BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. T. J. Sanford, Pastor
J. S. Jefferson, Reporter
Sunday school was called to at 9:45 with the superintendent present. The subject for discussion was in Mark 2:12-22, "Challenging the Social Order." The boys and girls seemed very inspired over the lesson and took great interest in the discussion. Everyone is working to make our Sunday school one of the best.

Rev. Sanford took the stand at 11:00. His text was found in Luke 16:28-42, "But one thing is needful and Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken from her." Everyone listened patiently while he expounded his word. We were very glad to welcome Sister Alberta Michael and Sister Magg's Roundtree back to our services after a long spell of illness. Sister Saunders is still on the sick list, and also Miss Thelma Louis of 673 No. 45th street, underwent an operation and is still in the hospital. A large number of visitors were present in the morning services. Among them were Mrs. Lillian Peace of Zionchurch.

All of our clubs are getting busy to make this year's work a success. Rev. Sanford is very much pleased with the actions. There will be an Allen's Day program rendered at Bethel Sunday, February 13.

We are always welcoming visitors to Bethel. Come and worship with us. Don't forget our prayer and class meeting every Wednesday evening.

INTERDOMINATIONAL CHURCH
Rev. W. I. Irving, Pastor
Mrs. P. V. Avant, Reporter
The church that stands for the unity of God's children as a standard of Christian fellowship. Sunday school is being nicely conducted by Miss Marcee Purkins. Morning services were very good. The pastors sermon was very deep and awakening in the practical things of religion. Evening services conducted by Sister Gorum. Bible Forum meets Thursdays at 7 p. m. at the church. Come and hear these wonderful discussions. RUMMAGE STORE, 2621 Grant Street

METROPOLITAN CHURCH
Rev. R. W. Johnson, Pastor
Sis. M. Redd, Reporter
Sunday was another great day at Metropolitan. The five o'clock holy communion service was wonderful. It was wonderful to see a packed house out so early to serve the Lord. Truly they must love Him. Many souls were revived and uplifted by the way. Evangelist Gorr conducted the services. Sunday school started promptly with the superintendent, Sis. Mitchell. The children were all in their places. Text, "Christian Rest," St. Matt. 11th chapter. Morning service started at its usual time. Since Evangelist Gorr stated that all pastor's should fill their own pulpits on Sunday morning our pastor brought the message. Subject, "I Will See His Face." Gen. 32nd chapter and 20th verse. It is a wonderful thing to be able to say I will see His face. If we desire to see His face we will have to live close to Him. Who wouldn't want to see the face of the Master who said, "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." One who can feed you when you are hungry, comfort you when you are burdened. One who said, "I will be with you always, even unto the end of the world."

3 o'clock service found the church filling with people. The service was uplifting to everyone. Many deacons from neighboring churches came to have their souls revived by the holy spirit. The Lord took complete charge of the service. Those that came in sorrow were able to leave saying deep down in their souls happy am I. Union was very good for learning more about the Bible. The classes were in their places. The program was very nice. Come to Union and learn the Bible. Evening service found the house full. Their wasn't enough room to seat all the people. Some were turned away. The sermon was by Evangelist Gorr. It was taken from St. Luke. 18th chapter, 1st verse. Subject, "Men Ought to Always Pray and Not to Faint." It is wonderful to be able to pray and to know that it will be answered. Since God sometimes tries our faith it pays us to always continue in prayer. For there is power in prayer and prayer does change things. Prayer is the key to the kingdom and faith unlocks the door.

There were three souls added to the church roll. Just a few days left, so don't fail to hear this wonderful speaker. Many souls are being added to the church and we expect to have a great baptising soon if the weather permits. Come early if you expect to get a seat. Come where you will feel at home and be with your friends.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Stevenson, Pastor
Mrs. M. E. Dixon, Reporter
Due to the illness of the reporter we have no church notes. Don't forget the Inter club Musical, sponsored by the Everloyal club, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon February 13. The following Negro History program being sponsored by the young people's group promises to be quite informing. Organ Prelude by Miss Christine Dixon. Invocation. Music, Negro National Anthem. Introduction of speakers in Who's Who by the president, Miss Hattie Crump. Leader Miss Grover Marshall and speakers as follows: Miss Ella Mae Mills. Mr. Travis Dixon, Miss Mary Lillian Harris, Mr. Roy Gordon. Music by choir. Introduction of principal speaker, Atty. John Adams. Solo by Mr. Foster Goodlett.

NEW HOPE BAPT. CHURCH
Rev. J. T. Carter, Pastor
Mrs. Ganner, Reporter
The New Hope Baptist church is progressing nicely under its newly elected pastor, Rev. J. T. Carter. The pastor delivered an inspiring sermon at 11 o'clock using as a text, Hebrew 5th chapter, 11th verse. Subject, "Hidden from Death." Everyone was thrilled with the spirit.

