

CHURCH NEWS

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH

Rev. L. M. Relf, pastor
Edna Pankey, reporter

Sunday Dec. 11, was a great day at our Sunday school, opened at 9:30 a. m. with a good attendance. Our first anniversary of the pastor and the second anniversary of the church was a great success. Rev. O. J. Burkeheart, of Lincoln, Nebraska preached the morning sermon. The text was found in II Corinthians 5:15. Subject: "What Does It Mean To Be A Christian." Many outstanding thoughts were brought out that afforded food for thought. The afternoon session began at 3 P. M. Many splendid papers were read on the subject, "The Relationship Between the Pastors and the Different Auxiliaries." Then Rev. G. D. Hancock of Clair Chapel church delivered a Sermonette, found in Joshua 13. Subject: "There is Something Beyond." The sermon was highly appreciated. We were favored by an inspiring address by Mrs. J. D. Lewis. Subject: "Inspiration." There was a beautiful solo sung by Mr. Clifford Makins and many lovely songs by the Choir of Pleasant Green Baptist Church. The presentation of gifts was made by Rev. S. Spaght of the Church of God. Many visitors were present. The evening message was brought to us by our pastor. Come out and worship with us. Visitors are always welcome.

TH. CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD CWFF

Elder M. L. Steele, pastor
Mrs. Kathryn Steele, reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:45 with Superintendent P. J. Robinson in charge. Subject: "The Sin of Covetousness and Richness." Everyone was convinced that it is truly a sin to covet. At 11:15 the pastor delivered the message from Joel 2. He showed us that to return to God and he will bless so abundantly that we will not have places to receive his blessings. At six o'clock the Bible Band was taught from Matt. 25:1-9, by our teacher, Mrs. M. Watson. The lesson was wonderfully discussed by all, and we got a good thought, "Not to be like the foolish virgin."

The pastor brought the message at the evening service, from Acts 4. Subject: "Look Upon Us."

We are asking all to come and worship with us. You are always welcome.

Women's work Friday night. All invited.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

Clarinda, Iowa

Sunday school at the usual hour, with Miss Rachel Cason, superintendent, presiding. All had a good lesson and a large attendance, the Church school will have their Christmas program Friday night, December 23.

At the morning service, the pastor preached an instructive sermon full of information. Subject: "Amusement."

The evening service was in high spirit & Rev. Renfrow, of Omaha brought the message which was enjoyed by all.

Next Sunday will be a happy day in Clarinda. A special program will be held in the afternoon. You are invited to attend this program. Visitors are always welcome to Clarinda, Iowa.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH

Mrs. M. L. Dixon, Reporter

Pilgrim Sunday School was well attended. The teachers are busy preparing the children for the Christmas program. After preliminaries by Rev. Campbell, Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor the Mt. Moriah Baptist church spoke to a very appreciative audience, on "Transforming Powers." The subject was taken from Psalms 40:1-3. This was a very effective sermon, touching on the effects of sin.

In the afternoon the Heart to Heart Club held their annual services with Rev. Adams pastor of the Paradise Baptist Church speaking. The ladies trio of Pilgrim sang "Seeking for Me." Mr. A. B. Young sang "If I Don't Get There." The choir of Paradise Church rendered the music for the afternoon. Mrs. Eva Stewart, the loving president of this club was presented with a beautiful picture. Also Mrs. Spann the new efficient secretary was presented with a lovely vase.

Group 2 of the BYPU had charge of the program. A playlet was presented by Mrs. Robbins. Rev. Clayton of Council Bluffs will speak next Sunday at Pilgrim.

Miss Charlotte Williams of Lincoln, Nebraska was a visitor in our services Sunday.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST

Rev. Reynolds, pastor
Willie Mae Ross, reporter

Sunday school was opened at nine o'clock with the superintendent presiding. Teachers took charge of their classes for 20 minutes. There were 84 present.

Morning service was held at 11 A. M., with the devotional service led by the deacons. An inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. Reynolds and was enjoyed by all. We were pleased to have as our visitors, Mrs. Anderson and Miss Anderson.

At BYPU a song service was rendered by Miss Buxton. Instructors took charge of their classes. An interesting program was rendered by Miss Buxton.

