WOODSON CENTER NEWS

Summer Vacation School Vacation School at Woodson Center this year interested boys and girls seven to fourteen years of age. Classes were offered in handcraft, woodwork, clay modeling, art, drama, choral, dramatics and folk dancing. Each group of the school enjoyed a game period. The enrollment of the school eighty four by the second week. High school girls took advantage of the vacation period and enjoyed classes in sewing and cooking. These girls are so much interested in domestic arts and sciences, that they have enrolled for similar classes during the month of August.

Closing of Vacation School

Parents and friends of the Center are invited to attend the closing School Monday evening August 8th at 8 o'clock. Children of the school will exhibit their handiwork. A special treat for parents children and their friends will be a symphony concert by the WPA Symphonic Orchestra at 8:30 P. M. in front of our building the same evening. All lovers of good music are cordially invited to attend.

SENIOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

Boys of our Senior Baseball team are still playing a fine game at 22nd and Burdette Streets. Those interested in a good game are urged to come out and give our boys a boost. They are still in the lead, and one always finds time to see the game on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays when our boys play.

VOCATION SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS

Miss Ann's Franklin, Miss Marion Stewart Mrs. Margaret Dickerson Wright, and Mrs. Gertrude James have been our faithful volunteers this month. They have spent each morning in our Vacation School and have done a fine piece of work with their classes.

PICNIC

Children of the School will hold their Picnic Tuesday morning leaving the center at 9.30. Parents of the children are urged to attend those under the age of 8 years must be accompanied by parents or teen age brothers or sisters. Children are asked to bring car fare and lunch. Refreshments will be furnished children of the Center's School and their parents.
