CHURCH NEWS

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor

Sunday school opened at 9:30. A large number was present. Quite a bit of interest was manifested in the study of the lesson and many helpful thoughts derived.

At 11 o'clock the pastor preached a very inspirational sermon. His subject was, "Contrasting the present suffering with revealed glory of the Christian." Short testimonial services preceded the sermon. The senior choir sang several inspirational numbers which added much spirit to the service.

BYPU opened at 6:30. At 8 p. m. the pastor preached from Acts 3:6. His subject was, "Some Elements in Christian Service." One central thought from this sermon was, no one can do Christian service unless he is a Christian.

PARADISE BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Hervey, Pastor

Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. with the superintendent presiding. The lesson was reviewed by Mrs. M. E. Hill.

At 11:00 o'clock the pastor brought to us a wonderful sermon. BYPU opened at 6 p. m. A lovely program was presented by the women's group. Some that appeared on the program were Mrs. Trip-let and Mrs. Cooper of Pleasant Green Baptist church. Also Miss Rebecca Ashley. Next Sunday the program will be rendered by the men's group.

At 8:30 the pastor brought to us another inspiring message. Subject, "A Strange Light" text, Acts 9:5. "Who art thou, Lord?" Among the many visitors morning and night, was Rev. Henderson, Rev. Tucker, Rev. McCrary and Rev. Bledsoe.

The Union Mission will have a mass meeting Sunday at 3 p. m. You are cordially invited to attend.

ARE YOU ONLY A THREE-QUARTER WIFE?

MEN, because they are men, can never understand a three-quarter wife—a wife who is all love and kindness three weeks in a month and a hell cat the rest of the time.

No matter how your back aches—how your nerves scream—don't take it out on your husband.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three or four years of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. G. E. Stevenson, Pastor

Sunday school was at the usual hour, 9:30.

Morning service was well attended. The pastor filled the pulpit. Quite a number of visitors were present. We are always happy to have visitors.

BYPU devotions and program was conducted by Group No. 1. At the absence of the president, Mr. Dancus, Mrs. McCloud our vice president presided.

The funeral of Edward White, who has a host of relatives in our church was held Monday morning from the Lewis Funeral home. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

The play, "The House on the Sand" will be presented Thursday evening, March 10 at 8 o'clock.

The Calendar Luncheon sponsored by the Heart to Heart club, March 17 promises to be a lovely affair. Tables will be decorated to represent each month. A renewal of the Bible class taught recently by our pastor, Rev. Stevenson, will begin Thursday, March 10 at 8 o'clock. You will be benefited by attending this class.

The Young People's group of the church will conduct a forum Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The principal topic is "Christian Conception of Old and Young in Regard to Better Appreciation of the Meaning and Value of Worship." Sub-topics to this is (1) Getting an experience of prayer that is vital, (2) The extent to which Jesus' teachings can be applied in the life today, (3) True and false standard of success.

Those taking part in the discussion are: Misses Bernice Grice, Ora Lee Britt, Ella Mae Mills and Mr. Harold Reynolds. Come and give your ideas of these topics.

MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor
Helen Bradshaw, Reporter

The Sunday school of Mt. Nebo was opened at the usual time with Supt. Bro. Conner presiding. Brother Garner of Bethel was an honored guest. He taught the intermediate class a very interesting lesson. The subject of which was, "Serving with What We Have." General lesson text, Mark 6:1-13. The Golden text was, "Such as I ask I give thee," Acts 3:6.

The church was full of spirit. BYPU was one of great interest. The evening services were very spiritual. The pastor's text was "We'll Go By the Kinks Highway." His subject was the "The King's Highway."

There were many new visitors Sunday. Mrs. Mann of Zion, Mr. Jack Wafford, Rev. Banks and Mrs. Elinkseale and Mrs. Walker of the Church of God in Christ. All are invited to come and worship with us.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Pettis, Pastor
Connie Harris, Reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:30 with the superintendent presiding. Mrs. Lambroth gave a splendid preview of the lesson.

At 11:00 a. m. Rev. Pettis gave us an inspiring sermon. His text was Mark 5:18-19.

BYPU opened at 5:30 p. m. with the president presiding. The program was presented by Group No. 1. Our BYPU was very lively.

At 8:00 o'clock Rev. Anderson presented the sermon. His text was found in Galatians 5:1.

Our prayer meeting is very successfully established. Wednesday night we are expecting a very large crowd.

Visitors are always welcome at Salem.

The Church of the Living God Mission had their regular meeting at the home of the vice president and reporter, Sis. M. Steele, 2301 No. 27th street, with the president in charge. Committees made their report. We have several sick among us. On March 12 there will be a fish supper at Sis. Steele's, 2301 No. 27th street. Everyone is invited to come. The Mission is having their big rally Sunday, March 20 at 3 o'clock. We are asking all our friends to help us. The hostess served a nice repast after which we were dismissed. For place of our next meeting call our president, AT 6248.

Sis. M. Wright, President.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. J. T. Carter, Pastor
Sis. Gunnar, Reporter

The New Hope Baptist church services were high with the spirit all day.

Sunday school opened at 9:30 with the lesson taught by Bro. Bailey.

Rev. Carter, the pastor, ascended the pulpit at 11:30 to deliver his sermon from Revelations 7:7. Oh, how our hearts burned while he talked with us by the way.

Service was resumed at 3:00 to close out the rally. Rev. Edward Beasley preached the closing sermon in Rev. Adams place, which was very inspiring and enjoyed by all.

The receipts were as follows for the rally:
Club No. 1, Bro. Beasley, $5.50;
Club No. 2, Sis. Gunnar, $10.51;
Club No. 3, Sis. Williams, 10.25;
Club No. 4, Sis. Carter, $3.00 and
Club No. 5, Sis. Hill, making a total of $37.76.

The church is prospering greatly under the leadership of the new pastor, Rev. J. T. Carter. We are praying for the cooperation of the pastors and churches of the city. We mean to be a grace to the New Era Baptist Association under the leadership of our pastor of Zion Baptist church, Rev. Curry.

Rev. Adams of Pilgrim delivered a wonderful message for the night service. He was had of the rally. He preached from John 9:4. The message was greatly enjoyed by all.

To the Girl Who's Lonely and Wants
A DATE TONIGHT

If your hair is streaked, iron-scorched or grey, that's probably the reason you're home alone tonight. But don't waste the evening in longing—go right down to your dealer and get a bottle of Godefroy's L'arieuse. In a few minutes it'll color your hair to a beautiful, even shade—(comes in black, brown or blonde)—giving it the lustre that attracts men like moths to a flame.

MT. MORIAH BAPT. CHURCH
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor

The spirit came in the morning worship, filling our many, souls with joy. We listened to a beautiful sermon on the subject, "Patience." The sermon stressed those qualities that go to make up this virtue. After this sermon, Rev. George White prayed from out the depths of his soul.

At the evening worship covenant meeting was observed and each Christian that so desired spoke his own testimony. After this the Lord's Supper was administered. Again the spirit came and filled many hearts.

Mrs. F. P. Jones, who has been in the hospital, is now convalescing at her home, 2422 Ohio St. March 17, the Helping Hand club is giving a St. Patrick Banquet and Musical. The public is invited. The Willing Workers club is giving a Feast in the Wilderness and Donkey party.

Among the visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Price, Joe Ellington, Mrs. Beulah McBey, Mrs. Dorsey, Mr. Bradford and Mr. Parker.

To the many visitors throughout the day we extend a cordial welcome. Your presence is an inspiration to us.