Evening worship was at 8:00 P. M. The devotional service was led by the deacons. Prayer for the sick by Rev. Green. Another inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. Reynolds and we all enjoyed it.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor
Forysteen Burroughs, reporter

The sixth annual white gift service will be held Sunday evening December 18, 1938 at 8:00 P. M. Much effort has been put forth to make this service impressive and beautiful. This affair cannot be described fully in so many words. It must be seen to be appreciated. Everyone great and small is invited to come out. Come early so that you may get a good seat.

MT. CALVARY COMMUNITY CHURCH

Rev. R. W. Johnson, Pastor
Mrs. Edna Mitchell, Reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:45 o'clock with Superintendent Edna Mitchell in charge. Forty-five minutes were devoted to the lesson. There was a nice attendance. The ones to receive their premiums in the Gold Stars were, Sister Maude Nickles, Robert Payton, Alberta Shields, Dickey Mooney and Daniel Ware.

The 11 o'clock service was opened by the choir singing. Our pastor delivered the message from the 127 Psalms, the first verse. Subject: "The Maser Builders." Rev. E. C. Gore favored us with a solo, "I'll Tell It Where Ever I Go."

The three o'clock service was opened by Rev. Mildred Jackson. The message was delivered by Rev. Gore, the wonderful young evangelist, who has been running our revival service and is closing out December 12. The scripture was from Daniel 5:27. "You are weighed in the balance and found wanting."

We were favored with a solo by Sister Alice Stevenson.

At 6:00 the young People's Union was opened by Sister Edna Mitchell. The lesson was from II Timothy. There was a nice attendance.

At the eight o'clock service Rev. Gore portrayed the crucifixion of Christ and also held the candle service. There was a packed house. The spirit ran high.

Monday night which is the closing of the revival there will be a musical. We bid Rev. Gore god speed and may she live long to bring His word to this wicked world.

Tuesday night, the Pastor's Aid. Friday afternoon the Mission Circle meets at the church.

We always welcome our friends and visitors.

CHURCH OF GOD

2025 No. 24th St.
Elder Spaght, pastor

Sunday school opened at the usual hour with superintendent, Joe Eddens in charge. The attendance was good. The lesson, "The Sin of Covetousness," was well explained. We should be careful not to covet anything that would be a hindrance to our spiritual progress.

At 11 o'clock, the pastor delivered the message, Subject: "The Need of Spiritual Courage." Acts 28:15. The sermon was very helpful to the congregation, telling us that we must spend much time in prayer, to receive the courage from God that every Christian needs.

At 6:00 P. M., YPM was held. At 7:45, the pastor brought an inspiring message on "Installation" which was very good and enjoyed by all.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. K. Curry, pastor

Order of service:
Sunday school 9:30 A. M.
Junior Church 10:45 A. M.
Senior Church, 11:00 A. M.

