about dandruff. It is perfectly natural and we all are subject to it. Dandruff is nothing more than the combination of sebum, dried skin and foreign matter caught in the hair from dirt particles in the air. The sebum or oil is being continuously discharged by the oil glands, as Nature intends. The dried skin is constantly being sloughed off by the scalp, and more or less foreign matter is always being caught in the hair.

The oil, the dried skin and the foreign matter mix together and makeup that supposedly mysterious thing called "dandruff." The oil glands on one person's scalp

Let us assure you that there is no dandruff cure, because dandruff is perfectly natural. You cannot stop the oil glands from throwing off oil, you cannot stop the outerlayer of the scalp from peeling off, and you cannot keep the dust from getting into your hair. So you see, you cannot "cure" dandruff, for you have no control over these things which make up dandruff.

Many people think dandruff is an alarming "disease" caused by some "dandruff germ" These are imaginary evils for no dandruff germ has ever been discovered. Common sense, as well as science, tells us that a condition like dandruff, common to almost everyone cannot be a disease."

More than 38 years ago it was discovered that the one way to remove dandruff was to DISOLVE may be more active than anothers it. And remember-your dandruff will return. This is because dandruff is a natural accumulation, and week or ten days after you shampoo, enough dandruff will again accumulate to require another shampoo. To keep your scalp clean and healthy, get a shampoo every two weeks or ten days.

Lily Pons Pins Achievement Ribbon on Miss Calvin

New York March 30 (C)-Lily Pons, the opera star, pinned a red achievement (honorable mention) ribbon Bernice Calvin, 14, Brooklyn College student, at the final concert of the Philharmonic Symphony Society of New York at Carnegie Hall on Saturday morning, March 18, as Ernest ("Uncle Ernest") Schelling, conductor looked on. The award was made for notes taken on the concert series for young people, the sixteenth season of which has just closed. Philippa Schuyler, 7, was given a medal along with Mildred Levy, 14 and Louis Peloubet, 11, both white. The work of Dolores Calvin, younger sister of Bernice was praised by "Uncle Ernest" over the Network through WOR, over which the exercises were broadcast, Bernice and Philippa are the only colored children receiving awards. -000-

DES MOINES LAD STEALS SHOW

By Billy Davis

Carroll Heath alias Jack Gans) of Des Moines who is a middleweight fighter put up one of the greatest and gamest fights that has been seen in Omaha for a long time. He also fought a very good boy who was right in there throwing plenty fist from the beginning of the bell, Little Jack Cramer whom Gans knocked down four times doing the fight was very game. He tried to keep on fighting after being floored. It was too much Gans from the 2nd round on. Cramer started right at Jack with a rush, when the first bell rang. The crowd were on their toes yelling for Cramer. But cool on, Gans just let Cramer keep on rushing him. And tying him at Il times. Then after Cramer had began tiring. Jack turned on the steam. He hit Cramer with a stiff right to the head in the third Atty. Ray L. Williams, round that sent him clear across the ring. Where he landed on the canvas with his eyes glaring at Gans all the way until Referee Fidler had to stop the fight because Cramer was badly beaten. This fight was the best fight on the card. In the finals, Vinciquerra knocked out old Charley Belanger, the Canadian champion in the first round. It looked as if the novice were fighting. The knockout was very much disliked by the fans.

_000-'This Can't Be Love'

It is only natural that all great musicians, and singers should write poetry and thus compose a song using the words from the poem they have written.

Thus is the case with our versatile singing artist Vercylee Norvell, who wrote the following poem on his birthday, last Friday, March 24th.

> "JUST WONDERING" Written original by Vercylee Norvell VERSE I

Last night as I sat and stared, Ho Hum.

I was thinking of my last affair, Ho, Hum,

Just wondering if there could be, Another girl like her for me, I'm half in a trance, mad with romance.

Just wondering, just wondering, Ho, Hum, Ho, Hum.

Winter, Summer, Autumn, and Spring,

Those are the seasons I visit sing sing,

Just thinking of my last affair, Just wondering if she could really

The only girl made for me. Chorus

Just wonderin' just wonderin' That's why I'm feeling blue, And thinking of you, Dar-ling, I'm just wonderin'-Just wonderin'-of you-.

Yet, I'm wondering, Just--wondering.

Chorus Just wondering, just wonderin-That's why I'm feeling blue, And thinking of you, Dar-ling, I'm just wonderin'-Just wonderin'-of you-.

His intentions are to set the words to music, and have the composition completed within the next two weeks. Most of the music for this composition will undoubtedly be written by his genial accompanist, Booker Woshington. We shall all look forward to hearing this composition.
