HARD ON LOU

My heart goes out to Light-weight Champion Lou Ambers, who will probably fight Featherweight King Henry Armstrong next year. Last Monday night in Cleveland, Ambers battled Frankie Wallace while Armstrong took on Tony Chavez. The bouts followed one another in the same ring.

It took Lou the full 10 rounds to decision Wallace. Armstrong knocked out his man in two minutes and four seconds, after Chavez had probably set a world's record by going to the canvas seven times in that short period. Tony look like a man taking setting up exercises. Ambers hardly reached the rubbing table before it was announced that the Hurricane had struck again, leaving the still carcass of Chavez in its wake.

For some time now, Ambers has been hearing the experts say that once they get in the same ring, Armstrong will be the new light-weight champion. Maybe he pooh-poohed their prophecies, for he had never been close enough to the danger in Henry's flailing fists to view them with the proper terror.

But Monday night it was different. He had a chance to see their effect from close-up. Only minutes separated their ring appearances. Ambers could watch from his dressing room the battered form of Chavez as it was carried past and whispers, "But for the grace of Allah, there goes Lou."

This, as I see it, makes it hard on Ambers. He may laugh and boast, but if and when he faces Armstrong, his mind is bound to return to last Monday night in Cleveland. The fear of Henry has been planted within. I say again my heart goes out to Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers, for I hate to see any man walk through life suffering agonizing tortures of the knowingly damned.

ODDS AND ENDS

Although Kenny Washington, University of California at Los Angeles football sensation, does not get credit for the longest forward pass on record, many football experts say his 62 yard heave in the Southern California game is the longest authentic completed touchdown aerial ever executed in college football. Brick Muller's famous toss for California against Ohio State in the 1921 Rose Bowl game has grown with the years to a total of 70 yards, but Muller himself says it was actually between 50 and 55 yards. The record books give the title to Brad Robinson of St. Louis who allegedly threw one 87 yards against Kansas in 1906, but there were no movie cameras to check the heave which may have been actually much shorter. Had it not been for the ameras, Washington's toss might have been recorded for posterity, as a 76 yard completion, so unreliable is the human eye.

Ed Burke, national indoor high jump champion for the past two years, is conducting a sports column for the Marguerite University Tribune. Oze Simmons, former Iowa sensation, was credited by white experts with being the outstanding player on the Paterson (N. J.) Panthers who claim the national independent pro football championship. Joe Lillard, last Negro gridster to play in the National professional league and more recently a halfback on Fritz Pollard's Brown Bombers, is now playing basketball with the touring Harlem Globe Trotters.

Joe Louis, who worked out down town on the Southside last week, had Chicago fistic experts elevating their eyebrows with his masterful boxing and seemingly tight defense against right hands. They are wondering however, whether he may have traded his merciless killings—power and instinct for mere cleverness. Wish the boys who pick their All Negro All Americans and select Bobby Lee of California as first team guard would remember that the first of November, Lee was demoted clean off the regular squad to the reserves.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 16 (ANP)—Sam Wurbarger, white, state athletic commissioner, was under fire this week as Garyites protested his attempts to bar Negroes from wrestling in the state. Only a restraining order issued by a local judge permitted Jack Claybourne, known as the Negro heavyweight champion, to meet Alex Kaffner, 218 pounder from Birmingham, in the feature of a card presented at the Memorial auditorium Tuesday night for the Judge Fletcher Christmas fund to aid the city's needy.

Plans to hold the charity affair had been made when it was learned that Wurbarger had turned thumbs down on the Claybourne-Kaffner match because "it is the policy of the state athletic commission to refuse permission to colored athletes to wrestle in the state of Indiana in mixed matches." However, both athletes involved are Negroes.

A long distance call put in by the editor of the Gary American, local weekly to the commissioner's office at Indianapolis brought confirmation of the statement, with the added assertion that neither Claybourne nor any other colored wrestler would be permitted to show his wares in Gary. The restraining order was then obtained.

In an extra edition, the American pointed to the segregation practiced by the guards at Dumas State park last summer in which a party of Gary and Chicago social workers were banned from swimming, and urged Indiana citizens to demand of Governor Townsend that he immediately remove Wurbarger from his state position.

Nashville Daily Urges Anti-Lynching Bill

New York, Dec. 16—Among the many clippings received here by the N. A. A. C. P., urging passage of a federal anti-lynching law is one from the Nashville, Tenn., Tennessean for December 7 which declares: "In this instance (fighting the wages and hours bill) as in the case of the anti-lynching bill, southern senators and congressmen have not displayed that brand of enlightened statesmanship the nation—including the South—has the right to ask of them."

"The wages and hours bill should have been voted on at the regular session. Anti-lynching legislation should have been voted on years ago. For a southerner to say less after all these years of inveighing against the evils these measures are designed to correct would mark him a whited sepulchre before his own conscience."

Hoping to fill in where many have left off, this column intends giving you the most accurate listings, plus commentaries, of radio features of interest to the race in particular.

Your scribe suggests you follow these columns regularly with radio scheduling as it is. Time period changes and new broadcasts coming to the air simultaneously filling the vacancy left by others will necessitate your continual reference.

All time shown is Eastern Standard. Subtract one hour for Central Standard Time; two hours for Mountain Standard Time; and three hours for Pacific Standard Time.

CALLOWAY, CAB—CBS—Sunday, 11:30 p. m. and Thursday, 11 p. m. (Cotton Club) If a sudden spurt of sensational tenor sax with Cab should send you, be it known that Choo Berry, now of Calloway caliber, is the sender.

DOUGLAS, TOMMY—KXBY (1530 k.)—Niteley, 1 a. m. (Antlers Club, Kansas City). Here's a high-powered, prize packet of 'jivin' jamsters that can certainly lay it in the groove. Doing duty recently at the Trianon Ballroom in Regina, Canada, the boys went over as whiz bang wows, making those Canadian cats "mew" for more.

ELDRIDGE, ROY—WBBM (770 k.)—Niteley except Saturday, 1:15 a. m. (Three Duces, Chicago).

GOODMAN, BENNY—CBS—Tuesday 10 p. m.; Wednesday 11 p. m.; Saturday 11:30 p. m.; MBS—Thursday 12 midnite (Hotel Penn, NYC)

St. Louis Citizens Win School Fight

St. Louis, Dec. 16—Judge Robert J. Kirkwood on December 6 granted a permanent injunction against the board of education preventing it from erecting a 17 room elementary school building in the yard of the Vashon high school here.

The plan of the school board was opposed by the N. A. A. C. P. branch and many other Negro organizations on the ground that the new school would further crowd an already crowded school area.

The school board turned a deaf ear to petitions and arguments so legal action was necessary. Vashon high school is one of the two high schools for Negroes in St. Louis. Henry Armstrong, national feather weight champion, is a graduate of Vashon.

The citizens were represented by Attorneys George L. Vaughn, S. R. Redmond and Robert L. Witherpoon. The court costs were financed by the St. Louis N. A. A. C. P. and the Civic Cooperative League.
