THE "ESQUIRE CLUB"

To the many of us who took part in this club's activities last year, a review of the delightful times had will bring back pleasant memories. With spring just around the corner the various members are re-organizing to start the coming season with a boom of social activities.

The following members met Sunday to discuss plans for a semi-formal party in the near future, and to arrange a program for the coming season:

Albert Johnson, Harold Biddix, William Davis, Woodrow Morgan, John Harrison, Felix Williams, Carlette Lewis, Delmar Burris, and Marvin Kellogg.

Meetings will be on Sunday unless otherwise planned.

FONTENELLE PARK RECREATION

The staff of the Fontenelle center had the pleasure of playing the wedding march singing "I Love Your Truly" at the wedding of Miss Florence M. Pilgrim and Thomas G. Reese March 4th, at the rectory of St. Mark's Episcopal church. The staff later attended open house at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Leigh McMahon.

Activities at the Fontenelle center, though somewhat slowed by the epidemic of colds among the youngsters, are building up again rapidly as they return.

WIDE-WAKE 24

Wide-Awake 24 will sponsor a Women's Day Program Sunday, afternoon, 3:30 o'clock March 12th at Zion Baptist church. A splendid program has been arranged. A choir of 50 ladies will render music for the afternoon. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Mae Jackson, president. Mrs. Grace Flanagan, chr.

CHARITY CLUB

The Charity Club of the Urban League wishes to thank those who helped make our Chitterling and Spaghetti Supper a success.

Remember the Forum to be held Sunday, March 12, 1939 at 3 P. M. at Clair Chapel ME Church 22nd Miami Sts. Come out and enjoy a pleasant afternoon with a talented group of entertainers.

MISS RAE LEE JONES GOES TO PINEY WOODS SCHOOL

Omaha lost one of its most talented and useful young women this week, when Miss Rae Lee Jones left for Piney Woods Miss., to join the faculty of the Piney Woods Industrial school, founded some years ago by Prof. Lawrence C. Jones. Miss Jones who is a talented singer, attended the Juilliard school of Music in New York and has travelled extensively with several singing organizations. She will direct a chorus of sixteen girls at the school.

For the past year she has been the very efficient director of recreational activities at the new Logan Fontenelle Federal Housing project. Previous to that she did similar work at the Urban League Center here.

Aside from her work, Miss Jones has contributed much valuable service to the community. She has directed the choir at St. Phillips Episcopal church and built it into one of the best singing units in the city. In addition to that she has taken an active part in "Y" activities, organizing the Mothers Council of 30 women which she has developed into a Mothers Singing Choir.

During the past week, Miss Jones has been the motif for many courtesies. The Mothers Council of the "Y" gave a shower in her honor and presented her with 30 beautiful handkerchiefs, St. Phillips choir surprised her in a body and gave her a handsome leather bound manicure set. The Sunrise Golfers composed of twelve of the city's most prominent young women, whom Miss Jones had served as president for the past two years, entertained for her at the home of Mrs. G. B. Lennox, and presented her with a gorgeous patented leather purse. She has also been the recipient of numerous personal gifts from her many friends and admirers who regret to see her go but wish her God speed and the best of luck in her new field.

Enroute to her new post, Miss Jones will be the week-end guest of Miss Lucille Dudley in Kansas City, Mo.

J. C. Jewell and Jese Hutten entertained the Kappa Fraternity Saturday night at the home of Mr. Jewell, 2233 Grant Sts.

Miss Anna Logan has been confined to her home at 2609 No. 22nd Stret this week with an attack of gripe.

THE PERFECT AUDIENCE

Busy week-ends engagements of our prominent singing artist, Ver-cyle Norvell continued last week with a Saturday night performance at the Rdseland theater, and Sunday evening at the Dundee Presbyterian Church. There he and his assistant accompanist, Booker Washington were received with the most pleasing of hospitality. The group of songs he sang at the Dundee Presbyterian Church was a medley which included Gene Austin's "Lonesome Road," Bert Williams "Nobody," and George Gershwin's "I've Got Plenty of Nuttin'." The number he gave as an encore was his novelty number and his masterpiece, Jerome Kern's "Old Man." Quoted from our artist. "Of the very many places I have sung engagements, I have never sung to a more dignified audience than that of the Dundee Presbyterian Church."

The veteran of many army who participated in the World War, whether enemy or ally of the United States, is invited to attend the regular meeting of Omaha Post No. 1, The American Legion, to be held Tuesday, March 14, beginning at 8:15 P. M., at the Central Club, twentiet hand Dodge Sts.

The Past Commanders of Omaha Post, who annually sponsor one meeting, will be hosts to the Legionnaires and visitors for the occasion and the most honored guest and principal speaker will be none other than Stephen F. Chadwick of Seattle, Wash., national commander of The American Legion.

Speaking on behalf of the sponsoring past commanders, Allan A. Tukey, first commander of Omaha Post, stated, "It is our hope that all veterans of the World War, now living in Omaha, who served in armies other than the United States will honor us by their presence at this meeting and join with the members of Omaha Post in celebrating the twentieth birthday of the American Legion."

"National Commander Chadwick is an able speaker and will have a message of interest to any veteran who served his country during the World War," "Already we know that veterans of the German, Italian, Austrian, British, Canadian, Polish, Belgium, Serbian, French, Russian and Czech armies will attend and it is hoped that no country which was engaged in the World War will be without representation," he continued.

It was just twenty years ago, in March 1919, that The American Legion was organized and since that time Omaha Post No. 1 has almost continually been the largest post in the world. It has a membership of 2,600 for 1939.

Twenty past commanders, eighteen of them living, make up the host group for the March 14 meeting.

Following the meeting lunch and refreshments will be served.

URBAN LEAGUE RECREATION

The fine recreation exhibit and the beautifully staged dramatic production, both of which were part of the Urban League's annual meeting program last week, reflected the highest credit on city recreation talent, it was unanimously conceded.

In response to numerous requests for new classes in woodworking and wood finishing, classes in these subjects will be conducted every Friday evening at 7. Both men and women are eligible for these classes. Bring pencil and notebook.

CATHOLIC WRITER SAYS AMERICA SHOULD EXAMINE OWN

Erie, Pa. 9 — "Where is the fellow hiding who shouted so loud about persecutions in foreign countries?"

This is the question posed by the Rev. Raymond A. Geiger, editor of catholic weekly paper "The Lake Shore Visitor-Register," in his column "Ripples," which appeared in the February 25 issue of the church publication.

Pointing to discriminations which hem Negro citizens in on all sides, Father Geiger expresses wonderment at our continued use of the lines "The land of the free and the home of the brave."

KILL BILL WHICH WOULD PERMIT OHIO CONGRESSMAN

Columbus, O., March 3 (ANP)—The congressional redistricting bill which was introduced in the Ohio legislature two weeks ago by Representative Chester K. Killespie, was killed in committee Wednesday. The Federal Relations committee of the house, by a vote of ten to four, postponed action on it.

The bill would have created another district in Cuyahoga county for weak kidneys—right from Harlem in Holland.