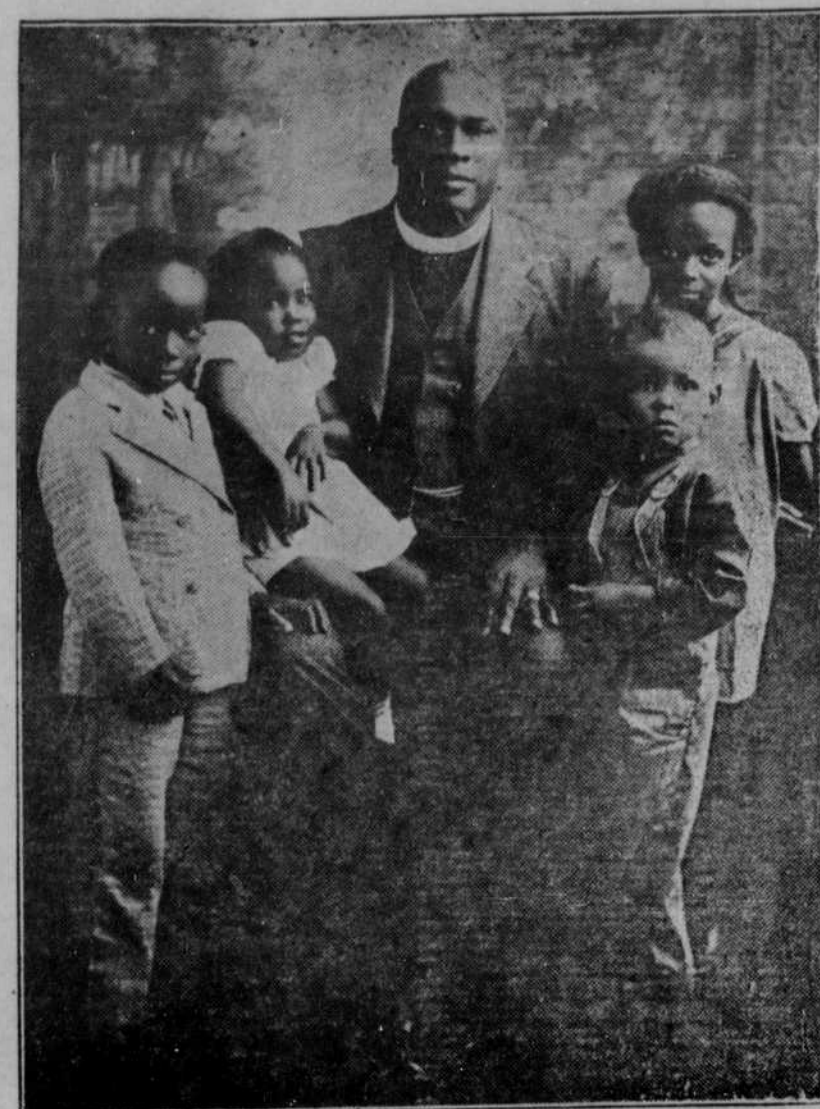

Sunday was well represented with 145 in attendance and every one seemed very enthusiastic in the study of the lesson. The Intermediate won in attendance and finance at usual.

As the Christmas season approaches, the children are preparing a very interesting program which we hope will be interesting and impressive. We urge all who are taking part in the Xmas exercises to be on the job and do their best.

The pastor was still out of the city, Rev. F. C. Williams, the assistant pastor preached for the morning service and he gave up a wonderful message.

At 6:15 the BYPU was well represented with a large attendance, and a very interesting program

PRELATE AIDS "CITIZENS OF TOMORROW"

An outstanding feature of the recent 12th District Oklahoma Conferences of the A.M.E. Church, with Bishop Henry Young Tookes presiding, was the stress laid on the health and education program for the children of the District. Bishop Tookes, shown above, with four children of Barnett Chapel Sunday School in Lawton, Okla., said: "We must look after these citizens of tomorrow. A race's greatness is not measured by the affluence of its adult population but by promoting the health, education and economic welfare of its children."

GLIB TONGUED WOLVES IN SHEEP CLOTHING STILL LEAD YOUNG INNOCENTS ASTRAY

DEAR MISS WATERS—

I am a girl 19 years old. I have recently been going with a man whom I loved very much. I met him six months ago, and it was love at first sight with both of us. He told me he loved me and I believed him. One night three months ago we went to a dance in was rendered by both groups No. 2.

At 8:00 o'clock, Rev. Williams preached another brief but impressive sermon. The Senior will sponsor a candle light service on Sunday evening, Dec. 18th, at 5:00 o'clock. The public is invited to attend this Xmas program.

THE CHRISTIAN UNSPOTTED PALACE

The primary services of the Christian Unspotted Palace, and auxiliary of the National Baptist Evangelical Board Inc. was held last Sunday afternoon at the Interdenominational Church at 26th and Franklin. The attendance was very encouraging and the services were interesting also from start to finish. Rev. W. Contee and his twelve years old son had charge of the singing and their songs satisfied the hearts of many.

Rev. E. Green, Mrs. Mary Edwards, Mrs. Contee and many others made fine talks about the great purpose of the Christian Unspotted Palace. We will meet again next Sunday, December 18th at the same Church. Time 3 P. M.

Come, Listen and Learn for yourselves unspotted from the world.

PAY TAXES BY DEC. 31ST

Readers of the Omaha Guide will be interested in an explanation of the state law cancelling interest on delinquent taxes, as compiled by sponsors of Omaha's civic tax collection campaign for the Omaha Guide 31.

The law states that interest and penalties on all delinquent regular real estate and personal taxes prior to March 19, 1937, be cancelled, provided said delinquent taxes are paid by December 31, 1938. The amount of unpaid taxes, however, draws seven per cent interest from March 19, 1937, until date of payment.

