"BUSY WEEK-ENDS"

Vercy Lee Norvell, that versatile singing artist of North High school is kept pretty busy full-filling week-end engagements. For instance, last Friday night his engagements were at the Benson and Corby theaters where he appeared in a short stage show. Both appearances were made within the eight o'clock hour. Of the three numbers he sang at each theatre, his most applauded was Vincent Youman's "Without a Song." We are hoping for his continued success.

THE SOCIAL ART CLUB

The meeting of the Social Art Club, was held at the residence of Mrs. Bertha Smith, 2021 North 21st St., on Febr. 23rd.

After the usual opening, a very interesting discussion was held on the birthday parties. One large party will be given on March 13, honoring Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Diggs, Mrs. Lamberth, Mrs. Mayberry and Mrs. Rosebaugh.

The quilt raffle, having been postponed on account of the weather, is to be held on Friday, March 3, at 2021 North 21st St.

Mrs. Smith spared no pains in entertaining her guests, in a most elegant manner. Covers were laid for eight, on the beautifully decorated table in patriotic colors. The arrangement of the center-piece was a white glass bowl, artistically filled with red roses. The console was flanked by blue pastel shade candles on matching candle holders.

The menu was both tasty, and colorful even to the individual cakes that were iced and lavishly decorated in red, white and blue colors, and the after-dinner mints that completed the color scheme of red, blue and white.

After a delightful afternoon, the club adjourned to convene next wednesday at 1494 North 22nd St., with Mrs. F. L. Wesley as hostess. Miss Elma Wesley, President, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Secretary.

GOODWILL SPRING MUSICAL REHEARSAL CREATING GREAT INTEREST

The members of the different choirs are looking forward to the first rehearsal for the spring musical with a great deal of interest. This rehearsal will be held from 3:45 to 4:45 p. m. Sunday, March 5th at the Hillside Church at 30th and Ohio Streets, with the Rev. J. S. Williams, pastor of Hillside, directing the massed choirs, assisted by Mrs. Pearl Gibson.

The choirs have been told to bring their vested robes, as the Lewis Bostick Photo Co. will be out to make some real good pictures of the whole group.

It is important that all members of the different choirs be there and on time, so that the work will get off to a good start.

There will be copies of the group members for sale at the rehearsal for 12 cents per copy. Every person should have his or her own copy in order that they may do their best work, and can see just what Rev. Williams will want of them to do when when they are rehearsing at their respective choirs rehearsals.

Now again, I will say it is very important that you be there if you expect to take part in the musical. Do not expect to get your information from the other fellow. You should be present and get it first hand.

Now lets remember our slogan for this year, "100 per cent Spirit of Solidarity," (by L. L. McVay).

The Martha Washington Tea given by the Zion Mission Circle was a wonderful success, the color scheme was carried out with the red, white and blue candles. Mrs. Bobbie Carter was a splendid representative in dress of Mrs. Martha Washington. The hostesses were the Presidents of the six groups. The president and Mission wish to extend their appreciation to all who helped make this tea a success. Mrs. Beatrice Jackson, president, and Mrs. Willa May Butler, chairman.

"Y" NEWS

The regular meeting of the Up-to-date Girl Reserve Club was held Friday, February 24. The meeting was opened by the sponsor, Mrs. Holliday. A discussion on the lines "I Will Try to Face Life Squarely and to Find and Give the Best" from the Girl Reserve Code was conducted by Althea Robinson. Some very interesting points were derived from the discussion. The social hour consisted of a musical program.

The Mothers' Council enjoyed an unusual meeting at the "Y", Monday, February 27. Many features were a part of the program, mainly Mrs. Travers' lecture on "Family Relations". The topic, "In Laws", was most effective being applicable to all. She related real sympathy would abound in the homes if the parents would in helpful ways put themselves in each others' place. If kindly and forgiving regards were the rule in all households, how it would vanish barriers and domestic misunderstandings. Joy would supersede conflict. Just such simple rules would solve the world's problems.

Another feature being the chorus, which Miss Rae Lee Jones conducts. She put forth more zeal and vivacity than the chorus had ever known. The group responded in like manner with their voices in the song "Trouble Don't Last Always" after which a handkerchief shower was presented to Miss Jones as a token of appreciation for her services. Miss Jones has accepted a position in the South which will mean a loss to the many Chorus' and Glee Clubs of the city.

She has the gift of enabling one to sing whether he thinks he can or not. Many clubs will miss her, however, Miss Willis, who accompanied Miss Jones, will take up her work with the assistance of Mrs. Hieronymous, member of the Mothers' Council. Mesdames Gladys Bell and Marie Robinson will continue as soloist.

The meeting came to a close after playing games, and the serving of refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, this being the last monthly meeting. Mrs. Crawford presented the cake, for there were no members having birthdays in February.

The Mother's Council of the Y. W. C. A. had an enjoyable time. Any Mother not belonging to the Mother's Council club is extended an invitation to join.

The Optimist Club which consists of sophomore members of North Side Branch, gave a program last Wednesday on outstanding Negroes. Lydia McCraty gave a talk on Booker T. Washington. Dolores Caldwell gave a short talk on the lives of Marion Anderson, George Washington Carver, Roland Hayes, Countee Cullen, and many others.

Miss Bernice Bridges, secretary of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. was a visitor February 27 and 28 to confer with G. R. groups and officers of the association. Miss Bridges' home is in Beatrice, Nebraska.

Monday Miss Bridges met with the secretaries of this area concerning summer conference. In the evening there was a 5:30 dinner for advisers Tuesday the G. R. committee met with Miss Bridges at a one o'clock luncheon.

Inter-Club Council held its monthly meeting on Tuesday and concluded with a covered-dish supper in honor of Miss Bridges. Girls from the North Side were Johnice Harston, Lydia McCraty, and Ollie Whidby.

Mrs. Spencer Edwards, at 2418 Binney St., entertained a group of ladies Sunday afternoon at a Birthday Party. The main feature was the playing of Chinese Checkers.

Miss Annabell Thomas, 3022 Corby St., entertained a group of her friends, Sunday afternoon at a Birthday Party. The afternoon was
