperus," "The Courtship of Miles Standish," and many others.

FAMOUS QUOTATIONS

Truth is the highest thing that man may keep.
Full wise is he that can himself know.
Honor is purchased by the deeds we do.
How poor are they that have not patience.

All the world's a stage and the men and women merely players.

They have their exits and have their entrances.

And one man in his time plays many parts.

Reading maketh a full man, confidence a ready man and writing an exact man.

He that has light within his own clear breast may sit in the center and enjoy bright day. But he that hides a dark soul and foul thought benighted walks under the midday sun; himself is his own dungeon.

The mind is its own place, and in itself can make a heaven of hell a hell of heaven.

Jack:—"Hey, what's the big idea painting your car red on one side and blue on the other?"
Jim:—"It's a great idea. You should hear the witnesses contradicting each other."

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

FEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month.

You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up earlier before marriage than after. Be wise. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."
