I. L. C.—Does this man that I am going with care as much for me as he pretends?

Ans: He does not...if he were serious in wanting to get married don't you know that he would have some arrangements before this time. You are wasting some of the best years of your life waiting on him.

J. T.—I am between two opinions. Please help me to solve the problem. Could you enlighten me on either subject as to the best thing for me to do?

Ans: The trip that your sister wishes you to make with her will not last but a short time and you will forget it if you did make the journey...however, the thought of marriage is a lifetime proposition and it seems to me that you would be better satisfied to choose this step.

D. B. N.—There is but one thing in life that I desire right now and I wonder if I should continue to hope?

Ans: Never give up hope...you are just a youngster even though you are married and it won't be but a couple of years at least until this one thing in the world you wish for makes its appearance in your home...it will be the happiest day of your life.

J. B. A.—I want to know if my daughter is going to get the job that she is expecting?

Ans: She will get employment in the very immediate future and will be well pleased with the occupation that she secures. Her income will show an increase around the first of the year.

M. W. D.—What should I do about this boy that I am going with right now? Will he keep his promise?

Ans: He isn't going to keep this promise...and it would be a wise idea for you to get employment and stop depending on this individual for he will never approach marriage if he thinks that he could get by without it.

M. E. R.—I must say that thus far you have guided me just right and I wish to thank you. Now I am very much upset and feel troubled as something is going to take place I think. What is in store for me?

Ans: You are worrying unnecessarily...trouble isn't going to start in your life. When you make the change you have in mind things in general will turn for the better. There is no reason for you to worry seriously about your sister. Stop trying to find trouble.

E. M. P.—There is a boy I am really in love with and he promises to wait until I finish school. Will he? Does he really care for me?

Ans: He does care for you...but you must not let yourself worry too much about him for you can't concentrate on your studies as you should. Finish your education.

E. K.—I am asking a few words about my husband. He is going to Detroit to look for work and I want to know if he will be successful?

Ans: He will be able to find work in Detroit...but I can't see why he wants to go up there this season of the year when he could find a job in or around your present location. He isn't and won't be properly clothed for the extreme weather he will find in Detroit.

Prize Poster Stresses Need for Chest Drive Generosity

This appealing poster, symbolizing the forceful slogan of "Give—There is SUCH a Need!", has been chosen in the contest conducted in connection with the Community Chest drive, to be held from November 16 to 27. It was submitted by Rudy Rampeck, 4915 Burt street, Omaha artist. Honorable mention for outstanding posters also was given to Floyd Wilson and Milton Reynolds. The poster will be used extensively in this year's drive, in which the goal has been set at $577,739.10.

Chest Drive Opens

An army of men and women who have to help those who have not, are now actively engaged in making plans for the most extensive and intensive Community Chest campaign in the history of Omaha. The goal set for the campaign which will open with a city wide sweep November 16th, is $577,739.10. The amount is 9 per cent over the money actually collected last year but the increase is necessary to meet the growing demand for care of dependent children and families, according to a careful survey compiled by the Chest based on reports from the 29 affiliated agencies.

President J. L. Haugh of the Chest and Roy L. Page, general chairman, have joined hands in the drive with men and women in all sections and walks of life in the city to bring the campaign this year to a successful conclusion.

For days now the personal and industrial solicitation has been underway. The solicitation of personal contributions began Monday morning following a meeting Sunday at the Paxton hotel. Victor B. Smith, chairman of this division, presided and gave final instructions to the more than 100 men volunteers.

J. M. Harding, head of the industrial division, with 450 captains in charge of other hundreds of workers, have been quietly canvassing for large contributions from industry.

Meanwhile an auxiliary army of 1,300 women is being carefully organized and trained for the city wide, house to house canvassing, which will begin November 16th and continue to the end of the drive, November 27th. These women are in the residential division and led by Mrs. Earl C. Sage. In preparation for this drive 15 meetings are being conducted this week where the women are expertly schooled in the work being done by the Community Chest in Omaha so they may tell the real story of social service when they call on the people.

So that all of the people of Omaha may be accurately informed of the far reaching activities of the Community Chest and the work it does through the affiliated agencies a speakers' bureau is carrying on an educational program. This bureau is headed by Walter L. Pierpoint and Farrar Newberry, newspapers, radio stations, theaters and many other institutions and organizations are cooperating.

Sues GOP Head For $10,000 Damage

Cleveland, Nov. 11 (By Clarence L. Simmons for ANP)—Declaring that statements made concerning him as a result of a recent fiasco probe into the majority expenditures by the board of elections by Rev. H. Davis, chairman of the Republican Executive committee, are Walker, president of Wilberforce university filed suit against the chairman here recently for $100,000 alleging slander.

At the height of the hearing, Mr. Davis, questioned about the funds spent for Mayor Harold H. Burton shouted out, "Call in Burr Gongwer (Democratic leader)! Call in D. Ormond Walker! He gave out some Democratic money! He's president of Wilberforce university in case you don't know."

Dr. Walker declared Thursday he would demand that Rees Davis answer in damages for the "malicious slander he uttered against him" because such statements are false.

"When called before the board of elections he charged that the Democrats spent money for precinct workers on primary and that I, D. O. Walker, president of Wilberforce university, had paid out money in their behalf. That statement is utterly false. I made a categorical denial and am today instructing my attorney L. McGhee, to enter suit against Davis for damages at $100,000.

"He caused me considerable embarrassment and injury to my reputation and good standing in this community and throughout the state and nation. He shall have to answer and furnish proof of this malicious charge," the school head said.

Just what will really happen to the controversy is hard to forecast for the probe of primary day expenditures was dropped by the Board after Republicans and Democrats mutually agreed to call the whole affair a draw.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged. Try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

BEAUTIFUL HAIR...
TURNS MEN'S THOUGHTS TO ROMANCE

Make YOUR Dreams Come True... Use GODEFROY'S LARIEUSE

MEN never make passes at girls who wear glasses—and seldom say "Give me a kiss" to a faded, grey-haired miss! But they admire a woman with richly colored, softly gleaming hair. So, if you are missing love because your hair is dull, ironed, oil-colored or streaked with grey, get a bottle of Larieuse today. Larieuse is no more trouble to use than an ordinary shampoo, yet the beautiful color it gives to your hair will not rub off or wash out and will last a long time. Color wanted comes evenly: jet black, black, dark, medium or light brown, or blonde. No dyed look, no stickiness, no smell. Ask your dealer for Godefroy's Larieuse, the Hair Coloring in the red box. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy or your dealer will refund your money.
