ISSUES CALL

HON. B. J. DAVIS

Formerly editor of the old Atlanta Independent, where he was known for his ringing editorials, now editor of the National Baptist Union Review, official organ of the National Baptist Convention of America with headquarters at Nashville, who has issued a call for the annual meeting of the National Negro Press Association to convene in Nashville, Nov. 27 and 28. Mr. Davis as president, will preside over the meeting. Several editors have signified their intention of being present.

The Omaha National Negro Congress Council held its first of a series of Sunday afternoon Forums Sunday afternoon, November 14th at the YWCA. 75 persons were present to listen to a stirring address by Mr. Henry Johnson Nat'l. vice president of the National Negro Congress, and the first assistant to be director of the CIO.

Mr. Johnson very beautifully traced the problem of the Negro from the time the first boat landed in America in 1619 and by means of well placed analogies brought it up to the present day where he proved that their still exists today the same two types of Negroes that existed during slavery time namely "the big house Negro and the field hand." Mr. Johnson stated vehemently that here is the problem that must be solved if the Negro hopes to effect a united mass front. The bridge of obstruction that stands between the worker and the professional class must be moved for herein lies the trouble.

The professional man receives his support from the masses, therefore it is pertinent that the profession should support the masses.

Following this brilliant address, the house was open for questions of which Mr. Johnson very intelligently answered, to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. S. Edward Gilbert, executive secretary of the local council and a member of the National Executive Committee presented to Mr. J. Westbrook McPherson president of the local council a charter, thus affiliating the local chapter to the national body. It being the 136th such a charter issued, meaning that there are 136 cities thus united to bring about a better economical and social condition for the Negro.

Mrs. Beatrice Smith, 2512 Wirt street, died at Nicholas Senn hospital Wednesday evening. Mrs. Smith is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Claude McFarlin. Funeral arrangements have not been made. The family is waiting the arrival of Mrs. Josephine Henley of Butte, Montana.

Texas Plans For Scholarship Aid

Dallas, Nov. 11 (By Fritz Cunsler for ANP)—Mrs. Jessie Daniel Ames, acting executive director of the Southern Interracial commission was in the city last week and on Tuesday conferred with local sponsors of the Dr. R. T. Hamilton Bill for the providing of scholarship aid at the expense of the state of Texas for Negro graduate and professional students who desire to continue their education in institutions of higher learning and graduate schools where the instruction is provided by the state of Texas.

Dr. Hamilton has given a great deal of time to the study of the manner in which this emergency is being met in other states and in a very comprehensive brochure, has compiled his findings and recommendations. Two conferences have been held with Governor Allred who is openly in favor of the legislation at the earliest possible time. With the adjournment of the special session of the state legislature only a short time ago, and with the declaration of Governor Allred that he does not contemplate calling another, it is doubtful whether or not action can be had before next spring, but Mrs. Ames has planned to make contacts with members of the legislature in all parts of the state to inform them of the provisions of the bill, reasons for its enactment into law, and to secure their commitment to a favorable vote in both the House and the Senate when the bill is presented at Austin.

Mrs. Ames is one of the best known women in the South in her former work in Texas and in her present work of the powerful organization of southern white women opposed to lynching. In the absence of Dr. Will Alexander, now in Washington on an important New Deal assignment, Mrs. Ames has been directing the work of the Interracial Commission from the Atlanta office.

Roosevelt Post Holds Service At Elks' Hall

Through the cooperation of Charles F. Davis, Exalted Ruler of Iroquois Elks' Lodge No. 92, who donated their building to the American Legion on Armistice Day, Roosevelt Post No. 30 under the leadership of Charles J. Coleman, commander, and a committee composed of Edward Turner, adjutant, John A. Gardner, finance officer, and Paul S. Holliday, presented to the public a program that will be long remembered by those in attendance. The members of Roosevelt Post No. 30 assembled at the Urban League, 2213 Lake street, when promptly at 10:50 a. m. they marched in a body west on Lake. Bugler Sgt. Hamilton, from Fort Omaha led the procession following him were the colors, the color bearers being flanked on each side by a color guard, behind them came the firing squad of eight soldiers from Co. C 17th Infantry, Fort Crook, under the command of Corporal Hurst. Members of Roosevelt Post followed in close order, after marching west to 25th street and returning to the Elks' Hall where they faced east and at 10:59 a. m. the firing squad fired 3 volleys and at exactly 11 o'clock a. m. taps were blown by Sgt. Hamilton in commemoration of the 19th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice. Thus was concluded the morning service.

