

BENCHES FOR 50 THOUSAND TO INSURE REST FOR FAIR PATRONS

New York—To insure rest for patrons of the New York World's Fair 1939, benches seating a total of more than 50,000 persons at a time will be distributed over the 1216 acre site of the forthcoming Exposition. According to a recent statement by Grover A. Whalen, president of the Fair Exposition, these benches will be shaded by many of the 10,000 fully mature trees which, in one of the most arduous of all the Exposition's projects, were transplanted by a veritable army of workmen. These benches will be easily accessible to the 300,000 visitors expected to pass through Fair turnstiles every "average" day. As sanctuaries for tired, if enthusiastic patrons, most will provide vistas of fountains, cascades, floral patterns and other soothing elements of an elaborate landscaping program.

ther, three different forms of moderate-priced transportation over the site will be provided—tourist buses, trackless trolleys, electric chairs. Parents, too, will be able to leave their little-ones in the safety of "Children's World" before proceeding, unworried and free, to adult attractions.

The Fair, alone, has all but finished the construction of ninety-two comfort stations. Similar facilities have also been erected in the buildings and exhibits of private, participating interests. Forty-six of the ninety-two will be reserved, alike, for men and women. Each will contain thirty-five toilet fixtures. Most of these accommodations will be free.

Ten first aid stations, staffed by a veritable corps of physicians, surgeons and nearly 100 nurses, will dispense free service. While the Fair is to make personal safety its constant watchword, motor ambulances, complete resuscitation equipment, and ten wards (each containing from two to six beds) will meet any emergencies—even childbirth. In fact no less than eighteen "World's Fair babies" are expected.

UNEMBARRASSED TOES

Not nearly as interesting as the bare-foot boy's rag-wrapped sore toe (visible at a price), nor half as distinguished as a case of gout, are the 'best feet' now being shamelessly put forward by the ladies.

Toes poke pertly out of holes in milady's slippers. Heels rise bumpily over uncomfortable looking ridges of leather, giving shoes a cut up look.

This, mind you, not by accident which one could condone, but by ghastly design. For when were lumpy, stubby toes things of beauty?

The nerve strain, too, of sitting staring at toes pushing, straining, all but bursting, through thin shildings of silk, expecting the hose to come apart any minute and expose the girl friend's deformed extremities, must be considerable for any sociable swain.

No wonder more men are taking up pool and billiards.

Another way to quit worrying about the poor unfortunate who needs a dime is to give him one.

Ignorance is bliss, and the opposite is that sick feeling when the photographer shows you the awful truth.

The abundant life has its faults, too. Every time you get equipped for it, the manufacturers bring out new models.

MISS BETTY JEAN JAMES

Miss Betty Jean James, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toby James, 222 North 23rd St., who received four and a half A's and was named among the large number of Honor students of the Senior class of Central High school, has received word from Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., that she has been awarded a Freshman scholarship on her scholastic attainments in High school. Miss James is planning to enter Fisk at the beginning of the Fall term.

band going to send for me as I wish to see him mighty bad and I am sure one troubled girl.

Ans: The only thing that is keeping him from sending for you is the money. He hasn't been able to find favorable employment since he left. Although you two will be together in a few months, you work hard save your money to help bear your expenses to your husband.

A. B. C.—Should I go with this lady out of the city or stay here and help my brother get work. Is it best for him to shift for himself and me to do likewise?

Ans: I hardly think that you would be playing fair to leave when your brother is out of work and dependant upon yourself. Register at the employment agencies and try to get a better paying job. Have your brother do likewise and when you get a job, give up the part time place that you have. Stick to your brother for he certainly will repay your kindness.

L. G. W.—This boy I have been going with has asked me to marry him and I wish to know if it is all right. How can I get an Astrology Reading for this year?

Ans: The boy loves you. You two would be happy if you were married. If you want an Astrology Reading, send a quarter, full name, birthdate and correct address, also send three questions if you desire my opinion on same.

C. C. X.—Mr. Abbe please tell me if Jill is sincere?

Ans: I do not wish to discourage you, but you are being used for what can be obtained from you. Give up your friendship. planter and plows, and that he will take a course in accounting—and work in the shade.

Yours, with the low down, Jo Sorra

Yes, employers do judge your age by your hair. And if your hair is gray you might as well wear a tag saying, "I'm old—too old for this job!"

Have you ever lost out on good jobs for this reason? If you have, don't worry—you can keep it from happening again. Simply color your hair with Godfrey's L'arieuse. No matter how gray yours is now, it will instantly take on glowing, youthful-looking color when L'arieuse is brushed through it. No experience necessary—directions in package tell you how to apply L'arieuse. Takes only a few minutes. Color will not rub off or wash out. Use L'arieuse—keep your age a secret. Who knows, it may mean a new job for you... and new friends... and new chances for romance. Get a bottle today. IF YOUR DEALER DOES NOT HAVE IT, SEND $1.25 (no extra postage) DIRECT TO

ABBE WALLACE, P. O. BOX 11, ATLANTA, GA.

S. B.—Being a regular reader of your column, will you help me out please. Will I go on the trip I have planned for this summer?

Ans: It is indicated that you will make this journey and you will enjoy yourself every minute of the time you are away. You deserve a vacation for a couple of weeks, do not change your mind and give up the trip.

A. R.—My lover has left here and gone to another city. Now what I want to know is, has she got a lover at this other place or not?

Ans: Your girl friends is having a "good time" in the city and naturally she will make friends. She will make a trip back to your town and visit you a week end before the summer is over. You had better talk and talk fast if you want to win her for she isn't going to wait indefinitely.

M. H. R.—Will I recover from the pain I have in my stomach? Do you advise an operation?

Ans: I sincerely believe that a change for the better will take place in your health this year. The thing for you to do is go immediately and consult with a reputable physician or surgeon as you must have medical attention in order to regain your health.

L. R. D.—I am in a predicament over my present position and wish to know how the situation will work out?

Ans: There will be no immediate change for you, although you will be established permanently on a job for the winter months. It is my suggestion that you save every cent that you can in the meantime.

A. Z.—Tell me when is my husband going to send for me as I wish to see him mighty bad and I am sure one troubled girl.
