E. L. J.—I want my husband so bad and I want to know if there is any way in the world for me to get him back again?
Ans: Why don't you arrange to visit him and see just what his idea is concerning your marriage. You really should come to some kind of understanding right away and not continue to go through life like you are doing. Either live with him or give him up altogether and find someone else to make you happy.

J. W.—I am worried. All of my girl friends are married but I am not. There are two boys that seem to like me but I am undecided. What is left for me to do?
Ans: Forget marriage for a while. If you will wait a better longer you will stand a better chance of making a desirable match. Keep yourself looking nice and you will be married before you are 25. I must add that you will be better off financially than the few friends that you have in mind.

W. J.—Will I be able to get my brother's insurance? Will my luck change to be better this year?
Ans: Don't depend on getting your brother's insurance.

for disappointment lies ahead for you. Someone else that meant something to him will no doubt get it. Nothing is wrong with your luck, you need to find better employment.

P. L.—Will I get the job that I made the trip to see about some few weeks ago?
Ans: I have every reason to believe that you will be called to work before the fifteenth of March. Write them again..... keep right after this job for once you are employed you won't ever have to worry again.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The Membership effort began with a grand "Take Off" on Wednesday, March 2. Mrs. Thelma Hancock gave pilots and their crews inspiration to make a successful flight. Since taking off, Mrs. Earl Wheeler, general traffic manager, has received signals from four of the pilots. Pilot Zella Broadus, flying the Spirit of St. Louis, leads the way having progressed five miles and reports visibility clear with a strong wind from the rear. She hopes to reach the destination ahead of scheduled time if no bad weather interferes. Other pilots heard from are Susie Yancy, Vera Cowan and Essie Porter. Will the other pilots please answer the signal of the general traffic manager. If your navigator has not arrived kindly report to field manager, Vera Price.

The Vesper Service and Tea sponsored by the Trojan club under the supervision of Worship Committee, Helena Thomas, chairman Social Committee, Ester Essex, chairman, was a very successful affair. The service was opened by chairman Helena Thomas, followed by announcements given by the executive secretary, Mrs. Gladys A. Pullum and invocation was delivered by Mrs. Herbert Wiggins. The reader was Ella Mills Shadow Pictures of Lenten scenes leading toward the crucifixion was portrayed by Mrs. L. C. Crawford. Marguerite Curry and Ferwilda Artison, and choral responses by the Trojan chorus. Tea was served following the Vesper.

CHURCH BEGINS PROGRAM FOR GREATER SERVICES

The New Hope Baptist church, located at 26th and Seward streets has begun a program for greater and better services. The program will be launched on March 20. It will be headed by Edward W. Beasley, jr., the young minister who recently arrived from Detroit Michigan.

The program will consist of three major factors: (1) Building. (2) Uniform Bible Study, and (3) Christian Growth.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH Clarinda, Iowa

Rev. D. Neholson, Pastor
The Second Baptist Sunday school was opened with the superintendent presiding. The Sunday school had a nice attendance.

Morning service was enjoyed by all. The pastor preached an inspiring sermon, "Christian Living." Communion was taken.

Afternoon service was enjoyed by all. Miss Gertrude Lucas was a guest of the church. She brought a very interesting paper on, "Preparing the Youth for the Pitfalls of Life." The message was enjoyed by all. The Gateway quartette was also present. Their songs were enjoyed to the highest. Rev. Reagan brought the evening message. "The Good Samaritan." We were inspired by the message. Come to Clarinda and the Second Baptist church. You are always welcome.

The Ladies Friendship club had the first chattering supper for this season, at the home of Mrs. M. McDonald, 2815 Ohio. A prize was given to the one that sold the most tickets. The winner being Mrs. M. Burns.
