

BAHA'I FAITH

Baha'is throughout the world on July 9th commemorated the eighty-eighth anniversary of the martyrdom of the Bab, forerunner of the Baha'i Faith in Tabriz, Iran (Persia). The Bab, (i. e. Gate) was a merchant of Shiraz, Iran who in 1844 declared that it was His Mission to prepare the way for a new revelation of God's message to mankind.

After six years of heroic steadfastness and ardent teaching in the face of the combined opposition of church and state in His native land, the Bab fell victim of fanatical persecution. He was ordered put to death on July 9th, 1850 in the barracks square. When the guards were sent to take him from His cell for execution, the Bab was talking with one of His followers. "Not until I have said to him all those things that I wish to say can any earthly power silence me," the Bab told him. "Though all the world be armed against me, yet shall they be powerless to deter me from fulfilling to the last word my intention." Disregarding the words, the guard ordered the Bab to the square, where He and one of His devoted followers, who had begged for martyrdom with Him were suspended by ropes to a casement. According to Iranian historians, when the smoke of the volley fired by His Executioners cleared away, the ropes had been severed and the Bab could not be seen. Untouched by bullets, He was found in His cell completing the interrupted conversation with His follower. To those who found Him, He said, "I have finished my conversation—now you may proceed to fulfill your intention." A second time He was taken to the barracks square, and then executed. His body riddled with bullets. In 1863 Baha'u'llah, Founder of the Baha'i Faith proclaimed that He was the divine messenger whose coming had been foretold by the Bab. He too spent most of His life in prison. During forty years of exile and imprisonment he was chiefly engaged in committing to writing the Revelation of which he was the bearer, and teaching and training His followers. The teachings of Baha'u'llah promulgate a new world order of economic security and world peace, calling mankind out of the age of adolescence into the age of maturity, today the Faith heralded by the Bab has organized groups in forty nations. In the U. S. and Canada there are units in over 400 cities.

"Beauty Service for Your Vacation Plans"

Vacation time is here. But if you do expect to spend your leisure time in the great outdoors, you can't afford to neglect your beauty needs. While you are thinking about vacation plans, where you are going, what you will wear, and all the dozen and one other things that go to make up a grand holiday, don't forget first consideration should be given to your beauty needs.

Knowing before you go away that you have had a brand new smartly done hairdress, that your complexion is vibrant with the result of some very beneficial facials, and that you have had a treatment manure certainly gives you an air of assurance.

Fortified with these beauty essentials, you start vacationing with a feeling that its not such a bad world after all.

It is the drying out process that ages a woman's skin. The secret of skin beauty is correct lubrication. Every preparation used on dry skin must be selected for its lubricating qualities as well as its efficiency.

Improving the condition of one's hair is a "MUST" in our modern scheme of living.

There are many contributing causes of unattractive hair. One of the first is Nature's own elements, laden as they are with dirt and dust from streets. Add this to the gases from fast moving automobiles and you have a situation that is a bit rough on the qualities that go to make up a healthy attractive head of hair.

A dusty atmosphere is one of the prime reasons why every woman should give special attention to the condition of her hair.

The modern woman has learned that hair, to be healthy and alive with natural sheen, must have regular reconditioning treatments.

So before going away on your vacation consult us for your beauty needs.

EXPERTS BELIEVE SCHMELING BOXING CAREER IS ENDED

New York, July 14, (C)—As Max Schmeling sailed away on the Bremen for his home in Germany last week, experts predicted his boxing career ended with his last ill-fated encounter with Joe Louis. Doctors at the Polyclinic hospital said Schmeling will be bedridden for about five months before the back injury suffered on June 22 in the ring with Louis will be healed completely. Schmeling is optimistic about coming back to the U. S. in January to fight Tommy Farr, but experts think if the German ever returns to America it will be as a sight-seer.
