Dr. R. A. Adams, Pastor

The Sunday school opened at St. John at 9:30 A. M. with Mr. T. H. Goodwin superintendent in charge.

Dr. Adams continued his message on "Vain Philosophy," under a great handicap of the thought of the illness of Mrs. Adams. Dr. Adams gave a very practical message.

The Union Service at Bethel AME Church with Dr. Adams and his Choir serving was full of spirit. To be in this service and not feel that there is something within, should tell you, you need a check upon yourself. The St. John choir sang with great spiritual feeling and set most minds in shape to hear Dr. Adams message on the "Changeless Christ."

There were people in all parts of the church taken down with spiritual joy. Let us pray that this Union service may grow more and more powerful and brake the hearts of many sinners and luke warm Christians.

The sick of the church are about the same except the wife of the pastor, Mrs. Adams, who has just come home from the hospital and is doing fine. Brother George Ray and L. M. Goodlett are about the same. Brother W. E. Carter is out again.

Next Sunday January 29th, the Union Services will be held at St. John with Rev. Camper and his choir serving. The attendance at these services are getting so large the pastors will have to find a larger place to worship.

We are glad to have the daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Adams with us, but are sorry they had to come on such a mission.
You are always welcome to St. John.

Meditation
"Come now, and let us reason together," Saith the Lord: Through your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be like wool." Isaiah 1:18.

It may be that our zeal is sometimes misdirected zeal for souls comes before zeal for the church. Some say that we need revivals to raise up workers for the church. Or we need revivals because we cannot as a church live without them. This is perhaps true. But there is a greater reason than either of these why we need revivals. We need revivals because so many dear, precious souls are yet unsaved. Our mission is to save souls. We should have a proper zeal for the church to be sure and support and the church will hear the workers and live.

We are thankful for another day of worship and praise.
Jan. 22nd. Sunday school opened at the usual hour with an appreciation attendance. The supt. Bro. James Fellows and his staff of teachers were at their posts.

Morning service—At 11:00 the Choir marched in processional singing, "Holy, Holy, Holy." The pastor selected the text Isaiah 1:10. "Hear the Word of the Lord," using the subject, "Depression the cause and the cure." The cause, failure to obey God. The cure—We must live holy, sanctified, free and separated from sin right here in this present world. Truly our hearts were made to rejoice.

ACE League opened at 6:00 with the president, Raymond Alexander as leader.
7:30, the pastor preached from the 15th chapter of St. John. Theme "Jesus Lives" The central thoughts brought out were—(1) Without God, Nations will perish. (2) A person without God is dangerous character. (3) The Churches are carrying a heavy load; the reason, too many hypocrites in the churches.

For a real gospel feast, we invite you to visit Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church.

At 11:00 the message was brought by the pastor. Subject: "Take Heed Lest You Fall." 1 Cor. 10-12. Many instructive thoughts were received through this message telling us that we must measure our lives to Gods word and put all our trust in God if we expect to stand true to him. Also it told us it is dangerous to resort to the arms of flesh, knowing they will fail.

At 6:00 Y.M.P. The lesson was opened by Timothy McNiel, who received many compliments on such fine explanation.

At 8:00 the message was brought by the pastor. Subject: "By Grace

Are Saved." Eph. 2:5. The message was a very broad one teaching how the works of God's Grace open our hearts and saves us from sin and worldliness. So different is the life of that person whose heart has been save by grace

HILLSIDE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
30th and Ohio Sts.,
Rev. John S. Williams, pastor

Last Sunday morning service at Hillside was a great benediction to those who were present. Rev. Sister Ada Calhoun, evangelist recently returned from California, brought the message. The Sunday school was largely attended and Superintendent Lewis gave a striking review of the lesson. The Junior Choir with its beautiful vesture, sang Christiansens, "Fairest Lord Jesus," with Charlotte Jamerson as soprano soloist. The afternoon vespers broke record attendance since the genesis of these services. The "Invincible Quartette" the only one of its kind of Omaha rendered the music. The musical vespers for January 29th will be one of unusual interest and beauty. The Junior and Senior Choirs of Hillside will furnish the music. Rev. John S. Williams, pastor of the church will give readings from Gibran's "The Son of Man." Make these afternoon services a part of your Sunday's activities.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. E. H. Hilson, pastor
Anita Depp-Young, reporter

Sunday services at the Salem Baptist church were well attended throughout the day. The Sunday school which has progressed rapidly under the leadership of Mr. J. Rosebaugh will forge ahead rapidly under his re-elected leadership.

A spirited 11:00 service was enjoyed by all present Sunday morning. Rev. E. H. Hilson filled his pulpit for the first time in fifteen days. He has been quite ill.

The BYPU opened promptly at 5:30 with W. M. Cooper at his post. We are sure our BYPU will continue to progress under the leadership of Mr. Cooper.

The evening message was brought again by our pastor who gave us many interesting facts about our race leaders.

The reporter attended the Mission services of the Society last Friday and was amazed at the number present and the spirit manifested. The lesson was taught by the pastor. The slate of officers for the Missionary Society are as follows:

President, Mrs. E. H. Hilson; Vice president, Mrs. Mary Alexander; second vice president, Mrs. F. Green; Recording Secretary, Mrs. O. Brown; assistant secretary, Mrs. Joe Henderson; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Elnora Morris; Directors: Mrs. A. D. Green director of the Red Circle, Mrs. Mayme Benson, director of the Starlight band, Mrs. C. C. Otis, assistant director of the Red Circle.

