QUACK CLUB

New officers for the Quack club will be elected Friday, May 27.

The Quacks are making plans for the spring dance which will take place June 20. Mrs. Bernice Marshall, the Quack's bi-annual delegate, gave her report, which was very interesting and educational. A few added remarks were made by Mrs. Gladys Pullum.

Ione Jones, President
Willie Jake, Reporter

Well, hello everybody! The much talked about "Esquires Club" made its debut into the limelight of society Friday, May 20, by giving an opening party. All who attended claim it a great success. It was given at the home of the honorary president, Lloyd Neal, 2725 Maple street.

This is a club to watch from here on, for it has a promising career.

Among the officers are: Edward Hicks, vice president; David Longmire, secretary; Spencer Jacobs, Treasurer; Emory Turner, sergeant-at-arms; under him, Harold McNeal, Melvin Downing and Roscoe Smith. The "ace reporter" is yours truly, David King, with Louie Whitner and Lee Averett.

Well, it's time to go and gather the fruits of my work. Be back next week with more news. Your ace reporter bidding one and all adios!

THRIFTY 12 ART CLUB

The Thrifty Twelve Art club met Tuesday, May 17, at the home of Mrs. Fannie Lee, 5517 South Thirty-first street. The Housing Project was one of the topics discussed during the meeting. Every one was quite busy with their needlework. Miss Addie Foxall was added to the membership of the club. Get busy club members, as there will be two birthdays in June and one in July. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Our next meeting will be held May 31 at the home of Mrs. Pearl Lee.

Miss Dorothy Hayes, 943 North Twenty-fifth street, has been confined to her home on account of illness, but is reported improving at the time.

Miss Bernice Hill, 943 No. Twenty-fifth street, who has been ill, is much improved.

'Y' Notes

On Sunday afternoon, May 22 at 4:30 p. m., about 40 members of the Northside Branch gathered to hear the reports from the Biennial Convention and to honor the new members taken in during the drive. The report was given in the form of a round table discussion which was led by Mrs. Gladys Pullum, the branch executive, and one of the delegates to the convention. Other delegates participating were Mrs. Lois Goode, chairman of the committee of management, Mrs. Bernice Marshall, worship chairman of the Quack club and Mrs. Edna Carr, president of the Trojan club.

Following the reports, the membership committee, with Mrs. Susie Yancy in charge, served punch and cookies. She was assisted by Mrs. Viola Pierce and Mrs. R. C. Price, who made the delicious cakes.

The Booklovers club had its last review of the season Thursday, May 19 with Mrs. Thelma Hancock reviewing the book and Miss Jennie Robinson giving the life of the author. The club plans to close with an outing in June. Mrs. Vera Cowen was elected president and Mrs. Delores Blackwell, secretary for the incoming year. The committee in charge of the closing is Mrs. Lois Goode, chairman, Mrs. Thelma Hancock, Mrs. Mary Fraizer and Mrs. Delores Blackwell.

The class in "Today's Problems" closed Thursday, May 26th. There has been much interest manifested in these discussions which have been sponsored by the Public Affairs Committee of which Mrs. John A. Williams is chairman.

The YWCA is conducting a "Stay-at-home camp" for girls beginning Monday, June 13 and ending Friday, July 15. There are many girls in Omaha who will not be able to take a vacation, so a camp at the "Y" is planning the nearest thing possible to a holiday or camp vacation.

The campers will include both grade and high school girls who will have an opportunity to work together and separately according to their interest. There are skillful leaders who have been secured to help girls have the best and happiest summer that they have ever had.

The camp will be only three days a week.

The Junior Matrons of St. John AME church are sponsoring the "Black Ace" a drama in three acts which was presented by the Girl Reserve Department of the Northside YWCA a few weeks ago. This is a repeat performance.

Cleverettes Hold
Swanky Dance

One of the biggest social events of the spring season was given Monday night, May 23, in Council Bluffs, Ia., by one of the most popular clubs in Iowa, the Cleverettes. This club is composed of nothing but charming ladies, who receive their guests with million dollar smiles.

