MUSIC CLUB HAS GALA HALLOWEEN PARTY

On the night of Oct. 29th, all of the mystic and weird events of the holiday season were given a grand start at the Halloween party given by the Los Cantores Music club at the home of Miss Ethel Jones, 2811 Caldwell.

One could not help but become enchanted, as the first strains of Jimmy Lureford, and Count Basie's music reached their ears, nor did the smoothly dancing figures of the fun seekers translate anything but joy to the onlookers. Of the grotesque costumes at the affair, Bertram Johnson's gypsy outfit was chosen best among the young ladies, and Delmar Barris' feminine attire was quite natural and becoming to him. Among those present were: Misses, Doris Ware, Ethel Davis, Mary Franklin, Kate Beasley, Winifred Williams, Ella Mae Powell, Katherine Boggus, Dorothy Westfield Dovey Carter, Inez Saunders, Bernice Grice, and Joyce Hall.

Messrs. Eddie Wright, (custodian of music) Felix Williams, William Davis, Jesse Carter, Richard Gibson, Lawrence Smith, Albert Johnson, Clifford Makins, Marvin Kellog and Gilbert Baker. Watch for more events of this active, young people's club especially the concert to be given by them at the end of the month.

Refreshments of orange juice, cookies, pop-corn and Halloween candies were enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Ray Lee Jones, recreation instructor, was in charge.
