Miss Dorothy Bryant, and her brother, Arthur, and Miss Evalyn Poindexter all of North High school have planned a "Radio Broadcast" act for the "Aurora," which is coming in March.

Miss Bryant will graduate in June, while Miss Poindexter and Mr. Bryant are Juniors.

The "Aurora" is to be given in the high school auditorium.

One of Omaha's oldest citizens Mrs. Anna Jackson was buried last Wed., Feb. 15. Services were at Bethel A.M.E. Church, Rev. Camper in charge.

A birthday party was given in the honor of Shirley Turner, the daughter of Mrs. Anna Turner at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Phillip Gonzales, 2612 Seward St. She received many beautiful gifts. There was a nice bunch and a good time was had by all.

A VISITOR FROM OUT-STATE

Mrs. Isaac Nash of Topeka, Kansas is here visiting her sister, Miss Helen Bradshaw and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bradshaw.

Mrs. Nash is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Sayles, formerly of Omaha, now pastoring in Texas. The Misses Arista Williams, Frances Alford, Dorothy Jackson, Eetty Riggs, and Billye De Villa, were the hostesses at a dinner party given at the home of Miss Williams, 2816, Blondo St., Sunday night, February 19. An enjoyable time was had by all.

Mrs. Geno Gasley Wallingford, formerly of Omaha and her sister, Mrs. Pearl Pitts, both of Atchison, Kansas have just concluded a two weeks visit in the city where they were lavishly entertained by many of their friends. Some of their hosts were: Mr. and Mrs. John Hickman; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones; Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Mortimer; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Laura Moore. Needless to say they also paid their courtesy calls to the Omaha Guide office and were royally entertained by its editor who they rate as one of their best friends.

On the eve prior to their departure they were the guest of Messrs. Parker and C. C. Galloway of the Elks Club where they met many of their friends which resembled more or less a pleasant old time reunion.

The following morning they were the guests of Mr. Galloway where a sumptuous breakfast was served. Mr. Sam Towles was also a guest at the breakfast and he remonstrated with those present that he too had not been privileged to enjoy with them some of their many festivities while in the city.

It was with much reluctance on the part of Mesdames Wallingford and Pitts, also their many friends that they returned home after such a short, but well spent visit. Both they and their friends look forward to a longer visit in the near future.

As usual they leave singing the praises of Omaha and its citizens feeling that Nebraska is properly represented when it is referred to as being the White Spot of the Nation.

Mr. Russell Cooke, of 2231 Miami St., underwent a major throat operation at St. Joseph hospital, Monday morning, Feb. 20. At this time he is doing nicely and expects to return home in 2 or three days.

The Just We Social and Charity Club were entertained by Mrs. J. E. Todd, 2204 North 19th St., Thursday, Feb. 19. The Hostess served a delicious repast. The meeting was well attended. Those that were not able to attend missed a rare treat. A Style Revue and Tea will be given in interest of the club at the residence of Mrs. Clara Dacus April 11 from 4 to 8

The Parent-Teachers Association of Lake School will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, March 2, 1939 at 7:30 p. m. school auditorium 20th and Lake St. Highlights of the evening will be fun activities conducted by Mr. MacCrone, Mrs. Katleman, the president is very anxious for all the parents to be present.

Mrs. William Rogers, Publicity Chairman.

The Mother's Council of the Y.W.C.A. met with their sponsor, Mrs. Charlotte Crawford at the "Y" on Monday, February 20 at 7:30 p. m.

The meeting opened with a prayer to Mothers led by sponsor. Mrs. Traver, who serves on Adult Education, gave an interesting talk in a tactful manner on "Family Relationship". The Council was aroused to much enthusiasm in asking and answering questions.

After the discussion Mrs. Ray Jones, director of Music for the Mother's Council, directed the Mother's Chorus in singing Spirituals and many old favorite tunes.

During the evening the Council was honored in having as its guest Miss White, the sec'y of the Central Y.W.C.A., and her parents Doctor and Mrs. G. E. White, who have served many years in Greece before retiring and her brother and his wife, Professor and Mrs. G. H. White, who have served ten years in American schools, are now going to the Island of Cyprus in Palestine to carry on the same type of work as his father and mother had done.

A beautiful picture was portrayed to the Mother's Council, of the parents and their son. Like the boy Ernest who observed the stone face.

The Mothers saw a beautiful pattern of tapestry of parenthood, being woven into the life of their children to take up the yarns and weave on.

In spite of the cold weather there were 22 mothers present.

Three new members: Mesdames Alberta Burke, Geraldine Martin, and Inez Partridge.

The meeting is held each Monday night from 7:30 until 9:30.

The last Monday is reserved for a birthday party.

All Mothers are invited to be members.

Mrs. C. Crawford, Sponsor, J. C. Normar, reporter.

"I'M ALWAYS CHASING RAINBOWS" By Harry Carroll and Joe McCarthy. "MY, MY, WHAT A NOISY ONE" "DOLORES" "CRESCENDO" "VIGOROSO" "PRESTO" "FORTESSIMO" "SNAP!"

BIRTH OF A SONG He was a boy wonder on the piano. At the age of fourteen he was a professional key-pounder. The theatre was in his blood, and he was part of a highly successful vaudeville act. He began to show an interest in composing.

From ASCAP Files By Joseph R. Fliesler and Paul Carruth. "WESTON FIELDS & CARROLL" "WARTIME GENTLEMEN LIGHTS OUT!"

Carroll succeeded as a composer and was working at the Friar's Club with Joe McCarthy, A.S.C.A.P., when wartime economy ended their session.

"WHY HARRISON, IT'S LIKE CHASING RAINBOWS" Artist Harrison Fisher, himself a creator, invited the boys to continue their songwriting in his studio.

"THAT'S IT, JOE!! I'M ALWAYS CHASING RAINBOWS IN THE SKY" They told Harrison about their trials and troubles. McCarthy said "It's like chasing rainbows", and Carroll said "There's the theme for our new song!"

"SUZANNE" "THE LONESOME PINE" "A KISS FOR CINQUELLA" "THERE'S A GIRL IN THE HEART OF MARYLAND" "BY THE BEAUTIFUL SEA" "ON THE MISSISSIPPI" It was the hit of their new show, and soon swept the country, in the wake of other successful songs by Harry Carroll.

Harry Carroll was among the first to join the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, organized by Victor Herbert and others in 1914, and retains a high rank.