The dance was given at the beautiful Crystal Lodge, located 30th and Fifth avenue, only a few steps from the Missouri river. Lloyd Hunter and his Rhythm Kings played for the dance.

Kyles and Red Rivers were the masters of ceremonies. Over one hundred guests from Omaha attended the dance. Beautiful gowns and styles of all kinds were on display. Miss Jean Spinks is president of the club and Inez Willis, secretary.

RETURNS FROM VACATION

Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor of the Mt. Moriah Baptist church, has just returned from his vacation. He visited in Louisiana and other popular cities of the sunny south. He spent three weeks visiting relatives and friends throughout the south. He reports having had a very delightful trip and vacation.

WORLD YOUTH CONGRESS
TO MEET AT COLLEGE

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 25 (C. N. A.)—Youth delegations from 48 foreign countries will attend the Second World Youth Congress here at Vassar College. Joseph Gadden, chairman of the arrangements committee, announced. The prime task of the Congress will be to formulate a program of educational activities that national committees will use as a guide in their efforts to assist the youth.

POPE PIUS RECOGNIZES
FASIST GOVERNMENT

Vatican City, May 25 (CNA)—Pope Pius has formally recognized the Fascist Government of Franco in Spain. Catholic supporters of the Loyalist government expressed keen disappointment and indicated that the Pope's position did not truly reflect the sentiment of the average communist.

75th Anniversary of Freedom of Negro to Take Place In 1940

A gigantic jubilee celebration marking the 75th Anniversary of the freedom of the American Negro which will take place in Detroit, Michigan, in 1940 was officially launched this week as Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan accepted the chairmanship of a Nationwide Committee Friday. The jubilee which will assume the proportions of a World's Fair at a cost of $500,000 which has been virtually assured by the state and Federal Governments, will be known as "Seventy-Five Years of Negro Progress."

The rise of the American Negro will be graphically portrayed in ten thousands exhibits that will represent every aspect of Negro progress in the last three quarters of a century. The history celebration will be enhanced by the meeting of the Sesquicentennial Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Detroit at the same time.

The acceptance of the chairmanship of the Nation Committee by the Honorable Frank Murphy of Michigan last week was the culmination of the efforts of a group of Detroit leaders among whom are Dr. George Baber, Local Chairman, Moses L. Walker, Treasurer; Senator Charles C. Diggs, Attorney; Charles H. Mahoney, John C. Daney; Wilbur Woodson, the Reverend William H. Peck; Attorney Charles Roxborough, the Rev. R. L. Bradley, Carlton Gaines, Louis Emanuel Martin, the Reverend Horace White, Lloyd Cofer, J. E. McCall, and the Reverend J. D. Howell.

The National Committee headed by the Governor of Michigan will include distinguished leaders of both races throughout the nation and each of the forty-eight states will be represented in the exhibition. With no parallel in American history, this jubilee is expected to attract a million visitors from all parts of the world. Detroit's geographical position as the gateway to the East and to the West of our country won the support of the government for this mammoth spectacle.

With the active cooperation of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce the Michigan Tourist Bureau, the Convention Bureau and the Board of Education along with all stage agencies, the success of this unprecedented undertaking has been assured. It has been officially estimated that the exhibition will give employment to approximately five thousand colored citizen.

Concert Artist
Makes Big Hit

Mr. R. E. Belton, concert artist, of Minneapolis, who appeared at Zion Baptist church Thursday evening, May 19, received hearty applause from the audience which witnessed his most unique and interesting entertainment.

The solos rendered by him, and the poems which he dramatized so beautifully, were well received and enjoyed by all.

His last act of entertainment was, motion pictures of his trip to Honolulu and many other pictures of interest. Some of the audience were thrilled to see themselves on the screen in real "movies." They can say that Mr. Belton put them in the "movies."

Mr. Belton's baritone voice made quite an impression, in fact he is an unusual artist in every respect.

We have never witnessed an entertainment of this nature before. He will return to us again in June.
