

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor
Forysteen Burroughs, reporter

Morning worship was well attended and we listened to a splendid discourse from 2 Kings, fourth chapter. Subject: "Killing the Prophets." Among the thoughts gleaned from this sermon was this: that Negro people as a whole, do not have the proper regard for the ministers and servants of God. Nor do they realize that the church is largely responsible for his being where he is today.

Women Eager To Tell of Their Experiences

72 out of 100 users picked at random declare they were helped by a medicine, wouldn't you believe in its merit? That happened in a recent query among Atlanta women and girls. In Jacksonville 99 of the first users queried said CARDUI benefitted them! The high average for ten other cities visited was 92 out of 100 helped.

with New 1939 I. E. S. LAMPS

Redecorate this spring with new 1939 I. E. S. Lamps alone, and you'll think you've moved into a new house! Some of the styles seem almost World's Fair inspired, they're so new and fresh in design. Add to these new styles the warm, cheery glow you get with the soft, generous flood of glareless light and you'll agree, "Here's the easy way to make my home more beautiful!"

Sunday school opened at the usual home. The lesson, "Peter Delivered from Prison," was well taught. Showed us the power of prayer in the early church. Again teaching us we should have the same success through prayer if our life is pure and Holy and we manifest the same faith. At 11 o'clock, the message by the pastor, 1 Kings 6-14 "Building the Home for God." Message was very interesting, proving by God's word, and showing that one can by no means love God, leave his course, and dwell in the homes of Cedar and splendor, while God have no places to be intimated. ST. JOHN A.M.E. CHURCH

"The Friendly Church"
Dr. R. A. Adams, pastor
The Sunday School opened at 9:30 with Dr. Adams acting as Supt. This was caused by the illness of Mrs. T. H. Goodwin, the wife of the supt. being sick. The service Sunday was well attended. Dr. Adams preached at home Sunday morning and in the afternoon he went to South Omaha to take part in the quarterly meeting at Allen Chapel. His choir could not go because of the rehearsal for the Goodwill Spring Musical an engagement before Dr. Adams knew he had to preach in South Omaha.

These choirs will have another rehearsal at 4 p. m. Sunday after they attend the meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. The Union service last Sunday was at St. John with Rev. Hancock and his choir serving. The services were very impressive, and all who came with their hearts set to receive the message were greatly helped. The choir shows much improvement, and sings with the real spirit.

The last Sunday night of the union services will be at St. John the 4th Sunday night, when all the choirs that have been in these union meetings will unite and sing as one choir. This will be a night when the choirs will give the greater part of the service. Because there will be no preaching on this night.

The sick of the church are Sisters Georgia Borders, F. H. Goodwin, S. Hanger, Handy, Rose Mason, Grace Speece and Mrs. Mable Avant and daughter. We pray for these and others whose names were not turned in a speedy recovery. Members and friends of St. John are asked to not let up a little on the giving in the financial drive to pay the debt at the parsonage. You should really give this time until it hurts because it is for better to pay this debt off than to keep paying interest on the money. Now is a time of all times to show your love for your church, St. John.

This year the choir will have its Easter Musical at the Easter morning service. The Sunday school will likely have its during the Sunday school hour. If it is news about your church,