At 8 p. m. the pastor ascended the pulpit to deliver his message from Roman the 8th chapter and 11th verse. Subject, "The Power and Work of the Spirit." The clubs that are putting on a rally for the rebuilding of the church, will have a sermonette rally Sunday, February 13 at 3 p. m. Sermons will be preached by the young ministers of the Ministers Alliance. The public is cordially invited to come and enjoy this soul's treat. The pastor will use as his Sunday morning's sermon, Luke the 15th chapter 18-19 verses. Subject, "The Youth Returning to God." The public is invited to come and hear the pastor deliver this wonderful message.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
Clarinda, Iowa
Sunday school opened at its usual hour with Miss Rachel Cason presiding. All had a wonderful lesson and the program last Sunday evening given by the Sunday school, was a great success. The pastor was absent on account of the weather last Sunday. Morning services were in high and the pastor brought forth a doctrine message which was enjoyed by all. In the afternoon the Second Baptist church visited Calvary Baptist church in Red Oak, Ia., in the sixth anniversary of their pastor, Rev. Adams of Omaha was master of ceremonies. Rev. Nicholson brought forth a powerful message. Evening service was in high and the communion service was held. The third Sunday in this month will be a great day in Clarinda. Come one and all and witness the Tribe program at the Second Baptist church.
Rev. D. Nicholson, Pastor

PLEASANT GREEN CHURCH
Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Pastor
Willa Mae Ross Reporter
Sunday school 9:00 o'clock with Supt. Mrs. I. M. Oliver, presiding Sunday February 6 was examination Sunday. The school was tested on what they had learned in the Sunday school for the month of January. Present, 72. You are welcome to our Sunday school. Morning worship 11 o'clock with pastor presiding, prayer for the sick by Deacon Mitchell. A lovely covenant meeting was held for about an hour. Everyone enjoyed the meeting. Visitors, Mr. James Johnson and Miss Hatfield. Evening worship 8:00 p. m. with Rev. H. St. Clair presiding. It was requested that Rev. Union sing a solo. Title, "He Understand." He preached a very inspiring sermon. Subject "Dead List." It was enjoyed by all. Visitors Mr. and Mrs. Brown. You are welcome to attend Pleasant Green Baptist church.

JUNIOR CHURCH
Dorothy Ross, Reporter
The Junior church held its regular monthly meeting, Sunday, February 6, at 3:30 p. m. The guest speaker was Bro. Richard Bass of Cleaves Temple church. His subject was "Love." It was inspiring. Attendance was good. Mrs. Warrick and Mr. Faulkner, directors. The Sunday school of Mt. Nebo was well attended. The lesson was very interestingly taught and the interest of the children was held to the last verse. Sunday was Covenant meeting and the spirit was felt throughout the congregation. The BYPU was enlightened to the highest and most spiritual peak Sunday evening under the new president's direction. Rev. J. A. Harris. Our study of the Bible verses stirs great enthusiasm and study. Rev. Gates preached a very interesting and inspiring sermon. He used as his subject, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." Taken from the 36th verse of St. Luke. His text was "Having Found No Fault in this Man." Everyone enjoyed the sermon. The Lord's Supper was issued Sunday night. Rev. L. C. Crawford of Zion visited Mt. Nebo Sunday night. Visitors are always welcome.

MT. OLIVE CHURCH
Rev. J. P. Mosley, Pastor
Mrs. Lenora Parker, Reporter
Sunday school opened at 10 o'clock. Miss Lenora Wilson superintendent. At 11 a. m. testimonial meeting was held and everyone witnessed the presence of the Holy Spirit. At 6 p. m. the BYPU opened and was at its best. The True and Tried group rendered a program that was enjoyed by all. Rev. Bloods preached a wonderful sermon. Text was found in St. John 17th chapter. The Mission Circle will have a program and preaching on the second Sunday. Those on the sick list are Sis. Mary Boulding and Bro. Leroy Thomas. Bro. Thomas is at the St. Joseph hospital suffering from a fractured rib. The church is praying for their speedy recovery. Misses Rosa Jensen, Beatrice Burden and Mrs. Mattie Stewart were the unknown ladies who represented Mt. Olive in the style show. Mrs. Mattie Stewart had charge of the Mt. Olive representatives. Visitors are welcome to worship with us.

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH
Rev. L. M. Relf, Pastor
Mrs. Edna Pankey, Reporter
Sunday, February 6, Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. with a large attendance and an interesting lesson found in St. Mark 2:13-22. Subject, "The Willing Workers Challenging the Social Order." We were very glad to welcome back our pastor, who has been visiting for the past week in Kansas City and Chicago. Rev. Relf preached an inspiring sermon from Roman 1:16. Subject, "For I Am Not Ashamed of the Gospel of Christ." The sermon afforded food for thought. At the 3:00 p. m. service we were favored with a sermon from Rev. Conwell of Clair Chapel church. The subject of the sermon, "Obedience is Better Sacrifice." It was well appreciated by the congregation. The evening service was conducted by our beloved Bishop Holman of Los Angeles, Calif. His text was found, St. John 11:28. Subject "The Master Is Come and Callet." The sermon was enjoyed by all present. Come out and worship with us. Visitors are always welcome.

MT. MORIAH BAPT. CHURCH
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
F. Burroughs, Reporter
Attendance was good throughout the day. The pastor brought to the congregation a stirring message, the subject of which was "Jesus Offered for Sale." At the evening worship we again listened to another good sermon on "The Blood of Jesus." After the sermon the Lord's Supper was observed. The BYPU had a fair attendance and a good program was given by the adult group. Of special interest was the playlet "The Bible." The moral it sought to portray is a much needed one. Three persons Mrs. A. Hatcher, Mrs. E. C Hill and Miss Eloise Devereaux made the "on time" goal. Looks like someone is going to win those candy bars. The sick are Mesdames Davidson, Watson, Beck, Wade and Long. We are asking God to strengthen and heal these persons if it is His will. To the many visitors we extend a cordial welcome. Your presence is an inspiration to us. In conclusion we call your attention to Matthew 17:26, "For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"
