we the Negroes, needed to create opportunities for our youth. That we should encourage our City Park Commissioner to give us play grounds more conveniently located for our children. He also stated that the Negro needs organized efforts to create jobs for the people and in this way jobs for the people will be realized. Senator Adams thought the Des Moines C. of C. had a fine idea in putting out a register of Negro businesses. He stated also that Negro business men need to understand each other and understand the white business men as well and vice versa.

After Senator Adams' talk, Mr. Gilbert mentioned some of the things that the Negro C. of C. had been able to do in Omaha very recently. He mentioned the stand taken by them in the case of the family of eleven who were evicted from their home in South Omaha. He says the Negro C. of C. were able to get a place for the family for a week, until they could try and find a home. He hopes to get another stay after the present one expires if they have not been suitably located. He mentioned next, that the Negro C. of C. had a movement on to secure a mimeograph machine that would enable them to place the work and achievements of the Negro C. of C. in the homes of the people of Omaha. Another achievement, he relates, was the employment of a Negro in the Fairmont Happy Hollow Ice Station.

Mr. Gilbert closed his remarks by offering for open discussion the questions before the house which resulted in a round table talk. After which pictures were taken and luncheon was served by the capable wife of Mr. McGill assisted by Mrs. Davis, her daughter-in-law and a couple of waitresses.

Rogers, and Mrs. Cozy Nicholson were accompanied by their husbands.
