BAHA'I NEWS SERVICE Article No. 2

In this second article of a series about the Baha'i Faith it would be well to find out just what the word means, where it comes from and what it symbolizes. The word "Baha" is from the Persian, and means light or glory. From this it follows that "Baha'i" means a fol-

The Baha's Revelation claims not to destroy or belittle previous Revelations but to connec,t, unify, and fulfill them; therein lies the strength of the unity of the Faith. It discards all the man-made theologies that have grown up around the teachings of the Prophets of God and seeks to make clear and alive to all men the basic spiritual laws. A Christian minister not long ago remarked that it is time to discard the religion about Jesus and seek to find and live the religion of Jesus. That is what the Baha'i Faith is helping humanity to do. The millions of Baha'is scattered over forty countries of the globe have come into this Faith from practically every known religion. In the Orient in particular, that hotbed of religious animosity, it has united men and women of all races and all religions.
