C. T. M.JI am a reaoder of your column and desire to have you answer a question for me. Please tell me if and when my condition will be changed?

Ans: The coming fall of this year will bring about a decided change for the better. Make it a point to get out and find some kind of employment whether it be the type work you wish to do or not. A job can be foundtry hard to locate one.

F. D.—I am truly in love with n boy and wish to know if he loves me or not. My uncle does not want m to go with boys and I wish to know if you think it is allright?

Disgusted Mary:-Why is it all the women seen to dislike me and especially my husband's people? Is it anything that I am doing?

Ans: Not a logether-you are more or less the type of young woman tha tpeople are inclined to be jealous of and for that reason you should take particular pride in trying to culitvate friends among the ladies. They like you but don't show it as much as you would like them to. Your husband's people don't understand you very well.

R. L.-Seems like every body else looks better to my sweethart than I do. Does he mean usiness or playing with mfe?

Ans: Playing you-he certainly isn't interested in making you his wife. This fellow is after every skirt that comes by and it would be to your advantage to kive up thinking about him and make

L. C .- Which one of these girls I am taking up time with means any good?

Ans: Not one of them intend to be your regular friend and you may as well stop sending all you make on them. The girl who is terribly in love with, is the little lady you left behind a year ago in your home town.

At present the songwriting competition on the West Coast is mainly between Irving Berlin, Jerome Kern, Nacio Herb Brown, Sigmund Rom-berg, Jimmy McHugh and the teams of Gordon and Revel, Warren and Mercer and Robin and Rainger.

Gordon and Revel, year in and year out, are probably the most active. They turn out hit tunes with amazing precision. The popular song for which they can take the deepest bow is the memorable "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking?" Not so long ago it was on everybody's lips.

Its title and opening bar became a catch phrase that captivated the country. More recently this team has been responsible for such tune-ful ditties as "Afraid to Dream," "I Feel Like a Feather in the Breeze," "Never in a Million Years" and "Sweet as a Song," which was among the most performed tunes on and off the air of the past winter.

It was a striking example of American showmanship, attaining as it did the conservative, govern-ment-owned microphones of Britain. No interference marred its mournful syllables, and the startling broadcast brought the tune a vogue as crooners wrapped their voices around it and jazz bands adopted it.

000 The tuneman with the odd name of Nacio Herb Brown is one of the most industrious, as well as one of the veterans, of the movie lots. With Arthur Freed as lyricist, he turned eut the enormously popular "Pagan Love Song," and "Singing in the Rain." This team was also responsible for "All I Do Is Dream of You," which, written for Joan Crawford, was 1934's second most popular song, as well as that spirited hosannah to San Francisco, featured in the movie of that name which everybody was shouting a while back.

None of these tunes, lilting as they were, had the memorable orig- Thousand Love Songs," as well as inality, however,