It said delinquent taxes are NOT paid by December 31 of this year, then all former interest and penalties are again in effect on the tax bill.

Taxpayers seeking information about this law should telephone or write the Delinquent Tax Collection Campaign 260 Acquila Court, Jackson 3152.

You are paying the penalty of taking sweet nothings of strangers too seriously. Girls who become unduly familiar with men whom they know little about are taking a great risk. This man's crime against his family and you stamps him as utterly undependable. The fact that your family is well thought of in the community is all the more reason why you should tell them of your difficulty. Although their hurt will be great, parents seldom neglect their children in the time of need. For more detailed information you may send me your name and address. I am sure we can solve the problem without too drastic results.

DEAR MISS WATERS:

I am a woman, 36 years of age. I have a youthful figure, a beautiful complexion and am always well groomed. I am married to a man 10 years my junior. Now I know my husband loves me. We have been married six years and he has showed in every way his affection for me.

Lately a girl has moved next door to us. We have become fast friends, or rather my husband and she have become good friends. She seems to resent me, his wife. Her every action reproaches me for marrying a husband younger than myself. I have noticed of late that my husband is with her much of his time. I was not surprised when she asked me to release my husband, that she had confessed his love for her, and that I was holding him against his will.

Now Miss Watters, I know my husband loves me and this infatuation of his can't last. What shall I do? He is still tender and kind to me, but last night I saw them together—and maybe his love. Miss Watters, please help me to solve this problem. Shall I give him the divorce they desire.

You married a problem when you married a man 10 years younger than yourself, and frankly I cannot say that advice from anyone will help the situation very much. But if you have all of the youth and beauty of which you speak plus the knowledge of human nature which comes mostly with experience I would say that you have more than a 50 per cent advantage in this instance. In the first place you are legally married and there is the possibility that this young lady is curious and adventurous, and that the next young man who comes her way, offering her a problem of conquest will detract her thoughts from her husband. In the meantime, professing disappointment in his breaking faith, but he broad minded about it. This is a quality which is seldom perfected in youth. Also read the beauty advice on the woman's page. There may be additional ideas on being well groomed.

Miss Watters a member of the Niles Domestic Bureau has kindly consented to assist in the adjustment of love and domestic problems for readers of this paper. Note: Miss Waters does not give advice on matters of a strictly legal or medical nature. All such problems should be taken to your Doctor or Lawyer.

I am 16 years old and have never been in love before until now. But now I am seriously in love with a new kid here in town. He is really good looking. And I have honestly and truly fell in love with him. I don't as a rule fall in love with anyone, as all my girl friends can tell you, but now I have fallen and fallen hard.

My problem now is, how can I get acquainted with this guy I love? I don't seem to exactly know how I can do so. I see him every day on the streets, but every time I try to introduce myself to him I lose my nerve and just say "hello."

How would you go about introducing yourself to him, if you were in my place and loved him like I do? Would you go right up to him and introduce yourself, or try and have someone else introduce him? If I introduce myself to him, what would you think the results would be. And what do you think he would think of me? So far I have been quite unsuccessful in having anyone introduce him to me, although they know him better than I do.

Miss T. N. T.

If I were in your place, I wouldn't worry a great deal about this very good looking young man; especially when you have your school work to occupy much of your time. The best way to make desirable acquaintances is to secure an introduction through mutual friends. You say that many of your friends know this young man, and you have been unable to secure an introduction. Did it ever occur to you, that this youngster might not be the Apollo you imagine him to be. Now don't misconstrue my meaning. Wholesome acquaintances between young people are not to be frowned upon. But before you become too deeply interested in any one, make sure they are upright and decent and have a background, in keeping with the social standards your parents have tried to create for you. He perhaps would not react satisfactorily to the blunt display of undue interest manifested in a self introduction by someone who had the love motive.

I was fortunate in securing Mrs. Jenkins, an experienced saleslady, in ladies Ready to wear and Millinery. She is employed by Omaha's largest wholesale house. She comes to me highly recommended by her employers for over ten years selling and will help us during the Holiday season. I believe that she is as capable and experienced a saleslady as can be found anywhere in Omaha. I feel sure that she is the only colored woman who is employed regularly by a large wholesale firm in the history of Omaha for so many years, which is a credit to the colored community.
