COMPLETE SOUND MOVIE HAS MINISTER ACT CAMERA ROLES

"The Thunder of the Sea" full-length sound motion picture, which has been shown with great success in other parts of the United States and Canada, comes to Omaha Thursday and Friday evening, October 27 and 28th.

The film was produced by the Board of American Missions American United Lutheran Church in America as a major feature in the 20th Anniversary Appeal observance of that body.

It is the most elaborate production of its kind ever attempted by a purely religious organization and has attracted the favorable comment of critics generally.

Klieg lights and movie microphones were installed in some of the most historic churches of the communion in order to "shoot" many of the important sequences.

Ministers, church choirs and active members of present day congregations enacted roles that portray the most significant episodes in the history of the United States as well as the Lutheran Church of this country.

They include the exploits of Henry Melchior Muhlenberg, patriarch of the Lutheran Church in America and of his famous son, Peter, who resigned his pulpit to become one of the most trusted of officers in Washington's army in the struggle for freedom from England. Because of his daring courage, he became known to the enemy as "Teufel Pet".

Subway crowds, factory workers homes, distressed by unemployment slums, riots, droughts, floods, armament manufacture, bank runs, street scenes and the hopelessness of impoverished old age are all part of the great canvas portraying the sorry of the church and her mission to the world.

Every scene was photographed especially for the film. Camera-men were sent far into the rural sections into the cities, harbors and factories and high up in the mountains to make authentic records of life in those areas.

The schedule for Omaha is as follows: Thursday, Oct. 27, Redeemer Lutheran Church, 24th and Larimore Sts., Grace Lutheran Church, 1326 S. 26th St., St. Marks Lutheran Church, 20th and Burdette Sts., First English Lutheran Church, Benson, Luther Memorial Church, Dundee.

Friday, Oct. 28—Kountze Memorial Lutheran Church, 26th and Farnam Sts., St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 24th and I Sts.

16 COLLEGES TO HEAR ROLAND HAYES

New York (C)—Richard Copley 113 West street manager of Roland Hayes, tenor, announced Saturday that sixteen colleges, from the University of New Hampshire to Southern University at Baton Rouge, La., will hear Mr. Hayes on his current concert tour. The first New York recital will be at Town Hall on Tuesday evening, November 8. Negro colleges to hear Mr. Hayes will be Alabama State, Tougaloo, Florida A. and M. and West Virginia State. Among the white schools to hear him will be Wesleyan University of Delaware, O., Middlebury College of Vermont, Amherst College, Massachusetts, Acadia University, Wolfville, Nova Scotia, and Mt. Allison College Sackville, New Brunswick.

W. P. A. BAND AT GRAND ISLAND

The Works progress Administration Color-d Band spent October 20 in Grand Island where it took a prominent part in a music festival sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of that city and which was attended by twenty thousand persons.

SYMPHONIC JAZZ LURES DUKE ELLINGTON

Duke Ellington will make a contribution to the more serious music Christmas night when Paul White-man, celebrating the 20th Anniversary of his entry into show business with a concert of symphonic music of 1938, makes an appearance at Carnegie Hall.

Written alone tone poem lines and colorfully titled "Bells of Harlem," it will be one of several works by contemporary American composers. In addition to the Christmas night premiere, there is a possibility of its being given a preview performance on Whittman regular weekly radio program.

Mostly in the "Blue" mode, the forthcoming concert recalls a similar event in Aeolian Hall February 12, 1924. At that time the first public performance of "Rhapsody in Blue" catapulted George Gershwin into the international music spotlight.

Louis Armstrong may appear as guest soloist at the concert, but as yet this is only tentative. The price de resistance of the evening will be a symphony written by four outstanding present-day composers. Each will contribute one movement written around a central theme.

FIRST TRIP IN PLANE DELIGHTS 'PAPA' HANDY

William C. Handy, whose sobriquet of "daddy of the blues" identifies him anywhere American music is played, took his first ride in a airplane last week—and enjoyed every moment of it. The occasion was a trip to Columbia, S. C. where last Saturday he took part in the presentation of a play produced by the Nina Mae McKinney Library and Dramatic Club, written around his life.

In order to lose as little time as possible from the Cotton Club show in which he is currently appearing, the first leg of the journey, New York to Charleston, was made by Eastern Airlines.

Apprehensive before the trip, on his return Mr. Handy who celebrates his 64th birthday in November, was enthusiastic about this modern method of transportation. "Yes indeed," he averred, "any time from now on I have to go anywhere in a hurry, it will be air. There's nothing like it."

HARLEM'S "RADIO PREACHER" TRIES OUT FOR TELEVISION

New York (C)—Bishop R. L. Lawson of the Apostolic Church, 46 W. 133rd street became the first colored minister to try out for television when he made the test at his 9 o'clock broadcast Monday morning over Station WBNX. The television hookup was made through the office of Spar and Lehrer of 49 West 38th Street. Bishop Lawson said the invention on which he experimented is the product of a colored youth and has the backing of white capital. and if it works, will mean much to the race. The bishop and his singers boardcast their usual program of singing, prayer and preaching on the television test, and the results of the experiment will be known soon.

FASHION HINTS

With a rather formal summer over our thoughts turn gladly to a winter filled with formal teas, parties, and dances. These naturally call for something special in wearing apparel. And what could be more charming for that most important social function than this gown? It is made of old rose satin with a full skirt and a six inch ruffle at the bottom. The ruffle is repeated in and off the shoulder neckline, with a bow of the same color and material. To complete this costume elbow length gloves of rose colored mesh are worn. And perhaps you have a lovely old cameo or brooch you'd like to wear. Put it on a velvet ribbon, either of black or the same color as the dress and wear it around your neck.

What could be more in keeping with your "upward" attire?

Maggie: Jack certainly has a sweet tooth.

Sarah: You mean he likes candy?

Maggie: No, I mean he can bite sweeter than any boy I know.

That's The Spirit

Ted: My Wife just fainted in the next room, could you get me a drink of brandy?

Charlie: Certainly, here you are.

Ted: Thanks pal, would you mind getting one for her too?