At 8:30 p. m. a program was held in the Elks' auditorium where more than 400 persons were in attendance. The program opened with an address of welcome by Charles F. Davis, Exalted Ruler of the Elks, who was followed by Chas. J. Coleman, Commander of Roosevelt Post No. 30, who asked that the Post colors be advanced after which here was an address by Dr. W. Peckles and a vocal solo "We've Fought Every Battle But Our Own," by Mrs. Irene Morton.

The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. Bernard E. Squires, executive secretary of the Urban League, who delivered a dynamic speech touching upon the many economic problems of the Negro.

Sgt. Hamilton and Lawrence from Fort Omaha, sang a duet entitled "Break the News to Mother" The colors were then retired and taps were blown by Sgt. Hamilton who is rated as the best bugler in the 9th Cavalry. Interspersed through the program the following numbers, "Star Spangled Banner," "Over There," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and "Long, Long Trail," were rendered by the City Service Concert band, which is under the direction of Mr. George Bryant. This band is giving a series of free concerts every Wednesday night between 8 and 9 o'clock at the Urban League Community Center.

After the program a free dance was held and refreshments were served to all. This was made possible through the cooperation given to Roosevelt Post No. 30 by Robert Drum, who is commander of Omaha Post No. 1 and also president of the Fontenelle Brewing Co. Among the many who attended from Omaha Post No. 1, were the following: Theodore Metcalfe, State Commander; Robert Drum, Commander of Omaha Post No. 1; George Gillan, Adj. Omaha Post No. 1; James English, County Attorney; E. E. McKnight from the Department of Public Improvement; Sam Reynolds and last, but not least the "Bloody Band," which is a novelty band from Omaha Post. A wonderful time was had by all.

'Big Tim' Teadwell Sued For Divorce

Columbus, O., Nov. 11 (By Charles Spears for ANP)—"Big Tim" Treadwell, Columbus numbers king, with an empire of wealth in 13 cities and a reputed income of more than $3,000 a week, is to be served a summons at his palatial air conditioned offices here.

His wife, Mrs. Naomi Treadwell, wants a divorce, and in her petition filed for her by Attorney Charles F. Doll charges "Big Tim" with extreme cruelty toward her, and trying to force her by ill conduct to divorce him. She also charges him with being arrogant, haughty and overbearing with grandiose ideas of himself and with brazenly and boastfully associating with other women and admitting his illicit relations with them.

She further charges him with squandering his money on riotous living, and threatening to take their two children, Shirley Diana, aged 3 years, and Timothy, jr., aged 3 years, and Timothy, jr., with threatening to kick her out of the house and placing his money and other belongings in secret places, and in other people's names, to keep her from getting alimony and a division of his property.

Incidentally, Mrs. Treadwell figures it will take more than $100 a week to keep up her home, servants, Packard and other items, not counting clothing but she does not think a bit of change like that would hurt "Tim" because she says his income is more than $3,000 a week, and he has large sums of money in several Columbus banking institutions, owns property here reasonably worth $25,000, two large farms in Vinton county, and is the sole owner of the Big Climax department store. He also owns his home at 401 Woodland. It's worth $20,000. He's put in it the name of our children. He has business in Cleveland, Columbus, Newark, Lima, Portsmouth, Chillicothe, Logan and other cities, her petition sets forth.

Memphis Organizes New Businesses

Memphis, Nov. 11 (By James C. Dickerson for ANP)—Just about the time all Memphis was feeling good over the new Dunbar shoe store started a fortnight ago, some public spirited citizens organized a medical manufacturing company to be known as the Odessa Lee Laboratory company, Inc., which will manufacture chemically prepared items for practical use by the masses. The company hopes to create more jobs for Negro men and women. Incorporators are W. H. Bentley, Sam Qualls, Matthew Thonton, N. Bowman, Fred Smith, Samuel Underwood, F. D. Bell, J. Daper and James Ferguson.

The company will produce funeral, public building and stock powder supplies and a general line of household remedies for the house wife including cosmetics. The Odessa Lee laboratory is expecting to offer its products at such popular prices that the lowest wage earner can make purchases. The temporary headquarters will be at 195 So. Third street, office of Atty. W. H. Bentley.

2 More Big Nights Household-Food Demonstration

The Omaha Guide and the Housewives League 10th Annual Food Festival and Household Show, beginning Monday evening November 15th and running for 6 days will feature the "3 Giants of Swing" as the main part of the entertainment program.

The show will consist of ten booths, demonstrating the food products of Omaha's most popular distributors and nationally known household equipments.

Each booth will be manned by uniformed attendants who will explain to the visiting homemakers the merits of their respective products.

In addition to the booth demonstrations there will be special demonstrations from the stage which will be equipped with a loud speaker and cooking equipments. There will also be the usual award of many prizes.

All homemakers are invited to attend.

Remember the date, 6 big nights, from November 15th to November 20th at the Omaha Guide building 2418-26 Grant street, Omaha, Nebr.

The Auxiliary of the Protective Order of Dining Car Waiters, Local No. 465, was organized Friday, November 12th at the office of the Protective Order of Dining Car Waiters, located at 2122 1/2 No. 24th street, where the meeting will be permanently held on the second and fourth Thurs. of each month at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Ousley, of 2228 Willis avenue, was elected president and Mrs. Luna Porter, 3517 Blondo street, was elected secretary-treasurer. Charter members are: Mrs. Ausker Blanton, 2715 Miami; Mrs. R. G. Ham, 2785 Lake street; Mrs. T. Shropshire, Mrs. J. Chisholm, La Casa Apts.; Mrs. R. Thomas, 2919 No. 28th street; Mrs. Edna Carr, 2112 No. 27th and Mrs. R. Smith. Mr. Solon C. Bell and Mr. E. G. Scott, Local 465 officials, were present and gave encouraging remarks.

Detective Edwin Rose, who died early Friday morning at his home, of Pulmonary Embolus, instead of Lockjaw, as was reported and carried in an extra put out by the Guide, Friday afternoon. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Bethel Baptist church with the Rev. M. K. Curry officiating among the 800 in attendance were 75 police officers including Police Commissioner Jensen, Chief of Police J. J. Pzanowski, Inspector Paul Haze and Chief of Detectives Fritz Frank.

Sergeant Rose suffered a gunshot wound some weeks ago while on a hunting trip with Detective Birch when a gun in the hands of Detective Birch was accidentally discharged, when Birch's feet became entangled with vines, causing him to stumble and fall to the ground resulting in 30 gunshots lodging in the thigh of Officer Rose.

Detective Rose who had been on the force since November 16th. made such an imitable record as a patrolman that he was promoted to the ranks of a detective sergeant, December 1, 1933, a record hard to beat in that it is usually necessary to be on the force at least 10 years before one becomes eligible for such a promotion.

Upon interviewing the chief of detectives as to the merit of Detective Rose, following his untimely death, a death that was regretted by thousands of Omahans. He states, "Rose was one of the best men in my department, he further added, "He was dependable in every respect. It shall be hard to replace him."

The funeral of Detective Rose, perhaps the largest held in Omaha for many years, was indeed a sad one especially to his many comrades and friends.

Detective Rose, who was 41 years of age and was born in Walnut Hill, Ark., is survived by two sons, Albert and Frank Rose. Interment was in Graceland cemetery, with Meyer Funeral Home officiating.
