F. T.—My son and his wife keep me upset all the time. I want to know if she has got him messed up or not and please let me know what to do.
Ans: They are just having a few spats that will amount to little or nothing as time goes on. Your daughter-in law has not caused your son any trouble of any kind and the less you see of them both the better off they will be. Don't take sides with either of them for they are both in the wrong.

S. Y.—My stepfather is in the bed sick and he talks out of his head all the time and I wonder if someone on the job underminded him. Let me know as soon as possible what we should do?
Ans: Get a doctor and do so immediately. No one has tried to harm him.....he has just allowed himself to get in a run down condition and is the victim of sickness right now.

B. M. O. D.—Is my husband dealing fair with me like he says that I am having done and will it be a success?
Ans: You have nothing to fear.....your husband is just as true to you right now as he was the first week of your marriage. Don't put too much faith in the work that you are having done.....it can't help you too much.

C. B.—Please tell me if you think it is wise for me to leave my wife? It seems that we are always nagging at each other and it just drives me to do wrong.

Ans: Life is much too short to go through it in a 'stew' all of the time. Talk the matter over with your wife tactfully and carefully and see if there isn't something that can be done. If not.....then use your own judgment about leaving.

I. T.—Does the boy I am going with mean me any good and tell me about the boy that I used to go with?
Ans: This boy doesn't care any more about you than your ex-boy friend. You will find yourself jilted again in a few months so don't allow yourself to think too much of the boys you go around with. Your ex-friend will never mean anything more to you.

P. W.—Is this job the one for me to take? Can I get my Astrology Reading from you now?
Ans: The job is just exactly what you have been looking forward to for the past three years.....or, infact, ever since you began your study as an undertaker. Take it by all means. Yes, if you will send a quarter you may secure one of my Astrology Readings and opinions on three questions. Be sure to send birthdate and correct name and address.

E. H. C.—I am married and have four children but my health is so very bad. Would I be doing wrong to do what I have in mind?
Ans: Absolutely not.....arrange to go into New Orleans right away for the series of treatments that you have in mind to take. You won't ever get better until you do receive treatment for this condition. Do something right away.

Senate. The opponents of the anti-lynching bill, however, through Senator Connally of Texas, let it be known that they would filibuster against such a motion if it were to be brought up and thus delay consideration of the relief bill.
Just before the vote was taken, Senator George W. Norris, of Nebraska, stated that he believed that passage of the anti-lynching bill would reopen old Civil war wounds between the north and south, and that all people would be worse off than they had been before. He said he thought the south did well with the Negro problem and that the government ought not to do anything except allow the south to solve it.

Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, 2120 1/2 No. 24th street, was hostess to the Utopia club Wednesday afternoon. Twelve guests were present.

Mrs. H. Vawter was hostess to a group of friends at a delightful bridge luncheon, Monday, at her home, 1716 No. 28th street.
Prizes were won by Mrs. I. S. McPherson and Mrs. Viola Lennox. Mrs. Carrie Jewel won the booby prize.

The seventh birthday of Mrs. Marguerite Herald's daughter, Darling Marie was celebrated by a party of 12 children. Games were played and a birthday lunch was served.
She received many gifts.

Washington, D. C. Mar. 3.—Senate attaches have estimated that the total cost of the anti-lynching filibuster was $460,000, which sum includes salaries, overhead and printing of the Senate.

The World's featherweight champion, Henry Armstrong is still going strong. He knocked out Charley Burns of Johnston, Pa. in the second round of a ten round bout. It was Armstrong's 34th K. O. He took some of the fight off the stake. Armstrong weighed 122 lbs.

desirable surroundings and recreational opportunities for both children and adults at a most reasonable price.
So attractive has this project proven that in 18 days over half of the 284 apartments have been leased, 44 of whom are Negroes. A group who captured history making records in wholesale migration, that of being the first to register; first to sign a lease and first to officially occupy an apartment in the beautiful Logan Fontenelle Homes. The principals in this history making epoch were Mrs. Esther Hicks, first to register; Mr. Granville Campbell first to sign a lease and Mr. J. R. Taylor first to occupy an apartment. We are now looking forward to the one who will mark the last to sign a lease.

STATEMENTS

Mr. Sam Howell, Manager
The manager who is the modest man about the project had little to say, however from his facial expression it could be plainly seen that he was overjoyed to know that he was the power behind the throne in bringing about this much needed and worthy project.
Mr. Ouren, Ass't Manager.
"We are proud of our applicants who are moving in today. We have 110 families who seemingly are thankful for their new homes." He further stated, "We want more applicants for our new homes as soon as possible."
Mr. Dodd, Bulder.
"We know we have completed our work and done a good job."
Tenants.
"This is the happiest day of my life. I was reared in Omaha and this is the first modern home that I have had the privilege to live in."
"It is good luck to move in when it's raining."

This Week in Thought and Religion

By Robert L. Moody
The World' Day of Prayer

We are mindful that we are told to "pray without ceasing." It is also true that all real devout people live in a prayerful mood. But March 4 is designated as the "World's Day of Prayer. Every kindred, tribe and nation is called upon to send up (1) praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His great mercy and blessing to us; and (2) to ask His guidance and protection in a world that is lost in the fog of doubts, fears, wars and turmoil. Now is the time in which we may be like Abraham, when the angels warned him of the destruction of Sodom. Our nations are so filled with strife, sin and selfishness that the "elect" must intercede that God withhold His wrath and extend mercy. "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." Jas. 5:10.

The gospel that we, Christians, believe and witness is a Missionary gospel. It is glad tidings of peace to all men. This promised peace is not one that delivers mere social and economic strife and warfare; it is peace with God. One who is justified by faith thereby having peace with God, has peace and makes peace with his fellowmen. This social peace with his fellows is the fruit of the great source—"Peace with God."

So while we joined our brethren through the world, let us pray that He—who is the way, the truth and the life; He that is the light of the world—reveal His will to all who will receive and believe Him. For all of the prison bound, the bed-ridden, the war stricken, poor, hungry, sin-sick souls of earth, we pray, "To Him be glory, dominion and power forever."

Atty. Chas F. Davis, state chairman of the Negro Division of Democrats for the state of Nebraska and Mr. Johnny Owen, Ass't State Chairman and Bronze Mayor of Omaha were the principals in two County appointments Tuesday morning. Mr. Davis having been appointed to a position in the office of the County Recorder of Deeds and Mr. Owens receiving an appointment in the office of the County Assessor.