THIS WEEK
IN RELIGION & THOUGHT
by ROBERT L. MOODY

Eyes of Hope
During my high school days I remembered seeing the play, "Eyes of Love". As I read an article by Mr. Ollie Stuart in January's Readers Digest I have been made to think about the hope that bubbles up in our hearts.

February will bring Negro history week again, and the things that Mr. Stuart said supply food for thought. Under the heading "A Negro Looks at the South" we are told that appropriations for Negro Education have been more than doubled during the past twenty years or more. Living conditions such as housing, are much improved. The old double tenent quarters are being replaced by modern dwellings.

We are told that education is bringing about a better understanding between the opposite races. In cities like Atlanta, Birmingham, and Nashville, intercollegiate friendship and study brings into a real fellowship. Speaking of business and newspapers a real tribute as paid to the southern Negro. The author stated: "The only Negro daily newspaper in the world is not published in Harlem (N. Y.) but in Atlanta, Ga. —The Atlanta

World.
Time will not permit our mentioning all of the noble improvements in the South. We know that it is probably very far from being the Utopia, but we must recognize the blessings so far. Like the prophets of old, let us look forward with "eyes of hope" toward the time when prejudice will cease to be and equality, brotherhood and liberty may be enjoyed to the highest degree.

TO CONTINUE UNION SERVICE

The Union services which have met with such an overwhelming success, including the colored Methodist Churches of the city, will continue to the last Sunday in March, according to Rev. J. D. Hancock pastor of Clair Chapel. Last night at Bethel AME church when Dr. R. A. Adams, pastor of St. John's AME Church delivered his sermon and his choir sang, marked the last of the original of these meetings. But because of the enthusiasm shown and the packed houses at each service, the meetings will continue until the last Sunday in March. Next Sunday night the services will be held at St. John AME church at 22nd and Willis avenue. The Rev. Camper, pastor of Bethel AME church will speak and his choir will sing.

MOUNT MORIAH VOTED GOODWILL MUSICAL HOST

The president of the Goodwill Spring Musical Choirs met at the home of L. L. McVay, last Sunday and voted Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Choir host of the 1939 musical, which will take place Sunday April 30. This will be the fifth Sunday in April and we hope all churches and civic groups will leave this date open so that all citizens of Omaha may be free to go to what is growing to be a day looked forward to by all.

Mount Moriah was followed in votes by Hillside Church Choir. One could not help smiling to be in a meeting of 12 church choir presidents and see such fine spirit of cooperation on the part of all. They pledged their support to make this year's musical even more interesting than last.

The president wish to take this opportunity to thank the local papers for the fine stories carried in their papers about the musical.

Remember the slogan for this year will be "Spirit of Solidarity."

SUMMER ROMANCE FREEZES IN SNOW OF JANUARY

I met a nice boy during my summer vacation. We went everywhere together. I took a great liking to him and I had begun to regard him as my very own. He returned to school last fall. He wrote several times and finally stopped writing altogether. I am at a loss to understand his action since we have had no misunderstanding. Please answer and tell me what I should do to gain his attention.

Truly Worried.
In love as in other things we must be continually on the alert to counteract changing conditions. Young love has not accumulated enough memories to last it over any prolonged period. Only mature love can stand an extensive separation. A woman should always be sweet and pretty on the day of her lovers departure—even wives often send their husbands with an ill tempered impression of themselves; a very bad practice indeed. Perhaps a beautiful photograph would help to stimulate his memories. Don't mention your feeling of neglect, or accuse him of forgetfulness. Pretend without actually lying, you are having a wonderful time. Think of him and the memories of last summer. Don't let him think you have no other admirers. Get busy on some of your own talent, so you won't have to dwell too heavily on this rather onerous romance. Where there is youth, there is hope.

LET ME CRUSH THE POISON SERPENT

(By William Huff for ANP)

Let me crush the poison serpent
With the spike upon my heel;
Let me teach them once for all ways
How the spiked or bitten feel.
When they had the reigns of power
They were haughty then and bold,
Ah, believe me, they were heartless,

CHIEF BISHOP

Chief J. P. P. Stuckey chief Bishop of the Brotherhood of the Church of the Living God will be here Friday 27th Saturday 28th, and Sunday 29th, of January. We are asking all to come and here this great man of God as he preaches the Word of God so plainly, at the Church of the Living God, at 2316 No. 25th St.

THINGS YOU NEVER KNEW UNTIL NOW

By Etain Shrdiu

Flash:
What happened to the jitterbugs when Mrs. Jackson came home last Friday night. I know.

It seems that Walt Gaskins came out second best last Saturday at noon. It was not a love match by any means.

Since the Golden Gloves Fights many of the boxers have won new names, namely, the HORIZONTAL Thunderbolts.

Why does Willie Edson want to "know you down" when some one mentions a certain Centralite. Do you or don't you William.

A "Get Together Party" was held at Billy De Villas house last Sunday night.

"Two gun man" Rice or two lady man Rice I should say from the way things look. He never fails to have two girls when walking down the halls of Tech High. What "has he got that Gets Them".

Boys up to Tech never run after girls on the fourth floor. (Or do they?) Because they are like street cars. There be another along in a minute.

B. V. seems to have "Changed Partners" now and turned back to J. Q. T.

We should give our race a break in colored pictures. They are just starting and have not had the chance or money to turn out productions like the white companies. The same is true with the newspapers, and other Negro concerns.

Thomas Vaughn seems to like E. M. quite a lot. Better watch your step Vaughn. W. E. will spank.

No denying on T. Scott's part of liking F. F. Can't blame you. She is pretty.

T. Hicks has grown up considerably since the days when.

"Au Revoir" or words to that affect.
