The Mother's Forum Hour held at Clair Chapel, Sunday afternoon May 7, by the Mother's Council was very worshipful and the Fellowship most enjoyable.

A number of Mother's and their daughters took part on the program.

From the response of the talented daughters, the Mothers who took part and those who attended the Forum showed the work of the council from many angles.

Rev. Hancock gave an inspirational talk along the line of the Mother's Council to the Community.

Those taking part on the program: Mrs. Marie Robinson, Mrs. Katherine Manley, Mrs. Jean Chue, Mrs. Mildred Dorris, Mrs. Clara Dacus, the Mother's Chorus accompanied by Miss Edrose Willis, Eva Dorris, Elsie Mallory, Florence James, Rev. G. D. Hancock and Bertha Smith.

On Monday, the Mother's Council were honored in having Captain Meister, who gave a talk on "First Aid." Mr. Fields from the Fire department demonstrated the Iron Lung and Resuscitation. The Iron Lung and Rescue Squad Car are very valuable and most expensive instruments. Although it is for the public it should not be called except in case of emergency.

Several new members were added to the council: Mrs. Magnolia Dudley, 2902 N 25 Street and Mrs. Eugene Hamilton, 2826 Hamilton Street. Next Monday night will be the Mother's Conference. All members are urged to attend. Father Stams will speak on the "Religious Development of the Child."

Mrs. Wm. Triplett, 2711 Wirt Street, is leaving the city for Denver, Colorado Thursday night, May 11th, to be gone about two weeks. Mrs. Triplett is spending quite a bit of time vacationing. She has just recently returned from a four month visit to the West coast, where she visited friends in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, San Diego, California and many other points of interest along the coast. She attended the opening of the Exposition at San Francisco and visited the Fair for a week. She reports a wonderful trip.

Miss Maxine Blair, was married to Mr. Weldon Sneed, of Nat Towles Orchestra, just before leaving for California.

Mr. Sneed will be leaving for California later in the summer to join his wife and make Los Angeles their home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Roundtree Jr., entertained several friends in their home Tuesday evening, May 11th, honoring their house guests, Mrs. Margret Cruder and Mrs. Lulu Smith of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Willis Reid, of Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Smith is the niece of Mrs. Roundtree and was formerly known as Miss Lulu Green of Omaha.

Mrs. Mercedes Groner, 2110 Lake Street, who is working with The Omaha Guide, will appreciate any news of interest reported to her at The Omaha Guide office or over her resident phone, WE 6003.

The Chamber of Commerce Good will tour special train left Sunday afternoon under the care of Mr. Simon Harrold, in charge of miscellaneous services.

The following pullman porters were in charge of the pullman cars: Mr. Frank Wesley, Mr. J. T. Sanders, Mr. Robert Poppo, Mr. L. Washington, and Mr. W. J. Scott.

Mother and Grandson on Sick List

Mrs. Gladys Bell and little Raymond Conwell on one bright summer afternoon.

Mrs. Gladys Bell and grandson, little Raymond Conwell, are both on the sick list today. Mrs. Bell at home, 2415 Caldwell street, is somewhat improved.

On Thursday, May 4th, the baby was taken suddenly ill. Mrs. Alberta Conwell, little Raymond's mother, became very much frightened when all home remedies seemed to fail and a doctor was called in at once. The doctor ordered the baby to the hospital and a child's specialist was called in. It was thought for some time that the baby would have to be operated upon; but after a careful examination, it was decided to keep the child in the hospital under observation by the child's specialist.

Miss Bessie May West, was in Dec. Moines last week attending the dedication of Mrs. Pauline Brown's school of Beauty Culture. The principal speaker at this meeting was Mrs. Marjorie Stewart Joyner, president of the National Beauty Culture League.

Miss West was a representative of the Althouse School of Beauty Culture.

Mrs. W. M. Bell is home from the Methodist Hospital where she underwent a major operation. She is doing very nicely.

Mrs. Willa Johnson, Beauty operator on North 24th St., has very recently redecorated her very modern Beauty Salon.

Mrs. Ruth Burleson Tucker is back in the city for an indefinite stay. She is an efficient operator in Willa's Beauty Salon.

Mrs. J. C. Carey has been confined to her bed for four days with Tonsillitis. She is up and about now and improving very nicely.

Mr. Bracie Morrow is improving very rapidly since he has been home from the hospital. Mr. Morrow was very ill and it will be quite sometime before he will be able to return to his work.

POSTAL ALLIANCE MEETS The Omaha Branch of the National Alliance of Postal Employees had its regular monthly meeting Saturday evening May 6 at the Community Center with its president, Comrade Dacus presiding.

The minutes and communication were read after which a general discussion of new business was in order.

Filling of comrades for delegates to the national convention to be held in Chicago August 15 to 19, was a very important feature of business.

The Branch voted to recommend Mr. Wanabebe Silos Fletcher to the Board of Directors of the Urban League to be appointed its next secretary to succeed Mr. Bernard Squire.

The meeting was adjourned until the next regular meeting in child birth. She leaves a husband and eleven children to mourn her loss. Lewis Mortuary had charge of the remains.

The Poro Club met at the home of Mrs. Maud Thompson 2218 N. 29th Street with all members present. All enjoyed the repast. Mrs. Price, president; Mrs. Brooks, Secretary; Mrs. Walker, Reporter.

On May 3rd the regular meeting day of the Eureka Art Club a very unique tea was given at the home of Mrs. Bell Taylor, 2859 Miami Street. She was assisted by Mrs. Leonara Gray.

The main feature of the afternoon was a display of needle work and a program. The high light of the program was a message on Federated Club work given by Mrs. Willis Reid, State president of Federated Clubs of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Reid encouraged a greater interest in club work and urged the women to cooperate in greater numbers in an effort to make the Federated work of the State of Nebraska one of the outstanding organizations of the U. S. A. She gave many suggestions on how to promote a greater interest in club work among various local and State organizations.

Mrs. Reid was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. MvVay. Other members on the program were: A short talk by Mrs. Lillian Wright on Club work; A response by Mrs. Effie Moore, President of the club. Mrs. Gooden made a talk on Humanity's Hall of Fame; Remarks by Mrs. L. Gray, chairman of Executive Board of the Federation, given by Wesley Taylor.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Maramdudek, Des Moines, Ia., Mrs. Logan, Frankford, Kans.

The refreshments consisted of tea, canapes, ices, candies. The colors of pink and green were carried out.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Burmell, 2501 Corby St. The State Federation will convene the last of June in Omaha.
