For the evening worship our own Mrs. Dorothy White brought to us a beautiful address from the subject "Service." We always enjoy listening to Mrs. White.

Mrs. F. P. Jones was Mistress of Ceremonies.

Next Sunday will be Men's Day and everyone is invited to attend these services. The BYPU hour was quite interesting. A real good time was had discussing the lesson and listening to a talk given by the City BYPU Missionary Rev. Harris.

Visitors are always welcome.

ST JOHN AME CHURCH
"The Friendly Church"
Dr. R. A. Adams, pastor

The services at St. John last Sunday was opened by the Sunday school at 9:30 A. M., with Mr. Thomas A. Goodwin, Supt, in charge.

The officers and Teachers are very anxious to have the aid of parents and guardians in trying to have the children make all rehearsals for the Children's Day program. Now do not think your child or children can be given leading parts unless you have them at rehearsals.

The Sunday school picnic is soon to come up and you will want your children to have a good time.

Now do you think it is fair to have your children go out and have a good outing at the cost of those children who have saved their pennies and missed going to shows to save them when your children do not attend Sunday school? Nor giving any support to it?

As this last Sunday was quarterly meeting day, the presiding Elder preached the morning sermon. In the afternoon the pastor of Allen Chapel and his choir came to assist in the afternoon service. His choir is directed by Mrs. Ethel Webb, who was once director of St. John's choir.

At the evening hour the choir with Mrs. Pearl Gibson directing had its regular 4th Sunday night all request service. These services were very well attended. The president of the choir, Mr. L. L. McVay said the choir was always glad to give the request numbers but should have them requested as early as possible because some time is taken up in finding and rehearsing them before time to render them.

The sick of the church are about the same except Dr. Adams and sister Louise Strawthers seems to be some better.

THIS WEEK
IN RELIGION & THOUGHT
by ROBERT L. MOODY

HOW ART THE MIGHTY FALLEN—

This week much of our patriotism has been stirred by the observance of "Memorial Day". As we count our present blessings of freedom in thought, press, speech, religion and government, we bow our heads in grateful reverence for those whose lives bought such blessings.

Often storm clouds gather in our sky, yet we are as determined as Lincoln that "These honored dead will not have died in vain". We do not only think of war martyrs but we think of all of our departed loved ones who have done their part to make life possible and comfortable for us. One is only noble in death, if he has lived a noble life. As we live, so shall we die and in order to die honorably, we must live honorably. Then too, we must not forget that death is certain, though we shrink from the thought of it. The question is asked—"What man is it that liveth and shall not see death?"—Psalms 89:48.

If we live righteously, we have a hope of a better and eternal life beyond the chilly streams of mortal death.

Our Maker has "no pleasure in the death of the wicked." He assures us that "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."—Psalms, 116:15.

THE IBOPE of W. MIDWEST MEET PLANS ARE BEING COMPLETED

The citizens of Omaha along with the Elks are asked to make the affair an arousing welcome to the many new faces that are expected, the president of the ass'n W. J. Shepherd, Des Moines, Iowa stated he hopes to meet all officers and members at the 14th annual meet in Omaha the largest city of the cornhusker state July 2, 3, 4, 5. The golden spike days aroused an interest in festivities in the people of Omaha that should not be allowed to die out. The colored people in particular, they went to the celebration with a high joyous feeling, costumed and all and took a part in the events, will they be as interested in making one of their own events a successful one. Conventions celebrations and the likes are known as the hotels, cafes, and buffet owners big days. The professional men with little thought of financial gain, only as having the kind of spirit that builds great city pride and retail merchants are asked to throw off its cloak of selfishness and glory in the opportunity of greeting new and happy faces. Each one by joining the Elks to make this meeting one outstanding event will feel his civic pride. Mr. Bobbie Brown, chairman, of the decoration committee along with Mr. Richard Ward and Mr. Harry Lealand, assisted by a committee of the Daughters Temple are asking the people and retailers to decorate their homes and stores so as to make a colorful showing. There will be a big parade, street dance, and several other affairs to entertain all.
