MID-CITY QUEEN IN THE HOSPITAL

On Thursday, June 23rd Miss Celestine Smith, who was crowned queen in the annual affair of St. Phillips Church last year, was taken to a local hospital for a very serious operation.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. John Smith. Her mother Mrs. Ada Beasley of Chicago, her aunt Mrs. Slater of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Eva Milap were at the bedside of their daughter and niece.

Mrs. Slater brought the sad news of Mr. Smith's sister death, Miss Hulder Smith, who resided in Chicago for the past 15 years.

Miss Celestine Smith is reported doing well as could be expected under the present condition.

PORO CLUB MEETS

The Poro Cosmologist Club held their June monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Zethro Brooks.

After a very brief and interesting meeting the program committee presented an unusual program. It was a complete surprise to the members. Each member was given a piece of paper with a question concerning the Negro in History, also biblical questions were asked. We all hope to do better next time. Thanks to Mrs. Susie Lillard for her thought and tact.

The president expresses regrets that so many members were absent.

The hostess served a lovely repast.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. L. D. Thompson, 1914 N. 27th St.

Mrs. Alberta Michel, Pres. Mrs. Zethro Brooks, Secretary from Cheyenne

From us of Cheyenne Wyoming, to say that we are enroute to the National Conference of Social Work which opens its 1938 session Sunday night, June 26, in Seattle, Washington.

We hope to have news of this conference send to you direct from publicity headquarters.

The Negro delegates usually get together at such conferences and doubt there will be interesting news about five people and their work in the Seattle papers.

We hope to get information valuable not only to our work at Wozson Center, but to the city of Omaha.

Such conferences are always inspiring. We feel it is therefore a privilege to be able to attend and pass on the information and inspiration to our fellow workers and friends in Omaha.

Any further information we may be able to give will be gladly passed on.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Eighty of your sons and daughters will write short stories for the Omaha Guide beginning in the issue July 9th. Don't miss the first issue of this serial story.—Title—"Tangle Threads."

YWCA NEWS

Girl Reserve Camp opened at Camp Brewster, June 27th with six Branch G. R's taking part, namely; Gwendolyn Bell, Joyce Blair, Bryce Derris, Melba Faucett, Elmira Kirg and Doris Newland with Mrs. Lucy Charlotte Crawford as adviser of the group. Mrs. Crawford is the Girl Reserve Secretary of the Branch.

Elsie Mallory and Helen Bradshaw represented the Girl Reserve Department of the Northside Branch at the G. R. Conference held at Camp Brewster, June 20-25. The Conference as reported by the girls, was a very successful affair.

All club work for the summer has ended, with the exception of the Trojan girls who are making draperies for the "Y", as their domain for the "Y", until September.

The Annual Spring Party of the Quack Club was held on Monday, June 20th at the Rosebowl Ballroom with approximately 500 guests enjoying the music of Lloyd Hunter's Orchestra. It was a beautiful affair.

The Stay-at-Home Camp is progressing very nicely under the leadership of volunteers, namely; Misses Dorothy Beck, Oro Lee Britt, Doris Newland, Mary Harris, Teresa Curry, Bernice Grace Mary Moore, Mrs. Jean Chew, Mrs. L. C. Crawford and Mrs. Ella Mills.

The group meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The Story Telling groups meet on Thursday and both groups meet from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m. The groups close on July 15 with a very unique program arranged and an exhibit by the sewing department.

The Misses Elsie Mallory and Helen Bradshaw returned the morning of June 27th from the YWCA Girl Reserve Conference.

Miss Elsie Mallory, 14, is vice-president of the Junior-Senior Club, and Miss Helen Bradshaw 15, is president of the Sophomore Club. There were three other colored girls at the conference. They were: Miss Jacqueline Young and Miss Eugenia Simm from Lincoln, Nebraska, and Miss Zelma Strawn from St. Joseph, Missouri.

Miss Elsie Mallory did her share in making camp enjoyable by contributing a poem entitled, "To Brewster," which appeared in the camp paper. Miss Eugenia Simm read a scripture in the Sunday Worship Service, and played for the Candle Light Service that night.
