MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. F. P. Jones, pastor. F. Barroughs, reporter. Attendance was good throughout the day. Services were filled with rejoicing reaching its climax at the evening worship when everyone joined in the singing and shaking of hands.

Next Sunday April 16th everybody is asked to come out and hear a mutual subject "Why Marriage is a Failure" discussed. All persons who are married or are contemplating such, are asked to come out and hear this sermon discussed.

These persons united with the church at the morning worship. These on the sick list are Mrs. Anna Long and Mrs. Julia Henry. Death once again has stolen into our ranks and taken a faithful member in the person of Miss Dora Marshall. She shall be greatly missed by us for she was of a pleasing personality, quiet, cheerful and always willing to do what ever her hands found to do.

Visitors are always welcome to our services.

MT. CALVARY CHURCH

Rev. R. W. Johnson, pastor. Sister Woodie, ass't, reporter. Sunday school opened on time. Sister Booker acting supt. in charge. Sunday school was well attended. Easter program followed the lesson. Eggs were presented to the children. Thank the Lord for making our Supt. and the children happy.

5 A. M. Service was wonderfully attended. The drama and candle light service was enjoyed by all that was present.

11 o'clock service opened with the choir marching, singing "Oh Lord have mercy." Pastor bringing the message, St. Luke 24-32. Subject unspeakable joy. Didn't our heart burn while he talked to us by the way. Union meeting at 6:15 P. M. was well attended. We thank the Lord, he has blessed us.

with a girl class. We are praying for the Lord for us a boy class. Our Junior class rendered a sweet program. Little Miss Ware is our program committee.

Evening service was largely attended. Our church was packed and almost as many outside as was inside. As the Lord has said, "If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me." Rev. Caldwell conducted the service. We were also honored to have Propheless Hess with us. A man of God. Come out and hear him and be healed. Wednesday night. Bring your sick. Don't forget the Fish fry and program rendered Saturday night, April 15th. This fry and program is sponsored by the Count on Me Club. Sister Forrest, captain. We thank our friends for their wonderful support on our financial drive ending June 24th. Watch for announcements on the black boards.

FIRST CHURCH DELIVERANCE

1827 N. 24th St. Rev. A. J. Thomas, pastor. Rev. F. K. Johnson, assistant. Atlantic 0628

Sunday morning Service at 11 A. M. Sunday school at 10:30 A. M. Spiritual Union at 6:00 P. M. Volunteer program 7:00 P. M. Evening worship 8:00 P. M.

Sunday school was opened by the pastor and lesson taught by Sister Arnold. The lesson was commented on by Mother Alexander.

The special Easter service at 11 o'clock was largely attended. The pastor delivered the message and the text was: "He has Arisen as he said. Mark 28:6. Subject: "The Risen Savior." A high spiritual testimony service was led by Sister Arnold and all was truly lifted in the Easter spirit of our risen Lord.

Many visitors were present who were introduced and welcomed by the pastor.

The evening service was opened by the pastor: "Jesus the Light of the World, and "The Lord is in His Holy Temple." The professional was led by Sister Livingston. The pastor turned the service over to Mother Johnson who was in charge of the program. Various Easter sayings and poems were recited by the little folk of whom we are very proud. Sister Holt narrated the "Passing of the Saviour, and his glorious resurrection. The group under the leadership of Sister Livingston aided by Mother Johnson gave some impressive scenes of the passing and resurrection.

a. The Lord's Supper. b. The Hour of Trial. c. Jesus before Pilate. d. The Crucifixion. e. The Resurrection.

The last song joined with the congregation "The Rose." Many visitors were present, including ministers of various churches who in turn were introduced by the pastor, and given a chance to speak a few words. We are very grateful for our success in our Lord, and pray for a steady continuance. Easter eggs were given to all who attended and small baskets were given to our Sunday school children filled with candy eggs and small cotton chickens. The whole procedure was a success. We, the entire body of our church, thank our many friends and visitors who made our success possible.

Announcements. Beginning Tuesday night at 8 P. M. Services will continue the entire week. Tuesday night, Professor Allen

ST. JOHN AME CHURCH

"The Friendly Church" Dr. R. A. Adams, pastor. Sunday was an other banner day at St. John. The Sunday school had a fine attendance.

The choir's Easter Music was rendered at the Morning Service hour. The Cantata, "Victory Devine" was very well presented under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Gibson.

The service of the Orchestra men who have joined the choir gives great help to the program.

In the afternoon, the Union services of all Omaha churches held at St. John was very impressive and well attended. The sermon was preached by Rtv. Hilson pastor of Salem Baptist Church. It is greatly encouraging to have these Union services. Let us hope they may continue to draw us a little closer together.

At 7:30 P. M. the Sunday school program was presented. It was very interesting. Those in charge are to be commended for such programs with so little interest shown on the part of the children.

Now that Easter is over and the Union Service for the present the choir will start it's hard work for the "Goodwill Spring Musical," and its 4th Sunday nights all request programs. Now if you have a request, send them in early.

Now you who have not as yet paid anything toward the financial drive, you can still do so and get credit. Just remember when you pay on this, you are helping your church only. Yours will only be used for what you pay it for.

It is true that cold weather and coal buying season is just about over. So see to it that your obligations are paid.

We were glad to see many out Sunday, but we are sorry to think we may not see some of them out again until next Easter.

The sick are Sister Louise Strawther Brother Cook. We pray for their comfort.

We were glad to see so many visitors out Sunday. We invite them to come again.

Thursday night, Rev. Curtis Jackson will have entire charge. Friday night, A special Candlelight service. The pastor in charge. All are welcome to attend these services.

CHURCH OF GOD

2025 N. 24th St. Elder S. S. Spaght. Sunday school opened at usual hour. Attendance was very good. The lesson "Paul preaches the risen Christ." The lesson taught by brother King Ails Having a risen Christ means "Life." The great truth of Easter means only resurrection but it is life. As he looks back to that empty tomb, it whispers in memory to our hearts.—He lives.—

Message by the pastor. 11 A. M. Mark 16-3. Roll away the stone. Was soul stirring as he related to us the suffering Christ went through to Redeem us from sin. May we be more willing to suffer for the cause of God.

At 7:30 Sunday evening the Easter program conducted by Sister Naomi Johnson was presented. The program was very good. We were glad to have the Keystone Quartette present. They sang for us several numbers. May the Lord bless these young men as they go about singing.

Everyone is welcome.
