GAMES

Catch Penny
 Place on your elbow three or four penny pieces in a heap, then drop your elbow suddenly so as to bring your hand rather below the place where your elbow was and try to catch the money before it falls to the ground. A few trials will enable you to perform this trick with the greatest facility.

The Finger Jump
 The performer holds a stick horizontally between the fore fingers of his hands pressing with the fingers to keep it from falling. Keeping the stick in this position, he should jump over it forward then backward. The same feat may be performed by pressing together the middle fingers of the two hands without a stick and jumping over them forward and backward, as a dog jumps through the curved arms.

Constantinople
 The player is required to "spell Constantinople, one syllable at a time." As soon as he gets to the letter "I", all the other players shout the syllable "No." The spell naturally thinks that he has made a mistake, and commences again. Each time that he gets to the letter "I", the same cry of "No!" is made, and the poor victim may become very much confused, and doubt his own memory as to spelling before he discovers the trick.

Noted Orators
 Let three young men impersonate three prominent orators. State that as the hour is late, they will save time by all speaking at once. Each of the three should have previously committed his speech, and when he has taken his place on the platform he will frantically endeavor to make himself heard above the others. To make the performance more amusing, they should commit speeches which require dramatic gestures, and not be afraid of putting in extra motions as the occasion may require.

The Guidite World of Music

By Miss Ethel Jones
 Conductor Walter Damrosch

Of great interest is the life of Dr. Walter Damrosch, eminent conductor and musical educator of today.
 Dr. Damrosch was born January 3, 1862 at Breslan, Prussia, the son of Dr. Leopold Damrosch, conductor and Wagner protagonist. He was musically educated under his father, Wilhelm Rischbieter and Hans von Bulow. In 1871 he came to America with his father, on whose death in 1885 he became assistant conductor of the German opera company of New York, and musical director of the Oratorio Society and the symphony society. In 1890 he founded the Damrosch Opera company for the production of Wagner works in America; in 1896 he gave the first American performance of "Parisfal" in concert form; and he has made such contributions to our national musical art. He received from Columbia university the degree of Doctor of Music in 1914; and from Princeton university the same degree in 1920. His opera, "The Scarlet Letter," was produced by the Damrosch Opera company on February 10, 1896 in Boston, "Cyrano de Bergerac" had its world premiere by the Metropolitan Opera company on February 27, 1913; and "The Man Without a Country" by the same company, on May 12, 1937. Through his radio activities, Dr. Damrosch has added immensely to his services to American musical culture, to which he has been perhaps the most notable contributor.

PARTING OF THE WAYS

The best of friends must part: That is understood right from the start.
 So while you are having a good time Remember what I say; for some day We come to the parting of the ways.
 Even in the street where old friends meet,
 Comes the parting of the ways,
 In the family circle where is found the tie that binds,
 Comes again the parting of the ways, in due time.
 Though you may love and be kind in every word you say,
 There'll come a time when you'll face the parting of the way.
 Don't be surprised don't be alarmed
 Just wait until the passing storm,
 Take it easy my friend,
 For you must come to the parting of the ways.
 —Raymond R. Mott.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

FEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. Be wise. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.
 For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."
 Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."

THE MESSAGE OF THE ROSE

Only a Rose, so blushing red
 Like a first kissed maiden dropped its head.
 And seemed to say strange things to me,
 Of how romance and love should be.
 One petal shaped like a broken heart,
 One bled where faithless Cupid's dart
 Had pierced it through, then turned a side,
 Striving his faulty bow to hide.
 One petal curved, in laughing glee,
 Making a soul sick fool of me
 Whose love too oft had been denied
 Nor wept, because of sacred pride.
 One, nestling on the pollend breast,
 The joy, and envy of the rest—
 But all together seemed to be
 The par to God's Infinity.
 Oh, gorgeous, blushing, laughing
 Rose
 Your broken heart may not disclose
 How many first kissed hearts have bled
 Nor why the Red, Red Rose is red.
 —C. Horatio Warrick

Constipated?
Don't Let Gas, Nerve Pressure Keep You Miserable
 When you are constipated two things happen. FIRST: Wastes swell up the bowels and press on nerves in the digestive tract. This nerve pressure causes headaches, a dull, lazy feeling, bilious epine, loss of appetite and dizziness. SECOND: Partly digested food starts to decay forming GAS, bringing on sour stomach (acid indigestion), and heartburn, bloating you up until you sometimes gasp for breath.
 Then you spend many miserable days. You can't eat. You can't sleep. Your stomach is sour. You feel tired out, grouchy and miserable.
 To get the complete relief you seek you must do TWO things. 1. You must relieve the GAS. 2. You must clear the bowels and GET THAT PRESSURE OFF THE NERVES. As soon as offending wastes are washed out you feel miraculously refreshed, blues vanish, the world looks bright again.
 There is only one product on the market that gives you the DOUBLE ACTION you need. It is ADLERIKA. The efficient cumulative cathartic relieves that awful GAS at once. It often removes bowel congestion in half an hour. No waiting for overnight relief. Adlerika acts on the stomach and both bowels. Ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowel only.
 Adlerika has been recommended by many doctors and druggists for 25 years. No opening, no after-effects. Just QUICK results. Try Adlerika today. You'll say you have never used such an efficient intestinal cleanser.
WARNING!
 ALL REPUTABLE DRUGGISTS know that Adlerika has no substitute. Always DEMAND the genuine.

MEN, because they are men, can never understand a three-quarter wife—a wife who is all love and kindness three weeks in a month and a hell cat the rest of the time.
 No matter how your back aches—how your nerves scream—don't take it out on your husband.
