The third anniversary of our pastor will be held the second Sunday in next month. The Salem Baptist Church and pastor will have charge of the afternoon service and the Young ministers of Omaha will also render service this day. Help us to show our appreciation of our pastor. Come to Clarinda and enjoy a friendly city. Visitors are always welcome.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
Foreteen Barreights, reporter

Services through the entire day were conducted by the women from the morning worship, through the afternoon and evening worship. Many gems of thought were left by the various speakers. Mrs. Slater, the wife of Rev. Slater of Council Bluffs, Iowa, brought the message for the morning worship. We enjoyed her discussion on the topic "Christian Stewardship."

In the afternoon an interesting program was rendered by participants from the various churches. The music furnished by the Pilgrim Junior Choir was truly wonderful and inspiring.

At the evening service the "Candle Light" service was the main feature. It was uplifting to see the number who came forward and dedicated themselves to God for service.

Revival will start next week conducted by Rev. Burke of Sioux City, Iowa. The sick at this time are doing well. Next Sunday is Homecoming Day and all former Mount Moriah members and friends are invited to come and worship with us. Come and bring all your friends.

THIS WEEK ON RELIGION AND THOUGHT

R. L. MOODY.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman needeth not to be hams rightly dividing the word of truth," Timothy 2:15.

It is very encouraging to know that so many of our church school teachers and group leaders are taking advantage of the opportunity offered by the Omaha Council of Churches sponsored a Leadership Training School for teachers and leaders. Many of our colored churches seem to be represented, but there is room for many more.

In every walk of life, we have realized the need of being prepared for service in any particular pursuit. For a long time, the church failed to begin into specialization in training its Sunday school teachers. But fortunately for the students, we have begun to study and to know our pupils, to know God in our hearts and lives, to know methods and approaches, and to know how to successfully lead our pupils to Christ and his abundant life.

We advise every person who thinks that they are called to teach to go and learn—prepare for service.

The fall session of the Training School meets each Monday evening from 7:30 until 9:30 at the First Methodist Church, 20th and Davenport St.

URBAN LEAGUE COMMUNITY CENTER

From the following schedule of girls club and their work much credit should be given Mrs. Evelyn Singleton for the remarkable work she is continually doing with and for these girls.

LOVELY FROCKS IN NEW FILM

A picture starring Kay Francis rarely fails to be a fashion event, and her latest Warner Bros. film, "My Bill," is no exception. However, in this picture she plays the role of mother to four adolescent children, so that Designer Orry-Kelly's chore was to fashion clothes that would make her appear sufficiently mature but nevertheless extremely chic.

Accordingly his choice of materials was fully as important as his choice of lines. He used many prints, heavy monotone crepes and silk jerseys for Kay while he used mainly taffeta to emphasize Anita Louise youth. One smart street dress Miss Francis wears is done in the au-turn tons of cocoa and dark brown. The dress of heavy silk pleats down the front which are jersey is styled with narrow box cobbler-stitched in brown part way down. The lapel collar and wrist bands of the long sleeves also show this stitching.

Orry-Kelly used heavy black crepe for a long sleeved shirtmaker, a perennial favorite with American women. Fullness fall from the yoke in the form of narrow pleats which are stitched down the from the waist to lower hip-line. Studs of gold and rubies close the front and fasten the cuffs.

Kay Francis herself, is so partial to subdued prints that she seldom makes a picture without including at least one such dress. In "My Bill" she has three. One is a heavy brown and white fabric shot with silver threads. It is made with both short sleeved, V-necked bodice and semi-full skirt gathered into a wide fitted waist-band.

"Spend" Believes Frankie McGrath

THE MOST EXPENSIVE CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT DOUGLAS COUNTY EVER HAD—THAT'S FRANKIE McGRATH!

The most efficient, economical Clerk Douglas County ever had that's Robert Smith!

Frankie is young in years but old in political experience, and in his knowledge of campaigning. Here are the true facts, the real record of his career in office. Over the same period of years Smith handled 1,490 more cases than did McGrath; yet McGrath's expenses for running the office were $43,725.54 more than Smith's; Smith paid into the Douglas County Treasury $38,084.51 more than McGrath. Below is a photostatic copy of a report made by a prominent Omaha Certified Public Accountant. This question—who shall fill the important office of Clerk of the District Court must be decided on facts, not loose talk or wild promises.

HERE IS THE RECORD, Under Robert Smith in 1932-1933-1934 earnings exceeded expenses by $34,109.50 Under Frank McGrath in 1935-1936-1937 expenses exceeded earnings by $47,700.55 The net difference in net results between the above two periods is $81,810.05
