DO YOU REMEMBER

Well folks here I am again with some statistics of the old Kentucky Derby which will soon be run at the famous oval Churchill Downs. The first Derby was run in 1875. Churchill Down has been blessed with a high average of fair weather during the 64th running of the Kentucky Derby from 1875 to 1938 inclusive.

The track has been officially fast on 38 occasions and good on 16 others. A total of 48 out of 64 the track condition report is as follows:

- Fast 38
Good 10 (1877-82-84-85-91-96
98 (1930-33-35)
Slow 3 (1909-1920-1927)
Heavy 8 (1883-90-92-97-1907-08-1919-28)
Muddy 4 (1905-1912-1918-1929)
Sloppy 1 (1925)

Total-64
In 1800 and 1881 the track which was very fast was officially reported as dusty. Hunch players usually have at least a sentimental wager on any horse which starts from post position No. 4 in the Kentucky Derby.

Since the turn of the 20th Century seven of the No. 4 horses have come down in front the 1st No. 1 since 1900 was War Admiral in 1937. It repeated in 1938 when Lawrin another No. 1 horse was victor. Here is a tabulation of where favorites have finished in the first 64 runnings of the Kentucky Derby (1875-1938 inclusive).

- 1st-31 times
2nd-16 times
3rd-21 times
Unplaced-15 times

And many Others Say To Their Friends, "Let us help do the Job"

"All citizens interested in the future of Omaha should see an advantage in electing four or more "out" candidates to the city council, in order to control the policies of the council in favor of building Omaha."

James La Hood—"Roy N. Towl's comeback was not a surprise to anyone. People realized that Mr. Towl's practical background and his knowledge of civic and municipal affairs make him an outstanding man to the community. His big vote was not an accident, but a stamp of approval by the people of Omaha who want men such as he to lead them, and make Omaha a better city in which to live."

W. P. "Bob" Donahue—"I can pledge all of the seven independent candidates my earnest support, and I ask my friends to give their help to electing these seven independent candidates. The seven would give Omaha a much better city government that it has today."

Louis C. Borsheim—"I want to do everything I can in supporting the election of Mr. Towl and six other independent candidates. I sincerely hope all of them are elected."

Towl Headquarters announced that several others among the other losing candidates said Towl would receive their personal support, but they did not plan to be active in the campaign.

Six of the independent candidates who were losers in the city primary election have joined in supporting the candidacy of Former Mayor Roy N. Towl and in urging their friends to aid in his election. Three of the six requested friends to support all of the seven independent nominees.

The six are George A. Roberts, W. P. "Bob" Donahue, Louis C. Borsheim, James La Hood, Lieutenant Colonel Reuben Noel Perley, and Ross L. Shotwell. Voters in the primary gave them the combined vote of 16,856. This total is greater than that received by any of the winning candidates below the first three, Trustin, Butler and Kresl.

DARK LAUGHTER

by Ol Harrington

"Mr. Bootsie, a coupl'a gentlemens out chyer wants to see you 'bout sump'n--any' ya better put on ya hat'n coat."

Statements from the six losing candidates follow:

George A. Roberts—"I will give my sincere and active support to Roy N. Towl as the outstanding candidate in this city campaign."

Ross L. Shotwell—"I am for Roy N. Towl, first last and always. He will have all the support I can possibly give him in this campaign, and I want to ask my friends to assist in returning him to the City Hall."

Lieutenant Colonel Reuben Noel Perley—"Because of the apathy of the majority of voters and their failure to go to the polls at the primaries, the "Machine" candidates were nominated. Total votes of all the "Ins" amounted to 119,555 and the "outs" who were nominated had a total of 81,912. The "outs" who were not nominated had 92,396 votes. It is apparent that if all "out" losing candidates mass their support behind the "out" nominees, four new city commissioners can be elected.
