

Pictures of The Omaha Guide's Plant

Linotype Machines

Engraving Dept.

Printing Press

Why an... Omaha Guide?

To present to the highly concentrated Colored citizenry of Omaha and territory, a complete summary of the worthwhile happenings and accomplishments of the Negro race in Omaha and throughout the world, Truthfully and without unnecessary racial agitations, that they may become better neighbors.

To deal with the social side of their news. An undertaking which the cosmopolitan papers do not feel equipped to deal with in full details as yet.

To furnish honest and honorable employment to young Colored citizens trained to follow the vocations of printing and journalism. To afford a reliable source of advertising for the merchants who sell millions of dollars worth of material to this Negro group each year.

Section Composing Room

Folding Machine

Mr. C. C. Galloway,
Prop. Omaha Guide,
24th and Grant St.,
Omaha, Nebraska.

My dear Mr. Galloway:—

I wish to extend to you my heartiest congratulations, for your 12th year anniversary of operating the Omaha Guide successfully.

I have seen your plant grow from a small newspaper up to its present position of the outstanding Negro paper in Nebraska, which I know was made after years of terrific struggling.

I trust your newspaper will continue to grow, grow and grow.

Yours truly,
Andy Jensen

for enlistment. Previously the maximum height accepted was 74 inches. The minimum height remains unchanged 64 inches. For fellows between the ages of 17 and 18, the new height standards are minimum, 63 inches, maximum 75 inches.

The first American Fleet was commanded by Commodore Ezek Hopkins and consisted of 24-gun frigates, two brigs, two sloops and two schooners. The fleet cost $184,000. Commodore Hopkins was the only man to hold the rank Commander in Chief of the Navy. This title was later merged in that of the President of the United States.

ECONOMY Tailor

1918 N. 24th St.
For Your Spring Cleaning &
Repair Work—SEE
CHAS. M. SIMMONS

The undersigned Supporters of

Leo C. Abramson for CITY COMMISSIONER

Endorse the Article Entitled:
"Read the Truth and
Save A Vote for ABRAMSON"

S. Edward Gilbert,
Lucille Skaggs Edwards,
Elmer Gant,
Wayman Wilburn,
Ira Coleman,
Louis King,
Mrs. Lillian Franc's,
Arthur Sampson.

(Political Advertisement)

READ THE TRUTH AND SAVE A VOTE FOR ABRAMSON

Leo C. Abramson, who spent his childhood days at 27th and Erskine Streets and attended Howard Kennedy school with many young men and women of our group, is a candidate for city commissioner.

Leo studied accounting and finance at Creighton University; he graduated from the Omaha University and was admitted to the Nebraska Bar; for eighteen years he has served the people of Douglas County as Clerk in the County Clerk's office and as Secretary to the County Commissioners. In these capacities he has proved himself to be an efficient, conscientious, and impartial public servant.

Leo Abramson has aided hundreds of aged colored in securing their old-age pensions and these grateful people are 100 percent for Abramson.

It may be of interest to members of our group to know that he was among the first to lend his financial and moral support to J. Westbrook McPherson, our colored candidate, and Abramson is the only candidate who hired a colored girl in his "down-town" campaign headquarters.

He has made a definite promise if elected, to give us representation in his office and the above facts convince us that Leo has sincerity in all that he does and says.

Leo C. Abramson is one of the seven candidates endorsed by the OMAHA WORLD HERALD for efficient and better government.

WHEN YOU GO TO THE POLLS TUESDAY, VOTE FOR LEO C. ABRAMSON. HE IS OUR FRIEND.

Abramson for Commissioner
Club

NAVAL NOTES

The Navy Department has modified the physical standards for enlistment so that young men as tall as 76 inches are now eligible