Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Michael gave a beautiful reception in honor of their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Elmore, last Friday. Over a hundred persons attended and wished the bride and groom much happiness and success. The bride was lovely in a white crepe formal, the hem, encircled in tailored pleats. The mother was charming in a tailored blue gown. The brides attendants, Mrs. Juanita Artison, wore a beautiful blue gown of crepe and silk. Mrs. Eunice Hanon was lovely in yellow crepe, and Mrs. E. A. Anderson was gorgeous in black. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received.

The bride is the former Miss Ann Michael, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mae Elmore.

JUNIOR HOMEMAKERS CLUB
Dr. Zimmer of Lincoln, Neb., lectured to the Junior Homemakers club at the Urban League Community Center last month. The club also gave a surprise birthday party at the home of Mrs. Eugene Murray, in honor of her husband. A surprise baby shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mill by the Junior Homemakers.

THRIFTY TWELVE ART CLUB
Several days ago, some ladies saw the need of an art group, and no quicker said than done, a group of ladies met at the home of Mrs. Addie Morrow, 5517 So. 33rd avenue, and organized an art club.

With the election of officers, Mrs. O. T. Whitlow, as president; Mrs. Addie Morrow, vice president; Mrs. Emma Henderson, secretary; Mrs. Minnie Williams, assistant; and Mrs. Lorene Edmonds, treasurer. The hostess served a very lovely luncheon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Edmonds, 5704 So. 28th street.

NOTICE:
Adult Education Music and Dramatic Classes, YWCA, Monday evening, 8 p. m., Voice Culture; Solo and Chorus singing, Wednesday evening, 8 p. m., Dramatics.

EUREKA CLUB
The Eureka club held its first meeting of the season last Wednesday at the charming home of Mrs. Harry Leland, 2824 No. 26th St. The club started its 26th years activity by enrolling the following members: Mrs. Florence Speere, Mrs. Mildred Johnson, Mrs. Eva Brown, Mrs. Mayberry and Mrs. Pearl Wakefield. Mrs. Eva Sharp, charter member, was made an honorary member because her illness prevents her from attending meetings.

Mrs. Josephine Lee of Pensacola, Fla., returned to her home last Sunday, after spending two months visiting her son, Clarence E. Lee and family, 2863 Maple street. Enroute home she visited with her grand daughter, Juliette L. Lee, Chicago, Ill., her grandson, Lloyd L. Lee at Nashville, Tenn. and other relatives and friends in Montgomery, Ala.

Schiaparelli's bolero

A brilliant new shoulder fashion of non-crushable rayon velvet. There is an Empire touch in the graceful drop of the back and more than a touch of old world grandeur in the bold scroll of metallic embroidery gold on black, silver on white.

Mr. Harry Leland just returned from Lincoln, where he conferred with the heads of the state department.

Mrs. Edna Burley, 2713 No. 26th street, is rapidly recovering at her home after four months in the hospital.

The Tuesday Knitting club, whose instructress is Mrs. Brown, is hitting its full stride now. They are knitting their Xmas presents and personal effects. They met at the home of Mrs. Harry Leland at their last meeting.

The Eight Link Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Greta Wade, 2715 Binney street, Saturday, November 6th. Delightful refreshments were served. Mrs. Wade, president; Mrs. Grey, secretary; and Mr. G. Murry, treasurer.

Mrs. Johnnie Williams and son of Chicago are visiting in Omaha. Mrs. Williams is the wife of Mr. C. Williams, private car chef on the Union Pacific. They are staying at the Patton hotel where they expect to remain for about three weeks.

One of the most outstanding social events of the season was a surprise birthday dinner party given at the home of Mrs. Greta Wade, November 3rd, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Lena Cook of 2205 Ohio street. The guests were Mrs. Clara Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Mr. L. Greene.

Mrs. Thelma Jones, 28, was granted her final decree from her husband, Howard Jones, last Friday.

The charges in the suit brought by Mrs. Jones were cruelty and desertion. She asserted that after nine years she could go no further. When asked if the wedding march would ring out again soon, Mrs. Jones replied, "Never again!"

The Guide takes pleasure in publishing this letter received by the editor.

Dear Editor
Words can scarcely express our gratitude to the various churches, neighbors, friends, the colored fire station and the many persons who were so kind as to assist us in burying our darling daughter and sister, Marie Alexander Coulter. We also wish to thank those who so kindly donated their cars. Sincerely thanking you for using the Guide as a medium of reaching our friends, we remain,
Mrs. Sarah Alexander and family

Second Baptist Church
The Second Baptist church Sunday school met at the usual hour with Miss Rachel Cason presiding. The second anniversary of Rev. D. Nicholson was a great success. Rev. C. Adams brought the morning message, which was enjoyed by all. We were pleased to have many of our Omaha friends with us. From Salem Baptist church were Mr. Wm. Cooper, Mrs. Mamie Thomas, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Onida Brown, Mrs. Willie Lambert and Mrs. Wm. Cooper. From Pillgrim: Rev. and Mrs. C. Adams, Mrs. C. Downing and Mr. N. T. Jowers. From Primitive Baptist church: Mr. J. A. Johnson, From Bethel A. M. E.: Mr. Elmer Reeves. From St. John Baptist church: Rev. and Mrs. Young, Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mr. Terry and Mrs. Branch.

Rev. Young of St. John brought the afternoon message. Subject, "My Faith Has Been Increased." The people of Clarinda and the members of Second Baptist church, presented Mrs. Nicholson with a chest of fruit. We were happy to have Rev. Mos's and wife and members of the St. Jacobs A.M.E. church to visit with us. Come to Clarinda and the Second Baptist church. You are always welcome.

A delicious dinner was prepared by the ladies of the Second Baptist church.

A surprise baby shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hill by the Junior Homemakers club.

Carter Benevolent club held their regular monthly meeting at 3521 Pondo street. Hostesses were Mesdames Myrtle Metcalfe, Alice Smith, Ida Wiley, and Gwendolyn Deckard. The regular routine of business was dispensed with, after which Mrs. Mary Wiggins spoke in behalf of the Community Chest. It was very encouraging to learn of the assistance rendered to the different charitable organizations. Visitors for the evening included Rev. Rhone, Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Bass, Rev. Metcalfe, and Mr. Williams and Mr. Given.

A very delicious lunch was served. The club adjourned to meet December 2nd at 2902 No. 28th street.

Mr. Nelson, 2865 Binney street, was found dead in bed Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. He is a member of Mt. Olive Baptist church in South Omaha.

Mrs. Viola Washington, 2701 Corby street, gave a surprise birthday party for her nephew, Edwin Jones, last Saturday. Seven down and many more to go, Edwin.

Two visitors in Omaha last week were, Messrs. John B. Brown and Octave Smith of New Orleans, La. While in the city, they were visitors at the Omaha Guide plant, and also the Food Festival.

Rev. and Mrs. A. Phillips, and daughter, left for their newly assigned post, The Gregg Tabernacle, in Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 16th, after a whirlwind of entertainment by a host of members and friends who deeply regret losing him from Omaha, as well as Bethel A.M.E. church. This is such a sincere and Christian family. Rev. Phillips is quite an asset to any city, and his two years of service and improvements at Bethel is wholeheartedly appreciated.
