A. B. M.—Does my husband love me? Is he fair with me at all times? Will he continue to be devoted? Is my life in danger?

Ans: Why worry continuously when you really haven't anything at all to worry about. You know perfectly well your husband loves, admires, and respects you, also he is devoted and plays the game fair. Your life is not in danger. In fact your life is one above the average, work hard to keep it so.

W. F.—Will I ever become an employee at the place that I desire to work and if so how soon?

Ans: A job of the particular nature that you wish will have to be gotten by your standing a Civil Service Examination. Then I fear that it would take quite some time as there is usually long waiting list. Take the examinations each period and continue to try for the job as you would certainly like it fine.

E. S.—The man I love has been misinformed about me by some relative. Know that he loves me, but is trying to stay away from me. Will he take me back?

Ans: Under the existing circumstances, it would be to your advantage to make it convenient to meet him, when you do then arrange to talk this thing over. If the man loves you like he has made you believe, nothing on earth would keep him away from you. Naturally he would feel peeved for a while but he will get over it.

D. D. D.—Why is it when I go to Sunday School every Sunday a young girl and the Superintendents wife laugh when I get up? Is it that they think I am stuck up?

Ans: My only suggestion in your particular case is that you be a little more friendly with the people that you come in contact with and they won't be so prone to make fun of you. It is mere ignorance that makes anyone laugh at another person, but they haven't anything in particular against you. They don't know you so well. Continue to go to Sunday School.

P. S.—The man I love, will he be able to get a divorce without having to pay alimony?

Ans: In all probability he can get his divorce without her expecting one dime from him. She is more or less an independent type who will not try to cause him any more trouble whatever.

C. M. I have a boy friend that I have been going with off and on for about a year and I wish to know if he intends to marry me or what does he have on his mind?

Ans: Good times, and plenty of them are the only things that worry him now. No, he isn't going to marry you. It would be to your advantage to make some other nice friends for he really isn't as devoted to you now as seem to believe that he is.

W. R.—Will I have any trouble if I accept and teach at the place where I was last year?

Ans: No trouble at all. The party that worries you to some degree has left the city and he will not enter into your life. There isn't anything for you to worry about concerning your position.

Sees Attempt Made To Smear Defense of Scottsboro Boys

Birmingham, Ala. Sept. 1 (CNA)—An assertion by Solicitor Melvin Hutson, rabid prosecutor in the Scottsboro case, that Communists are engaged in a "deep laid plot to murder the sheriff and deputies" of Decatur County, was denounced this week as an attempt to smear the world wide movement for the defense of the Scottsboro boys.

Speaking in the name of the Communist Party of Alabama, Robert F. Hall, its secretary and candidate for the State Senate, assailed Hutson's statement and declared that he would confer with attorneys concerning action for libel. Hall branded Hutson's charges as "ridiculous, fantastic, mischievous and untrue" and was "an attempt to smear the defense movement with a red herring at precisely the moment when the conscience of Alabama is speaking out for the pardon of the remaining innocent boys through the voices of such distinguished sons of Alabama as Donald Comer and Forney Johnson."

"Any one familiar with our work knows that we strive for harmony between Negro and white citizens, not race riots which are provoked only by reactionaries," Hall continued. "It is in the interests of harmony, unity and better relations between the races that we have consistently sought to wipe out the injustice of the Scottsboro case and forever remove this cankerous source of ill feeling."

Here's Aid for the Butter Budget

By Jane Knox

Just a few simple ingredients, several twirls of an egg beater and presto—there are two pounds of butter instead of one.

HOW often do you look at your grocery budget, wish that you could make that pound of butter go twice as far, and then decide with a sigh that you are just impractically day dreaming? Well, your sigh is really not a bit necessary. This business of having a better butter budget is something more than just a pleasant and fanciful tongue twister—it is a fact. The new and facile method of making your butter spread over twice as many slices of bread will cut the cost of that item to nearly fifty percent of its former self. Plain, unflavored gelatine, plus a little top milk, a few twirls of a rotary egg beater and suddenly you have two pounds of butter for one. It's just as easy as that. And when there are lunchbox sandwiches to prepare every day of the year, you can imagine what a happy difference this will make from an economic standpoint. "But how is it to be done?" you say. Well, here's how!

Calvin's Newspaper Service TESTED RECIPE

By Frances Lee Barton

WHEN food tastes good the assembled family will almost purr with satisfaction after the first mouthful. But, when in addition to tasting good the food is a delight to behold, then indeed you have a culinary "double header"! The combination of a coconut cream pie and luscious fresh raspberries is superb. What a climax to a leisurely Sunday dinner.

Coconut Cream Raspberry Pie

4 tablespoons sugar; 5 tablespoons sifted cake flour; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 2 cups milk; 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten; 1 cup shredded coconut; 2 teaspoons vanilla; 1 pint raspberries; 1 baked 9-inch pie shell. 2 egg whites, unbeaten; 1/2 cup sugar; Dash of salt; 2 tablespoons water; 1/4 teaspoon vanilla. Combine sugar, flour, and salt in top of double boiler. Add milk and egg yolks, mixing thoroughly. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from boiling water; add 1/2 cup coconut and vanilla. Cool. Place 1 cup raspberries in pie shell, then fill with cooled filling. Place egg whites, sugar, salt, and water in top of double boiler, beat with rotary egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water and beat 1 minute; then remove from fire and continue beating 1 minute, or until mixture will stand in peaks. Add flavoring. Pile lightly on filling. Arrange remaining berries around meringue. Sprinkle with remaining coconut. Serve at once.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

Most everybody has something or other in the back of his head which he hopes to do sometime—like going to the Grand Canyon, or watching Sam Chapman hit a home run, or maybe play the guaiar. And I am in the same boat and I have always wanted to write an essay on vice-president—not of the U. S. A., but vice-presidents like where there is 8 or 10 of 'em with some company—and their stenographer will not let you see them. But I have never been able to write, because I know 2 or 3 of the ducks who are 100 per cent O. K., and they might happen to read my stuff, and I would lose a friend.

But maybe I could make one suggestion. And by doing so, maybe I was president of one of these committees, with 10 vice-presidents, I would have all of them take a month each year, and travel around and call on other vice-presidents who are in conference and cannot see you.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA
